The Club Rules: Boys and Girls, Pubs and Clubs Johnny Mac, Kimberly D, 2013 Let's be realistic In this technology driven era of computer communication texting and Facebook stalking few remember how to interface face to face The art of communication has become more Picasso than Rembrandt and Club Rules are quickly fading into an era of things people used to know This is unfortunate and need not be In The Club Rules Pubs and Clubs Boys and Girls Authors Johnny Mac and Kimberly D refocus us on these important rules with an updated twist from both the male and female perspective Whether you're young or old recently single or recently divorced following the rules outlined in The Club Rules will not only help you successfully navigate through the club scene but will also guarantee you a blast while there About the Authors Johnny Mac has been single from his late thirties to his early forties and loving every bit of it Being single with the confidence and freedom he has in his forties has allowed him to utilize the same social skills for the night life that he employs every day in building his own business Kimberly D first discovered the intricate and involved world of pubs and clubs while studying abroad in the UK Through her experiences in one particular pub there she learned that she no longer needed to base her self confidence on the amount of attention she was receiving from others Through her clubbing experiences she is constantly learning different techniques and better ways to handle herself to ensure a fun evening

Risk and Hyperconnectivity Andrew Hoskins, John Tulloch, 2016 Risk and Hyperconnectivity brings together for the first time three paradigms new risk theory neoliberalization theory and connectivity theory to illuminate how the kaleidoscope of risk events in the opening years of the new century has recharged a neoliberal battlespace of media economy and security Hoskins and Tulloch argue that hyperconnectivity is both a conduit of risk and a form of risk in itself and that it alters the ways in which we experience events and remember them Through interdisciplinary dialogue and case study analysis they offer original perspectives on the key questions of risk of our age including What is the path to a balance between individual privacy and state or corporate security Is hyperconnectivity itself a new risk condition of our time How do remembering and forgetting shape citizen insecurity and cultures of risk and legitimize neoliberal governance How do journalists operate as public intellectuals of risk Through probing a series of risk events that have already scarred the twenty first century Hoskins and Tulloch show how both established and emergent media are central in shaping past present and future horizons of neoliberalism while also propelling wide pressure for its alternatives on those ranging from economics students worldwide to potential political leaders cultivated by austerity policies

Girls, Autobiography, Media Emma Maguire, 2018-04-05 This book investigates how girls automedial selves are constituted and consumed as literary or media products in a digital landscape dominated by intimate though quite public modes of self disclosure and pervaded by broader practices of self branding In thinking about how girlhood as a potentially vulnerable subject position circulates as a commodity Girls Autobiography Media argues that by using digital technologies to write themselves into culture girls and young women are staking a claim on public space and asserting the right to create and distribute their own representations of girlhood Their texts in the form of blogs vlogs photo sharing platforms online diaries and fangirl identities show how they navigate the sometimes hostile conditions of online spaces in order to become narrators of their own lives and stories By examining case studies across different digital forms of self presentation by girls and young women this book considers how mediation and autobiographical practices are deeply interlinked and it highlights the significant contribution girls and young women have made to contemporary digital forms of life narrative NKJV, The Lucado Life Lessons Study Bible Thomas
