Religion And Society A Namibian Perspective:

Religion and Society Paul John Isaak,1997 South African Perspectives on Notions and Forms of Ecumenicity

Ernst M. Conradie,2013-12-01 South African Perspectives on Notions and Forms of Ecumenicity is the second in a series of publications on the interface between ecumenical theology and social transformation in the South African context It explores the underlying tensions in the ecumenical movement from within the South African context by analysing various notions of what ecumenicity entails It includes a leading essay by Ernst Conradie and 13 responses to the theme by experts in the field

Biblical Interpretation and African Traditional Religion Helen C. John,2019-05-15 In Biblical Interpretation and African Traditional Religion Helen C John juxtaposes grassroots biblical interpretations from Owamboland Namibia with professional interpretations of selected New Testament texts effectively demonstrating the capacity of grassroots interpretations to destabilise challenge and nuance dominant professional interpretations John uses a cross cultural and dialogical approach

Cross Cultural Biblical Interpretation Groups to explore the relationship between African Traditional Religion ATR Christianity and biblical interpretation in Owamboland Namibia She contextualises the grassroots Owambo interpretations using fieldwork experiences and ethnographic literature thus heightening the cross cultural encounter In particular John reflects on Western epistemologies and the Eurocentric interpretative trends that are brought into relief by the African interpretations gathered in Owamboland The Crux of Theology Allen G. Jorgenson,Kristen E. Kvam,2022-05-20 The title of this book plays upon the central place a theology of the cross holds in Lutheran theologies especially lucid in Luther s Heidelberg Disputation 1518 The 500th anniversary of this document coincided with the 70th anniversary of the Declaration of Human Rights by the United Nations wherein the preamble points to a global aspiration of a common good shaped by freedom justice and peace This book is located at the intersection of these two themes asserting that the cross has material content in being the means by which Christ in suffering solidarity with individuals communities and the cosmos advances freedom justice and peace Employing a variety of methods and exploring a broad range of geographic locales the contributors illumine the misuse of Reformation themes and offer a corrective in service of a common good that is publicly accountable and theologically sound The book thereby explores how contemporary Lutheran theology has utility both for analyzing injustice and for advancing justice in local as well as global contexts Namibia, Society, Sociology Volker

Winterfeldt,Thomas Arthur Fox,Pempelani Mufune,2002 Twenty two articles on social structures the state poverty religion culture and gender all of which are in some way particular to Namibia its society and the country s embryonic but promising academic discipline of sociology The work is organised into four major sections economy labour and environment social inequalities and institutions traditionalism culture and art and sexuality and health Some examples of the subjects dealt with are gender aspects of labour migration in Namibia the complexities of class formation social exclusion and poverty amongst Namibia s youth cultural identities in contemporary musical traditions Namibian society in fiction and the Namibian novel sexuality as culture sexual cultures in tradition and sexuality and reproductive health and the possibilities of the co existence and collaboration between western and traditional medical systems The book is jointly edited by leading sociologists at the University of Namibia Historical Dictionary of Namibia Victor L. Tonchi, William A. Lindeke, John J.

Grotper, 2012-08-31 On March 21 1990 Sam Nujoma was sworn in as the first president of independent Namibia This ceremony marked the end of a struggle that lasted more than two decades and a period of colonialism that lasted more than a century Finally after decades long wars over grazing in the 19th century genocidal colonial suppression by Germany at the beginning of the 20th century repressive apartheid racialism throughout the 20th century and a prolonged armed liberation struggle Namibians had the chance to choose their own leaders develop a democratic political process in a free society and to bring economic development and greater equity to their country The Historical Dictionary of Namibia covers the history of Namibia through a chronology an introductory essay appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has several hundred cross referenced entries on important personalities politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Namibia There is a Crack in Everything—Education and Religion in a Secular Age K. H. (Ina) ter Avest, 2019-11-22 There are two constants in academic and theological discourse throughout history they are the debate around secularization and the dialogue concerning the intersection of religion and education Each age has had its debate about modernizing forces that drive concerns of impending secularization In this publication this theme is approached from perspectives of teachers of students of policy makers and situated in a politico historical context Aware of the fact that in today s plural societies one sacred canopy is non existent anymore cracks of the sacred canopy canopies are described as well as the light that gets in the possible and challenging ways out are roughly sketched Global Responsibility - Local Agenda Manfred O. Thomas Gatter, 2006 In various African countries governments are forced to accept and or establish decentral structures in order to facilitate ways in which the poor sections of their population might gain influence on and access to development resources Yet there is confusion about the role and functioning of such decentral structures as well as about sustainable political approaches to the top down transfer of government power in the context of local agendas The book highlights major aspects of the legitimacy of local power as presented by modern self government structures as well as traditional communal authorities Although the main focus is placed on Southern Africa Namibia South Africa Botswana examples from other regions Ghana Democratic Republic of the Congo are also put into perspective Contributors B Benzing Th Gatter G Hilliges M O Hinz H Kammerer Grothaus B Katjaerua E Okupa N Olivier B Oomen H Patemann D Quintern D Schefold G Stuby G T temeyer lgen M Wulfmeyer Transition Towards Gender Equality Sonja Gierse-Arsten, 2024-01-10 Worldwide Namibia ranks high regarding gender equality However many women are intimidated by violence perpetrated by men This book is based on a social anthropological field research in the small town of Outjo situated in Northern Central Namibia over a period of 14 months Gender is learnt lived and reproduced in a societal frame Violence against women too is perpetrated by men in a societal context By using mainly qualitative research methods Sonja Gierse Arsten looks at male and female perspectives to reach a holistic understanding and to provide a basis for sustainable changes towards equal gender relations She traces the transition from a hierarchical gender system during colonial times to the aspired equal gender relations in present Namibia Current challenges characterised by poverty and great economic inequalities form the framework in which gender is performed and violence perpetrated This study offers inspirations to re think gender to reach substantive gender equality and to overcome the normalisation of violence
