God Is Life, Not a Religion Rodolfo Martin Vitangcol,2022-10-31 Christianity has maliciously turned God and Jesus into a RELIGION GOD IS NOT A RELIGION that as if when there is no religion there is no God God is above and beyond everything much more beyond such a humanly created thing called RELIGION In John 6 35 Jesus said I am the bread of life Whoever comes to me will never go hungry and whoever believes in me will never be thirsty Is that a religion Is being a bread of life a religion God is not a religion God is life Where the life of the world is concerned God is there

From Pastor to Atheist Larry Cartford,2010-04-23 Religion has been a powerful and determinative force in human life ever since the beginning of time Many religions have flourished then died Yet the basic dynamics of religion have not changed Religions seek to promote the gods they create instill fear divide people and control behavior After disclosing religions for what they are manipulative and domineering a non god way of life is presented What religions consider to be their exclusive domains eternal life spirituality morality and truth are exposed as not solely theirs Spirituality and morality are presented as an innate depth of human beingness in all people Eternal life is offered as the noble destiny for all people not dependent on what gods are accepted Truth is to be known through reason not revelation To break unconditionally the power of religion the nexus must be changed from gods to humans at the center No longer ask What do the gods want instead What do humans need Along with a non god way of life a world without religion is discussed which elucidates a new way of beauty openness and peace For all people seeking an alternative way of life not controlled by religion or revelation this book offers a non god way of life

The Myth of Religious Violence William T Cavanaugh,2009-09-03 The idea that religion has a dangerous tendency to promote violence is part of the conventional wisdom of Western societies and it underlies many of our institutions and policies from limits on the public role of religion to efforts to promote liberal democracy in the Middle East William T Cavanaugh challenges this conventional wisdom by examining how the twin categories of religion and the secular are constructed A growing body of scholarly work explores how the category religion has been constructed in the modern West and in colonial contexts according to specific configurations of political power Cavanaugh draws on this scholarship to examine how timeless and transcultural categories of religion and the secular are used in arguments that religion causes violence He argues three points 1 There is no transhistorical and transcultural essence of religion What counts as religious or secular in any given context is a function of political configurations of power 2 Such a transhistorical and transcultural concept of religion as non rational and prone to violence is one of the foundational legitimating myths of Western society 3 This myth can be and is used to legitimate neo colonial violence against non Western others particularly the Muslim world

Religions of Modernity Stef Aupers,Dick Houtman,2010-07-07 Religions of Modernity challenges the social scientific orthodoxy that once unleashed the modern forces of individualism science and technology inevitably erode the sacred and evoke the profane The book's chapters some by established scholars others by junior researchers document instead in rich empirical detail how modernity relocates the sacred to the deeper layers of the self and the domain of digital technology Rather than destroying the sacred tout court then the cultural logic of modernization spawns its own religious meanings unacknowledged spiritualities and magical enchantments The classical theoretical accounts of modernity by Max Weber Emile Durkheim and others it is argued in the introductory chapter already hinted that there's a future for such religions of modernity Contributors Stef Aupers Kelly Besecke Kirsten Marie Bovbjerg Siobhan Chandler Olav Hammer Dick Houtman Murray Lee Carly Machado Karen P rna Adam Possamai Linda Woodhead and Dorien Zandbergen Research in the Social Scientific Study of Religion, Volume 30 Ralph W. Hood, Sariya Cheruvallil-Contractor, 2019-12-16 The 30th volume of Research in the Social Scientific Study of Religion consists of two special sections as well as two separate empirical studies on attachment and daily spiritual practices The first special section deals with the social scientific study of religion in Indonesia Indonesia is a predominantly Muslim country whose history and contemporary involvement in the study of religion is explored from both sociological and psychological perspectives The second special section is on the Pope Francis effect the challenges of modernization in the Catholic church and the global impact of Pope Francis While its focus is mainly on the Catholic religion the internal dynamics and geopolitics explored apply more broadly Ten Great Religions: An essay in comparative theology James Freeman Clarke, 1895 Christianity and Secularism Elgin L. XVI's Theology Emery de Gaál Gyulai, Fr Emery de Gaal, 2018-10-03 Joseph Ratzinger's Pope Benedict XVI's list of accomplishments is unparalleled in modern times in both theological and academic terms. He held prestigious teaching positions in Europe's finest universities. He played a pivotal role in the deliberations of Vatican II and the formulation of its teachings. His theological publications number above fifteen hundred. And he served the Catholic Church as its Pontiff for eight years. In O Lord I Seek Your Countenance Fr Emery de Gaal contends that Ratzinger-Benedict is reminiscent of a Church Father in his theological virtuosity. But beyond his brilliant intellect, Benedict's deep Christ-centered spirituality is what gives life and verve to his academic pursuits. Through essays that explore Benedict's rich and varied theological thought and achievements from the 1950s through his Jesus of Nazareth trilogy, de Gaal apprehends Ratzinger as a theologian with philosophical sensitivity whose insights have shaped and will continue to shape the course of Catholic theology for years to come.

