Religion State And Ethnic Group:

Religious Minorities, Nation States and Security Mario Apostolov, 2020-10-07 This title was first published in 2001 Why in this contemporary secular age does violent conflict among confessional communities still occur Covering several key conflicts of recent years in one of the most dynamic areas of the world the Eastern Mediterranean and the Balkans Mario Apostolov uses both interpretative and comparative analysis to answer this question His versatile approach makes for an engaging account that makes an important contribution to the current debate surrounding such conflicts The author focuses on five case studies taken from the traditional zone of contact between Christianity and Islam The Copts The Palestinian Christians The Lebanese communities The Pomaks The communities of Bosnia Herzegovina The book examines the relationship between these issues and communal mobilisation the collective use of violence and the problems of international security An informative study for students academics policy makers and personnel in international organizations with an interest in communal conflict and security

Religion, State and the United Nations Anne Stensvold, 2016-07-22 This volume approaches the UN as a laboratory of religious political value politics Over the last two decades religion has acquired increasing influence in international politics and religious violence and terrorism has attracted much scholarly attention But there is another parallel development which has gone largely unnoticed namely the increasing political impact of peaceful religious actors With several religious actors in one place and interacting under the same conditions the UN is as a multi religious society writ small The contributors to this book analyse the most influential religious actors at the UN including The Roman Catholic Church The Organisation of Islamic Countries the Russian Orthodox Church Mapping the peaceful political engagements of religious actors who they are and how they collaborate with each other whether on an ad hoc basis or by forming more permanent networks throwing light at the modus operandi of religious actors at the UN their strategies and motivations The chapters are closely interrelated through the shared focus on the UN and common theoretical perspectives and pursue two intertwined aspects of religious value politics namely the whys and hows of cross religious cooperation on the one hand and the interaction between religious actors and states on the other Drawing together a broad range of experts on religious actors this work will be of great interest to students and scholars of Religion and Politics International Relations and the UN

Race, Ethnicity and Religion in Conflict Across Asia Kunal Mukherjee, 2021-02-27 This book looks at conflict zones in the Asia Pacific with a special focus on secessionist groups movements in the Indian Northeast Tibet Chinese Xinjiang the Burmese borderlands Kashmir in South Asia CHT in Bangladesh South Thailand and Aceh in Indonesia These conflict zones are predominantly ethnic minority provinces which by and large do not share a sense of oneness with the country that they are currently a part of most of these insurgencies have had strong linkages with separatist nationalist groups in the region Methodologically the author uses extensive fieldwork interview data and participant observation from these conflict zones to take a bottom up approach giving importance to the voices of ordinary people and or the residents of these conflict zones whose voices have generally been ignored Although the book looks at both the historical background and contemporary dimensions of these conflicts the author focuses on exploring how the role of race ethnicity and religion in these conflicts can be both direct and indirect This book will be of great interest to students and scholars of conflict and security in contemporary Asia with a background in politics history IR security studies religion and sociology Religion, State, and Ethnic Groups Donal Kerr,1992-03-01 This volume represents a major contribution o the study of ethnic groups and will be of interest to academia politicians and all who are interested in issues relating to ethnic minorities not only in Europe but throughout the world Religion, State, and Ethnic Groups Donal A. Kerr,Mordechai Breuer,Sheridan Gilley,Ernst Christoph Suttner,1992 One in a series of eight books which looks at the problems associated with ethnic groups and minorities over a time span of 100 years from the middle of the 19th century to the beginning of World War II ie the peak years for national conflicts in Europe Key features of the project are a selective thematic approach and the application of comparative methods Eight themes were selected for detailed attention and a distinguished team of contributors representing a variety of disciplines history theology education law sociology anthropology and geography were recruited from all over Europe The Routledge Handbook of Religion and Security Chris Seiple,Dennis Hoover,Pauletta Otis,2013 This Handbook offers analyses of how nine different world religions have related to issues of war and peace theologically and practically overviews of how scholars and practitioners in nine different topical areas of security studies have or have not dealt with the relationship between religion and security and five case studies of particular countries in which the religion security nexus is vividly illustrated Nigeria India Israel the former Yugoslavia and Iraq Ethnic Identity and the State in Iran A. Saleh,2013-07-17 While the Islamic Republic has employed various strategies to mitigate the worst excesses of inter ethnic tension while still securing a Shi a dominated Persian hegemony the systematic neglect of ethnic groups by both the Islamic Republic and its predecessor regime has resulted in the politicization of ethnic identity in Iran Religion Today Ross Aden,2012-10-05 Religion Today introduces students to key concepts in religious studies through a compelling problem solving framework Each chapter opens with a contemporary case study that helps students engage in current religious issues explore possible solutions to difficult religious problems today and learn key themes and concepts in religious studies

