Realm of the Incas Max Milligan,2001 Max Milligan spent five years in Peru during the late 1980s and early 1990s during which time he took several thousand photographs Since then he has worked as a professional photographer in London he uses tripod mounted Leicas which give superb image quality His ambition has long been to return to Peru when the time was right to shoot the definitive photographic book about the Inca region The time is right now No book at present covers this territory as a whole there are pamphlet guides to Machu Picchu and specialist tomes on the jungle festivals and architecture but there is a yawning gap in the market for a book that provides a photographic overview of the region an area to which 90 percent of foreign visitors to Peru restrict their journeys