Common Places of Christian Religion Wolfgang Musculus, 1563      Without Absolutes, God Is Not God Ronald A. Train, 2013-01-12. Absolutes. As a Christian, it is foundational I believe to hold to absolutes. For example, a Christian should have absolutes about God's ontology, the principle of being, absolutes about theology, the study of God, absolutes about Christology, the study of Christ, and absolutes about pneumatology, the study of the Holy Spirit. Each of the foregoing absolutes I believe impact upon how one constructs a world view and how one considers the wider implications of God's kingdom work. Hence why I have titled this collection of essays Without absolutes, God is not God. I guess the reader will be asking him or herself why is there a requirement to hold to absolutes. The need for absolutes is not complex. In reality, the argument determines whether one is a believer or non-believer in the triune God. A believer will weigh whether God revelationally speaks into this world generally and specifically. A non-believer will object to such a proposition and as a consequence leave him or herself open to other belief systems. To perhaps put it another way, a non-believer is faced with the choice of deciding whether God is a reality or whether God is a creation of human imagination. Decision making then is crucial when accepting the triune God and his work. Does one make a decision to believe in God empirically or does one make a decision to believe in God from a position of faith? It is my view that God cannot be known empirically, i.e. by trial or experience, but rather he can only be known by faith. However, it depends on how we define faith. Those who accept other belief systems would argue that they too have a faith or a belief in some god or person. In the Christian context, however, faith is an action based on the accepted evidence. In other words, if one accepts that the written word of God is substantially true (2 Peter 1:20-21) and that the Word of God Jesus of Nazareth is who he is recorded as being or is who he claims to be (John 1:1-5, 14:6-7), then faith is given substance. But I would go further and argue that authentic faith is derived from a spiritual encounter with God which then enables the recipient's faith response to be one which is prompted or ignited by God. My argument is supported from Scripture (1 Corinthians 12:9, Ephesians 2:8-9) and from personal experience. Both of the foregoing references I suggest argue that faith is a gift which has its origin in God. Hence, faith is not only prompted by God but also sustained by him The analysis of such faith is that it is revelatory and constitutes an utter reliance on who God is and why he exists Revelatory Faith Evangelicals argue that faith is a gift from God However this argument is treated with caution by others Existentialism suggests that faith is made possible and so granted by the gracious approach and self disclosure of being Interestingly at this point there is no great variance between the latter perspective and Martin Luther who argued that faith originates with or is at least aroused by God Contemplating the third article of the Apostles Creed he wrote I believe that I cannot of my own reason or strength believe in Jesus Christ my Lord or come to him But the Holy Spirit has called me by the Gospel enlightened me with His gifts sanctified and kept me in the true faith Modernists also argue that faith constitutes a persons response but only after having been drawn to Gods work of salvation This argument suggests faith to be an a priori act of God an act that prompts recognition that in the Christ God is endeavouring to share his own life This arousal of faith then affects worship praise and prayer and the practise of Christian discipleship The same argument suggests further that the prior love of God and the response of love that it generates are what shape a persons Christian faith Biblical support for these theological reflections is found in Ephesians

An Islamic Philosophy of Virtuous Religions Joshua Parens,2012-02-01 Joshua Parens provides an introduction to the thought of Alfarabi a tenth century Muslim political philosopher whose writings are particularly relevant today Parens focuses on Alfarabi s Attainment of Happiness in which he envisions the kind of government and religion needed to fulfill Islam s ambition of universal acceptance Parens argues that Alfarabi seeks to temper the hopes of Muslims and other believers that one homogeneous religion might befit the entire world and counsels acceptance of the possibility of a multiplicity of virtuous religions Much of Alfarabi s approach is built upon Plato s Republic which Parens also examines in order to provide the necessary background for a proper understanding of Alfarabi s thought
