Religions in the Modern World Christopher Partridge, Linda Woodhead, Hiroko Kawanami, 2003-09-02 This comprehensive guide offers an unrivalled introduction to recent work in the study of religion from the religious traditions of Asia and the West to new forms of religion and spirituality such as New Age With an historical introduction to each religion and detailed analysis of its place in the modern world Religions in the Modern World is ideal for newcomers to the study of religion It incorporates case studies and anecdotes text extracts chapter menus and end of chapter summaries glossaries and annotated further reading sections Topics covered include religion colonialism and postcolonialism religious nationalism women and religion religion and globalization religion and authority the rise of new spiritualities Religion and the Modern World John Herman Randall, John Herman Randall (Jr.), 1929 Religions in the Modern World Linda Woodhead, Hiroko Kawanami, Christopher Hugh Partridge, 2009 Comprehensive in its coverage this revised edition considers the history and modern practices of the world's main religious traditions It analyses trends in the manifestation of religion in the modern world from secularization to the rise of new spiritualities The World Religions Speak on the Relevance of Religion in the Modern World Finley P. Dunne, 2014-09-01 Public Religions in the Modern World José Casanova, 2011-08-29 In a sweeping reconsideration of the relation between religion and modernity Jose Casanova surveys the roles that religions may play in the public sphere of modern societies During the 1980s religious traditions around the world from Islamic fundamentalism to Catholic liberation theology began making their way often forcefully out of the private sphere and into public life causing the deprivatization of religion in contemporary life No longer content merely to administer pastoral care to individual souls religious institutions are challenging dominant political and social forces raising questions about the claims of entities such as nations and markets to be value neutral and straining the traditional connections of private and public morality Casanova looks at five cases from two religious traditions Catholicism and Protestantism in four countries Spain Poland Brazil and the United States These cases challenge postwar and indeed post Enlightenment assumptions about the role of modernity and secularization in religious movements throughout the world This book expands our understanding of the increasingly significant role religion plays in the ongoing construction of the modern world The World Religions Speak on the Relevance of Religion in the Modern World Finley P. Dunne, 1970 Presents several religions in the respects of the relevance of religions and modern society Delineates both religions and philosophical systems such as Christianity Islam Buddhism Judaism Confucius Zoroastrianism and Hindu discussed and analyzed in associations with and impacts to the Modern world in new social sociological cultural contexts African Traditional Religion in the Modern World, 2d ed. Douglas E. Thomas, 2015-05-11 African traditional religion encompasses a variety of non dogmatic spiritual practices followed by millions around the world Some scholars argue it is related to the Nubian religion of Egypt's Dynastic Period In an expanded second edition this book examines the nature of African traditional religion and describes common attributes of various cultural belief systems with an emphasis on West Africa Principal elements studied include sacrifice salvation and culture modes of revelation divination and African resilience in the face of invasion and colonization The religious experiences of black people throughout the Americas are also covered The author finds the cosmology symbolism and rituals of the Yoruba culture to be the fundamental bases of African traditional religion and draws similarities between the oral and written literature of West Africans and that of New World practitioners The influence of Islam and Christianity is also discussed Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here Religion in the Modern World Lord Northbourne, 1963 Religion and the Modern World University of Pennsylvania. Christianity in the Modern World Afe Adogame, Elizabeth Olson, 2016-05-23 What is the state of Christianity today and what might it look like in the future In the West the story for a long time has revolved around decline and the loss of monopoly status but how are these shifts changing the practice of Christianity or individual belief Similarly the rapid growth of Christianities in the Global South has been well reported but the continuing complex intersections of mission Christianity with indigenous religions are less well known Large scale flows of people across increasingly fluid borders mean that not only does immigration sometimes significantly boost Christian numbers in a given country but that different forms of Christianity shift traditional religious landscapes How will emerging trends such as reverse mission from the Global South affect Christianities in areas more used to sending rather than receiving missions As the majority of believers shifts from the West to the Global South how will issues such as homosexuality be played out theologically politically and individually Will new virtual churches manage to create viable long term communities How does new festival Christianity function in the religious life of an individual The divergent and oftentimes contradictory state of Christianity in the modern world fuels questions about its place and future in the world in politics education and healthcare This book brings together cutting edge research on the most recent changes and trends in Christianity worldwide Contributors drawn from the USA UK and Europe Africa and East Asia offer an invaluable breadth of coverage expertise and disciplinary perspective at the intersections between sociology of religion theology politics education and human geography

