Religion and Public Life in the Pacific Region Wade Clark Roof, Mark Silk, 2005. Pretty much like the rest of the country only more so. This quip from Wallace Stegner well represents the Pacific region's religious culture. California, Nevada and Hawaii emerged more recently more quickly and with more diversity and fluidity than the other United States. Although influenced by Mexican Catholicism, Native Traditions, Asian Religions and Euro American Christianity, no religious tradition dominates and a secular ethos usually reigns. But this very religious indifference makes California and the rest of the region open to all sorts of missionary movements and religious innovations. New organizational forms, new spiritual therapies and new religious hybrids all compete for residents' attention along with secular ways for making meaning. With all these options, residents of the region mix, match and move between religious identities more than other Americans. Without ignoring its diversity, Religion and Public Life in the Pacific Region highlights the key aspects of the region's fluctuating religions and its spirituality's impact on political life.

Sharing Jesus in the Buddhist World David Lim, Steve Spaulding, Paul H. de Neui, 2003-06-01. This book on Christian missions to the Buddhist world not only provides understanding of many Buddhist cultures but provides culturally relevant ideas on sharing Jesus with Buddhists around the world. It lives up to the editors' goal to provide the global church with knowledge and understanding of the Buddhist world and how to reach it for Christ.

Religions and Missionaries around the Pacific, 1500-1900 Tanya Storch, 2017-05-15. This volume takes an interdisciplinary approach to the study of religious cultural exchanges around the Pacific in the period 1500-1900, relating these to economic and political developments and to the expansion of communication across the area. It brings together twenty-two pieces from diaries of religious exiles and missionary field observations to studies from a variety of academic disciplines, so enabling a multitude of voices to be heard. The articles are grouped in sections dealing with the Islamic period, the Iberian Catholic period, the Jewish diaspora, the Russian Orthodox church, the epoch of Protestant culture and finally Asian immigrant religions in the West. A substantial introduction contextualizes these chapters in terms of both historical and contemporary approaches.

