Modern Art organised the Museum's first symposium on the modernist architecture of the Caribbean and bordering Latin American countries in collaboration with the Caribbean School of Architecture at the University of Technology Kingston Jamaica. The goal was to encourage scholarly curatorial and broader educational awareness. Topics covered included regional and international legacies, preservation, environmental sustainability and urban planning as they relate to modernist architectural history and contemporary practice. The presenters were leading architects and architectural historians from the region and attendees included their colleagues as well as local and international university students, policy makers, civic leaders and developers from Jamaica, the surrounding Caribbean islands and the United States. This illustrated volume co-published by MoMA and Archivos de Arquitectura Antillana AAA, an architectural journal based in the Dominican Republic, presents the papers from this critical symposium in both English and Spanish, making them accessible to a broader public.
