Excerpt from Religion in Greek Literature A Sketch in Outline After my retirement from the Greek chair at St Andrews I was appointed by my former colleagues to the Gifford Lectureship in that University for the years 1894 1895 I chose for my subject the Religion of the Ancient Greeks and delivered two courses of twelve lectures each besides several intermediate lectures In venturing to bring before the public some part of what was then put forth I have limited myself to the portion of the subject which was most familiar to me and which at present perhaps receives less attention than it deserves Recent researches into the culture of prehistoric times have tended rather to obscure the abiding interest of the age of classical literature in Greece While endeavouring to carry out the intention of the Gifford bequest I have sought to emphasise the element of religious feeling and reflection which pervades that literature and is a possession which forms part of the inalienable heritage of mankind Of late years much has been written on the subject of Greek religion and in revising my work I have availed myself as far as I could find opportunity of the books which have recently appeared About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
