Keeping Quiet Julian Dutton, 2015-07-23 Keeping Quiet is a love letter to the modern sight gag on film and television tracing the history of physical clowning since the advent of sound Taking up the story of visual humour where Paul Merton's Silent Comedy leaves off Julian Dutton charts the lives and work of all the great comedians who chose to remain silent from Charlie Chaplin who was determined to resist the talkies right through to the slapstick of modern day performers such as Rowan Atkinson Matt Lucas and Harry Hill This fascinating chronicle spanning nine decades shows how physical comedy at first overshadowed by dialogue films in the 1930s reinvented itself and how this revival was spearheaded by a Frenchman Jacques Tati Julian Dutton draws on his own experience as a comedy writer and performer to give an expert analysis of the screen persona and the comedy style of dozens of the screen's best loved performers including Laurel Hardy Buster Keaton Harpo Marx Norman Wisdom Jerry Lewis Benny Hill Peter Sellers Eric Sykes Ronnie Barker Marty Feldman and many more This book will appeal both to the serious student of film television and theatre including those aspiring to write or perform comedy and to the general reader and comedy fan Biographical Books, 1950-1980 R.R. Bowker Company. Department of Bibliography, 1980 Focus On: 100 Most Popular American Game Show Hosts Wikipedia contributors, Military Comedy Films Hal Erickson, 2012-08-02 Beginning with Charlie Chaplin's Shoulder Arms released in America near the end of World War I the military comedy film has been one of Hollywood's most durable genres This generously illustrated history examines over 225 Army Navy and Marine related comedies produced between 1918 and 2009 including the abundance of laughspinners released during World War II in the wake of Abbott and Costello's phenomenally successful Buck Privates 1941 and the many lighthearted service films of the immediate postwar era among them Mister Roberts 1955 and No Time for Sergeants 1958 Also included are discussions of such subgenres as silent films The General military academy farces Brother Rat women in uniform Private Benjamin misfits making good Stripes anti war comedies MASH and fact based films The Men Who Stare at Goats A closing filmography is included in this richly detailed volume Class, Gender, and Sexuality in Thomas Gainsborough's Blue Boy Valerie Hedquist, 2019-07-08 The reception of Thomas Gainsborough's Blue Boy from its origins to its appearances in contemporary visual culture reveals how its popularity was achieved and maintained by diverse audiences and in varied venues Performative manifestations resulted in contradictory characterizations of the painted youth as an aristocrat or a regular fellow as masculine or feminine or as heterosexual or gay In private and public spaces where viewers saw the actual painting and where living and rendered replicas circulated Gainsborough's painting was often the centerpiece where dominant and subordinate classes met gender identities were enacted and sexuality was implicitly or overtly expressed "From Beautiful Downtown Burbank" Hal Erickson, 2015-07-11 Rowan and Martin's Laugh In was one of the most unusual programs on television defying definition as simply comedy variety or burlesque The show had audiences laughing for six seasons and continues to make appearances in revivals reunions and salutes This critical history of

Laugh In includes background details on the creation and creators as well as information on lookalike shows An appendix contains a complete program history with principal production credits and episode guides St. James Encyclopedia of Popular Culture Tom Pendergast, Sara Pendergast, 2000 Contains essays that provide information on various elements of popular culture in the United States during the twentieth century covering the major areas of film music print culture social life sports television and radio and art and performance Arranged alphabetically from A to D Art vs. TV Francesco Spampinato, 2021-12-02 While highlighting the prevailing role of television in Western societies Art vs TV maps and condenses a comprehensive history of the relationships of art and television With a particular focus on the link between reality and representation Francesco Spampinato analyzes video art works installations performances interventions and television programs made by contemporary artists as forms of resistance to and appropriation and parody of mainstream television The artists discussed belong to different generations those that emerged in the 1960s in association with art movements such as Pop Art Fluxus and Happening and those appearing on the scene in the 1980s whose work aimed at deconstructing media representation in line with postmodernist theories to those arriving in the 2000s an era in which through reality shows and the Internet anybody could potentially become a media personality and finally those active in the 2010s whose work reflects on how old media like television has definitively vaporized through the electronic highways of cyberspace These works and phenomena elicit a tension between art and television exposing an incongruence an impossibility not only to converge but at the very least to open up a dialogical exchange A Companion to Film Comedy Andrew Horton, Joanna E. Rapf, 2015-12-14 A wide ranging survey of the subject that celebrates the variety and complexity of film comedy from the silent days to the present this authoritative guide offers an international perspective on the popular genre that explores all facets of its formative social cultural and political context A wide ranging collection of 24 essays exploring film comedy from the silent era to the present International in scope the collection embraces not just American cinema including Native American and African American but also comic films from Europe the Middle East and Korea Essays explore sub genres performers and cultural perspectives such as gender politics and history in addition to individual works Engages with different strands of comedy including slapstick romantic satirical and ironic Features original entries from a diverse group of multidisciplinary international contributors Truman Capote Tison Pugh, 2014 Pugh explores Capote through a cinematic lens skillfully weaving the most relevant elements of Capote s biography with insightful critical analysis of the films screenplays and adaptations of his works that composed his fraught relationship with the Hollywood machine Book Review Digest, 1975 Excerpts from and citations to reviews of more than 8 000 books each year drawn from coverage of 109 publications Book Review Digest provides citations to and excerpts of reviews of current juvenile and adult fiction and nonfiction in the English language Reviews of the following types of books are excluded government publications textbooks and technical books in the sciences and law Reviews of books on science for the general reader however are