Pacific Island Heritage Jolie Liston, Geoffrey Richard Clark, Dwight Alexander, 2011-11-01. This volume emerges from a ground breaking conference held in the Republic of Palau on cultural heritage in the Pacific. It includes bold investigations of the role of cultural heritage in identity making and the ways in which community engagement informs heritage management practices. This is the first broad and detailed investigation of the unique and irreplaceable cultural heritage of the Pacific from a heritage management perspective. It identifies new trends in research and assesses relationships between archaeologists, heritage managers and local communities. The methods which emerge from these relationships will be critical to the effective management of heritage sites in the 21st century A wonderful book which emerges from an extraordinary conference Essential reading for cultural heritage managers archaeologists and others with an interest in caring for the unique cultural heritage of the Pacific Islands Hsieh Liang-tso and the Analects of Confucius Thomas W. Selover, 2005-01-20 Hsieh Liang tso c 1050 c 1120 known as master Shang ts ai was one of the leading direct disciples of Ch eng Hao and Ch eng I the two brothers who were the early leaders of the Confucian revival known as Neo Confucianism in Northern Sung China Hsieh was thus among the first to recognize and follow the insights of the Ch eng brothers as definitive of the authentic Confucian tradition a recognition that became the conviction of the majority of later Confucian scholars and practitioners The present book is a focused analysis of the core value of Confucian thought namely jen humanity or co humanity through an investigation of Hsieh Liang tso s analysis of the Analects of Confucius Selover argues that Hsieh s handling of key issues in interpreting and applying the Confucian Analects his experiential reasoning and his deference to scriptural classics and earlier tradition bear important similarities to the practice of theology in Western religious traditions The volume also contains a translation of Hsieh s commentary on the Analects as well as a foreword by the renowned scholar of Confucianism Tu Wei ming Regional Cooperation in the Pacific Era Mohamed Nooedin Sopiee, 1988 Christians Meeting Hindus Bob Robinson, 2011-06-16 With rare exceptions serious intentional reflective and sustained interfaith encounter is a novel and recent enterprise This book looks in detail at one such encounter the intentional recent Hindu Christian dialog in India and asks why and how the practice of dialog came to replace previous attitudes of confrontation and monologue especially on the part of Christians Part I sets the encounter in its global context Part II offers a comprehensive and critical analysis of the actual encounter Part III draws on aspects of the Christian tradition as it critically examines the ways in which the dialog has been justified in Christological categories A final chapter discusses the future of the encounter Unlike many other works in the area of interfaith studies this work combines both descriptive detail of the actual encounter and critical theological analysis of the strengths and weakness of the dialog model Grounds for Understanding S. Mark Heim, 1998 This volume surveys the various theological approaches that Christian denominations bring to the issue of religious pluralism Writers from eleven Christian traditions discuss the challenges and possibilities raised by religious pluralism The Advent of Sun Myung Moon G. Chryssides, 1991-04-05 The Unification Church popularly known as the Moonies has been viewed as an eccentric and somewhat sinister cult best known for the mass wedding ceremonies conducted by its leader Sun Myung Moon In The Advent of Sun Myung Moon George Chryssides remains critical of the movement but brings the reader out of uninformed prejudice by presenting information about its Korean origins its teachings and the many ceremonies which until recently remained undisclosed The book is based on extensive conversations with members and critics alike together with extended periods spent at UC seminars The Pacific Era University of Hawaii (Honolulu), 1948 Ecumenical Directions in the United States Today: Churches on a Theological Journey Antonios Kireopoulos, Juliana Mecera, 2014-05-14 Proceedings of a conference held in July 2007 at Oberlin College The Missiological Spirit Amos Yong, 2014-11-10 The field of the theology of mission has developed variously across Christian traditions in the last century Pentecostal scholars and missiologists also have made their share of contributions to this area This book brings the insights of pentecostal theologian Amos Yong to the discussion It delineates the major features of what will be argued as central to a viable vision and praxis for Christian mission in a postmodern post Christendom post Enlightenment post Western and postcolonial world What emerges will be a distinctively pentecostally and evangelically informed missiological theology one rooted in the Christian salvation history narrative of Incarnation and Pentecost that is yet open to the world in its many and various cultural ethnic religious and disciplinary discourses and realities The argument unfolds through dialogical engagements with the work of others concrete case studies and systematic theological reflection Yong's pneumatological and missiological imagination proffers a model for Christian theology of mission suitable for the twenty first century global and pluralistic context even as it exemplifies how a missiological understanding of theology itself unfolds amidst engagements with contemporary ecclesial practices and academic theological impulses Exporting the American Gospel Steve Brouwer, Paul Gifford, Susan D. Rose, 2013-12-16 As the pressures of globalization are crushing local traditions millions of uprooted people are buying into a new American salvation product This fundamentalist Christianity a fusion of American popular religion and politics is one of the most significant cultural influences exported from the United States With illuminating case studies based on extensive field research Exporting the American Gospel demonstrates how Christian fundamentalism has taken hold in many nations in Africa Latin America and Asia Jingjiao Roman Malek, 2021-08-23 The contributions in this volume were mostly first presented at the conference Research on Nestorianism in China Zhongguo jingjiao yanjiu held in Salzburg 20-26 May 2003 Like the conference the volume explores the subject of Nestorianism jingjiao Luminous Religion in a variety of aspects The material of the present collection is organized in five parts The first part presents different aspects of the past and current research on jingjiao The second part discusses jingjiao in the Tang dynasty especially the question of the Nestorian texts and documents their authenticity and theology The third part deals with the Nestorian inscriptions and remains from the Yuan dynasty especially from Quanzhou Part four is dedicated to questions of the Church of the East in Central Asia and other historically relevant countries The last part of the book presents a Preliminary Bibliography on the Church of the East in China and Central Asia prepared especially for this volume