Ethnic Minorities, Political Competition, and Democracy Jan Rovny,2024-09-24 Ethnic minorities make contemporary Europe increasingly diverse The wisdom in research on ethnicity is that it is a trouble maker disrupting programmatic politics prioritizing group identity over ideology polity over policy principle over compromise In this book Jan Rovny approaches ethnic politics as normal politics and investigates the ideological potential of ethnicity He shows that ethnic minorities often search for group preservation by championing liberal rights that would protect them from the tyranny of the majority This translates into broader ideological preferences and political behavior including the formation of liberal political poles which in turn configures political cleavages shapes party systems and informs the absorption of new political issues Ultimately the presence of ethnic minorities can be a force for liberal democracy Simultaneously ethnic liberalism is circumstantial as conditional factors cross pressure ethnic minority search for rights and liberties potentially attenuating ethnic liberalism and inducing exclusionary particularism This book combines the study of ethnic politics with research on electoral behavior and party competition while comparing minorities and majorities in eastern Europe The book analyzes existing and new data using mixed experimental quantitative and qualitative methods The empirical chapters in the book are organized into two parts one focusing on large N comparative analyses while the other presents three in depth case studies on interwar Czechoslovakia contemporary Slovakia and contemporary Estonia Transformations in Governance is a major academic book series from Oxford University Press It is designed to accommodate the impressive growth of research in comparative politics international relations public policy federalism and environmental and urban studies concerned with the dispersion of authority from central states to supranational institutions subnational governments and public private networks It brings together work that advances our understanding of the organization causes and consequences of multilevel and complex governance The series is selective containing annually a small number of books of exceptionally high quality by leading and emerging scholars The series is edited by Liesbet Hooghe and Gary Marks of the University of North Carolina Chapel Hill and Walter Mattli of the University of Oxford

Rethinking Gender, Ethnicity and Religion in Iran Azadeh Kian, 2023-07-13 Winner of the Latifeh Yarshater book prize 2024 Covering the Pahlavi modern nation state as well as the Islamic regime this book examines the crucial shifts that affected Sunnite and subaltern women once Shi ism became the state religion after the Iranian Revolution Focusing on women in the Baluchistan and Golestan provinces of Iran Azadeh Kian analyses and explores issues of cultural racialization ethno centrism Shi a centrism and patriarchal and chauvinistic ideologies in Iranian society propagated by the state and sustained by its policies Based on quantitative and qualitative surveys taken throughout Iran comprised of over 7 000 married women and 100 interviews with a sample of Sunnite and subaltern Persian women Kian reveals how social hierarchy and power relations based on gender class ethnicity and religion operate She argues that women have been at the heart of the process of national and ethnic re construction as women as potential mothers are expected to reproduce national and ethnic boundaries Kian argues that by examining the family institution as a site of power analysing family dynamics as well as women s everyday lives the politics of ordinary Iranians and the relationship between state and society can be better understood Kian argues that the time is ripe to achieve a non hegemonic definition of Iranian national identity through acknowledgement of gender class ethnic and religious diversity and plurality of experiences of oppression and injustice

