Paris 1937 James D. Herbert, 2018-10-18 This elegant and theoretically informed book illustrated with forty five photographs explores the cultural significance of six exhibitions or new museum installations all opening in Paris between mid 1937 and early 1938 the commercially oriented world s fair titled L Exposition Internationale des Art et Techniques the historical Mus e des Monuments Fran aais the ethnographic Mus e de l Homme two massive art retrospectives one sponsored by the state of France and the other by the municipality of Paris and L Exposition Internationale du Surr alisme James D Herbert capitalizes on the proximity of these disparate exhibits to show how they competed with and yet also complemented one another in visually rendering the full scope of human accomplishment through time and across the globe In this task Herbert argues they both succeeded and failed in interesting and productive ways He asserts that the exhibitions projected and in a sense created created precisely through the act of projection the real world that they ostensibly only represented In fact Herbert argues the exhibitions developed a particular sense of French national identity one that in managing to be at the same moment both inwardly focused and beneficently expansive would present a vivid contrast to the growing German nationalism of the Third Reich His epilogue takes a final look at these issues from the perspective of Jean Cocteau s 1950 film Orph e A ground breaking work in cultural history Paris 1937 with its insightful examination of objects from a variety of fields is a pioneering text in the field of visual studies