A Secular Age Charles Taylor, 2007-09-20 Taylor takes up the question of what happens when a society in which it is virtually impossible not to believe in God becomes one in which faith even for the staunchest believer is only one human possibility among others

Christianity in the Modern World Ambrose Mong, 2022-01-01 The influence of religion on culture is as strong as ever but the shape of that influence is unique in today's pluralistic society In Christianity in the Modern World Ambrose Mong examines critically themes of religious commitment and tolerance attitudes towards other religions and the sociological aspects of religion and inter religious dialogue He provides an overview of factors that challenge traditional religion from the relationship between monotheistic and polytheistic beliefs to the history of tolerance and intolerance in the church and the future of secularism Following the global ethics formulated by the late Hans K ng Mong also engages with the dialogue between Jürgen Habermas and Joseph Ratzinger to provide an extensive defence of the importance of inter religious dialogue with particular relevance to multiple religious belonging in the Asian context Scholars of world religions will find Mong's analysis compelling while students will find his introduction to the historical dialectics underlying many of today's tensions illuminating

Islam in the Modern World Jeffrey T. Kenney, Ebrahim Moosa, 2013-08-15 This comprehensive introduction explores the landscape of contemporary Islam Written by a distinguished team of scholars it provides broad overviews of the developments events people and movements that have defined Islam in the three majority Muslim regions traces the connections between traditional Islamic institutions and concerns and their modern manifestations and transformations How are medieval ideas policies and practices refashioned to address modern circumstances investigates new themes and trends that are shaping the modern Muslim experience such as gender fundamentalism the media and secularisation offers case studies of Muslims and Islam in dynamic interaction with different societies Islam in the Modern World includes illustrations summaries discussion points and suggestions for further reading that will aid understanding and revision Additional resources are provided via a companion website A Revolutionary Faith Raúl E. Zagarra,2023-03-14 Religious commitments can be a powerful engine for progressive social change and in this new book Raúl E Zagarra examines the process of articulation of religious beliefs and political concerns that takes place in religious organizing and activism Focusing on the example of Latin American liberation theology and the work of Peruvian theologian Gustavo Gutiérrez Zagarra shows how liberation theology advocates have been able to produce a new balance between faith and politics that advances an agenda of progressive social change without reducing politics to faith or faith to politics Drawing from theologian David Tracy's method of critical correlation the book focuses on key historical philosophical and theological shifts that have allowed liberation theologians to produce a new interpretation of the relationship between faith and politics in the Christian tradition especially when issues of social justice are at stake The book further approaches liberation theology's contributions to theorizing social justice through an unconventional path a critical dialogue with the work of philosopher John Rawls This dialogue as Zagarra contends allows us to see more clearly the contributions of liberation theology to the cause of progressive social change Ultimately the book stands between public religion and public reason offering something of a blueprint for theological innovation and for how to remain committed to one's faith while respecting and defending the core values of democracy The Psychology of

Modern Religion, Modern Race Theodore Vial, 2016-06-16 Religion is a racialized category even when race is not explicitly mentioned In Modern Religion Modern Race Theodore Vial argues that because the categories of religion and race are rooted in the post Enlightenment project of reimagining what it means to be human we cannot simply will ourselves to stop using them Only by acknowledging that religion is already racialized can we begin to understand how the two concepts are intertwined and how they operate in our modern world It has become common to argue that the category religion is not universal or even very old but is a product of Europe s Enlightenment modernization Equally common is the argument that religion is not an innocent category of analysis but is implicated in colonial regimes of control and as such plays a role in Europe s process of identity construction of itself and of non European others Current debates about race follow an eerily similar trajectory race is not an ancient but a modern construction It is part of the project of colonialism and race discourse forms one of the cornerstones of modern European identity making Why can t we stop using them or re construct them in less toxic ways By examining the theories of Kant Herder and Schleiermacher among others Vial uncovers co constitutive nature of race and religion describes how they became building blocks of the modern world and shows how the two concepts continue to be used today to form identity and to make sense of the world He shows that while we disdain the racist language of some of the founders of religious studies the continued influence of the modern worldview they helped create leads us often unwittingly to reiterate many of the same distinctions and hierarchies Although it may not be time to abandon the very category of religion with all its attendant baggage Modern Religion Modern Race calls for us to examine that baggage critically and to be fully conscious of the ways in which religion always carries with it dangerous ideas of race
