Matter John Updike,2009-02-19 In this collection of nonfiction pieces John Updike gathers his responses to nearly two hundred invitations into print each an opportunity to make something beautiful to find within oneself a treasure that would otherwise remain buried Introductions reviews and humorous essays paragraphs on New York religion and lust here is more matter commissioned by an age that as the author remarks in his Preface calls for real stuff not for the obliquities and tenuosities of fiction Still the novelist s shaping hand his gift for telling detail can be detected in many of these literary considerations Books by Edith Wharton Dawn Powell John Cheever and Vladimir Nabokov are incisively treated as are biographies of Isaac Newton Abraham Lincoln Queen Elizabeth II and Helen Keller As George Steiner observed Updike writes with a solicitous almost tender intelligence The critic and the poet in him are at no odds with the novelist the same sharpness of apprehension bears on the object in each of Updike s modes Judaism when Christianity Began Jacob Neusner,2002-01-01 In this book Jacob Neusner gives an introductory systematic and holistic account of the theology and practice of Rabbinic Judaism which emerged along with Christianity from antiquity and formed the classical statement of Judaism to the present day He offers a description of beliefs and practices theology as expressed in mythic narratives and norms of ritual and symbolic behavior Neusner also discusses revelation and scripture the doctrine of God the definition of the holy the chain of tradition embodied in the story of the written and oral Torah the intervention of God in history through miracles sacred space atonement and repentance death and afterlife and art and symbol in Judaism Race, Color, and Religion Matter Carl L. Sweat Jr. D.Min M.Div MS BS,2008-12-08 The secret things belong to the Lord our God but the things revealed belong to us and to our children forever that we may follow all the words of this law Deuteronomy 29 29 NIV As we ponder the question Do race color and religion matter we find that the initial response of many is No If in fact the reader accepts that everything the Creator has made was good then one can acknowledge without reservation that race color and religion have a beneficial existence If the reader can recognize that there is a plan and purpose for all things then without exception one must admit that race color and religion have a purpose on this earth and are ideal instruments of God Race color and religion are deeply intertwined within the life of mankind as well as with the Creator They exist as gifts dispersed among humanity for the purpose of diversified beautification They were destined by the Creator to be used in the fulfillment of His plan for the population of the earth and His plan of salvation Race color and religion serve as indicators of chronological time and are useful in the study of eschatology They serve as indicators of the three phases of human development the Physical Phase the Spiritual Phase and the Intellectual Phase They are also preordained factors of life for various reasons Some of these reasons have been revealed to humanity the others may not be known until the return of Christ If you are a person who believes that these three factors do not matter you must read this book If you are a person who believes the Christian Bible can be studied without consideration for race color and religion your understanding of the Holy Scriptures is both incomprehensive and inconclusive Through this book your eyes will be opened to a new awareness of the glorious and magnificent works the Creator has done and is doing This book provides a better understanding of the proclamations declared throughout biblical history Also you will be presented with an anthological survey designed to enhance the study of the Christian Bible with a focused consciousness of the topic Let this book serve as a sobering experience and a lesson that race color and religion truly matter Theories of Social and Economic Justice André Johannes Van der Walt,2005-08-01 The bulk of the contributions in this publication originated in a research project initiated by the Stellenbosch Institute for Advanced Study STIAS in 2002 The book is based on the idea that the attainment of greater social and economic justice specifically in the South African context is strongly influenced by the implications and the coherence of various theories of social and economic justice Three Questions of Formative Judaism Jacob Neusner,2021-10-01 The academic study of Judaism requires a systematic inquiry into the history literature and religion and eventually the theology as revealed in the historical documents themselves Under this premise Three Questions of Formative Judaism encounters the canonical writings of Judaism in the context of their creation at a certain time and place How something is said thus becomes as important as what is said Bringing nearly fifty years of research to bear on these fundamental questions Jacob Neusner challenges his readers to face the difficult often unasked or neglected questions about the nature background and purposes of Rabbinic Judaism and rewards them with an enriched understanding and a stronger foundation for tackling the even more elusive questions concerning the theology of formative Judaism This publication has also been published in paperback please click here for details Spiritual Identities Jo Carruthers,Andrew Tate,2010 This collection of essays considers the return of the religious in contemporary literary studies In the twenty first century it is now possible to detect a new sacred turn in thought and writing For some writers this post secular identity plays itself out in both a recuperation of religious traditions Catholicism Puritanism Judaism and a re invention of the religious imaginary apophaticism messianism apocalypticism fundamentalism In literary studies the implications of the post secular are revitalizing critical engagement with canonical works and fuelling the reclaiming of neglected writings as questions of the construction of spiritual identities come once again to the fore When Texas Prison Scams Religion Michael G. Maness,2023-05-22 When Texas Prison Scams Religion exposes corruption in the Texas Department of Criminal Justice especially in the abuse of religion In many ways this book is a literature review of 1 800 plus works that defends freedom of conscience in prison while exposing the unconstitutionality of the seminary program that buys faith with favor from prisoners The state veritably ordains the prisoner a Field Minister that represents the offices of the Governor TDCJ Director and wardens throughout the prison Therein TDCJ lies about neutrality in a program all about Christian missions and lies again in falsely certifying elementary Bible students as counselors Why is the director sponsoring psychopaths counseling psychopaths In fact TDCJ pays 314 million a year to UTMB for psychiatric care and receives not a single report of the care given and worse for UTMB generates no reports itself The underbelly TDCJ s executive culture of cover up is exposed TDCJ has hired the lowest qualified of the applicant pool many times in the last 25 years and regularly destroys statistics on violence TDCJ Dir Collier led the prison to model Louisiana Warden Burl Cain the most scandal ridden in penal history according to a host of published news stories for 20 years Therein Collier led TDCJ to favor the smallest segment of religious society within Evangelical Dominionism Texas has no business endorsing the truth of any religion over another We close with a proposal that utilizes the 400 000 000 hours of officer contact over ten years as a definitive influence in contrast to a commissioner that spends less than 10 minutes on each decision Maness has been lobbying Austin for 15 years to definitively access staff for his 100 000 Mothers 1% Certainty Parole Texas Constitutional Amendment which would revolutionize prison culture and save Texans millions of the dollars