The Role of Religion and Ethnicity in Contemporary Conflict Basil Ugorji, René Lemarchand, Ph.D., Jamie L. Hurst, Zarrín Caldwell, Erna Anjarwati, Allison Trimble, Lanhe S. Shan, David Silvera, Ph.D., 2014-09-18 Welcome to the first edition of the International Center for Ethno Religious Mediation s Journal of Living Together We were surprised and delighted to receive so many outstanding submissions and see the resounding response to our very first call for papers as an appreciable indication of the connection people feel to our mission and our community Through this journal it is our intention to inform inspire reveal and explore the intricate and complex nature of human interaction in the context of ethno religious identity and the roles it plays in war and peace By sharing theories observations and valuable experiences we mean to open a broader more inclusive dialogue between policymakers academics researchers religious leaders representatives of ethnic groups and indigenous peoples and field practitioners around the world Lasting peace stems from changes in thinking about what it is to be a part of the human family who we are to one another and what mutual obligations and responsibilities exist between us It requires us to accept that we are each a resource an advantage an asset to the whole It hinges on our ultimate acceptance of cultural identity history faith and tradition as simply vivid aspects of our overarching human kinship The belief based perspectives that influence these patterns of being however are among the most deeply ingrained of all individual and social mechanisms Any efforts to reshape them are highly ambitious and fraught with seemingly insurmountable obstacles Yet cultures and their societies are not static and their adaptive nature requires that even within the most intractable of conflicts there will be change how they change will depend upon shifts in the environment changes in human experience and the availability of new information with which to make different choices The theme of this issue The Role of Religion and Ethnicity in Contemporary Conflict Related Emerging Tactics Strategies and Methodologies of Mediation and Resolution looks at ways to influence these changes improve interethnic and interfaith experiences and offers information which can enlighten social discourse and reveal the possibility of previously unforeseen choices We begin with Words from the Board where Dr David Silvera explains that mediation is at the very heart of democratic thought lays out the value of mediation as a vital aspect of adult education in his commentary Education for Democratic Citizenship and Intercultural Conflicts by Mediation Dr Ren Lemarchand s cautionary discussion regarding the risks involved in mankind s willingness and even propensity to ignore some of history's worst atrocities follows in his article Remembering Forgotten Genocides Jamie L Hurst's paper Holy Conflict the Intersection of Religion and Mediation explores the junction where religion and mediation meet focusing on the unique challenges and opportunities this crossroads brings to bear In her piece Identity Reconsidered Zarr n Caldwell describes the cost of narrowly construed identity formations and puts forward the idea that the teachings of the Bah Faith on nested identities might offer some new ways of approaching peacebuilding Similarly in their work Storytelling as a Means for Peace Education Intercultural Dialogue in Southern Thailand Erna Anjarwati Allison Trimble describe their research conducting peace storytelling as a means to encourage social reconciliation between Thai Buddhists and Malay Muslims youth And finally Lanhe S Shan presents an in depth assessment of the long term outcomes following the implementation of unfortunate conflict mitigation strategies and offers suggestions for improved results in Analysis of Tito's Policies on Ethnic Conflict the Case of Kosovo This journal is not meant to be a bastion of declarative wisdom rather it is intended to be a conduit a medium for vibrant exchange and discussion of its contents is vital to its purpose We want your input your ideas your thoughts and your insights You will find plenty to discuss every quarter in the articles book reviews Living Together Movement updates social media buzz and Photos from the Field here and in the issues ahead

Religious Identity and Social Change David Radford,2015-06-19 Religious Identity and Social Change offers a macro and micro analysis of the dynamics of rapid social and religious change occurring within the Muslim world Drawing on rich ethnographic and quantitative research in Kyrgyzstan Central Asia David Radford provides theoretical insight into the nature of religious and social change and ethnic identity transformation exploring significant questions concerning why people convert and what happens when they do so A crisis of identity occurs when religious conversion takes place especially from one major religious tradition Islam to another Christianity and where religious identity is intimately connected to ethnic and national identity Radford argues for the importance of recognising the socially constructed nature of identity involving the dynamic interplay between human agency culture and social networks Kyrgyz Christians have been active agents in bringing religious and identity transformation building upon the contextual parameters in which they are situated

Role of Lawyers, Religion and History N. C. Beohar,2023-02-04 This book chronicles the role of the lawyers forces of religion organized religion and history in the attainment of the independence of India and in the partition of the country The book also deals with such issues as the liberations of the Portuguese French Dutch and Dane possessions in India probes into the persons who were responsible for the partition of India and whether Pakistan should celebrate the 14th of August as their day of birth rather than the day of independence whether crimes against humanity were committed in 1946 1947 and who were responsible for them The book also highlights the pioneer role of the Tribals in the Freedom Movement of India

*Annual Report on International Religious Freedom 2007, February 2008, 110-2 Report, **,2008      Religious Fundamentalism in the Middle East Mansoor Moaddel,Stuart A. Karabenick,2013-07-04 In Religious Fundamentalism in the Middle East Moaddel and Karabenick analyze fundamentalist beliefs and attitudes across nations Egypt Iran Lebanon and Saudi Arabia faith Christianity and Islam and ethnicity Azari Turks Kurds and Persians among Iranians using comparative survey data For them fundamentalism is not just a set of religious beliefs It is rather a set of beliefs about and attitudes toward whatever religious beliefs one has In this analysis the authors show that fundamentalist beliefs and attitudes vary across national contexts and individual characteristics and predict people s orientation toward the same set of historical issues that were the concerns of fundamentalist intellectual leaders and activists The authors analysis reveals a cycle of spirituality that reinforces the critical importance of taking historical and cultural contexts into consideration to understand the role of religious fundamentalism in contemporary Middle Eastern societies
