Religious Conversion Contemporary Practices And Controversy:

Religious Conversion Christopher Lamb, M. Darroll Bryant, 1999-10-01 Conversion has been an important issue for most of the universal religions those usually associated with a founder such as Christianity Buddhism Islam and Judaism which have a mission to spread their message Other religions have been less concerned with conversion except in so far as it has been a negative force for them to confront This study explores how conversion has been understood by different religions during different eras and includes a survey of the textual legal ritual historic and experiential dimensions of the phenomenon of conversion Religious Conversion Sarah Claerhout, Jakob De Roover, 2022-05-06 This book re-examines the issue of religious conversion which has been a site of conflict in India for several centuries It discusses wide ranging themes such as conversion education and reform in colonial India the process and practices of conversion in Christian Europe Gandhi conversion and the equality of religions perspectives from Hindu nationalism secularism and religious minorities religious freedom and the limits of propagating religion and conversion in constitutional law commissions and courts to chart new directions for research on religion tradition and conversion Tracing developments from the 19th century colonial era to contemporary times the book analyses cultural background frameworks and the origins of religious conversion and its conceptualisation in Western Christianity It further delves into how Indian culture and its traditions have shaped responses to conversion Part of the Critical Humanities Across Cultures series this book will be useful to scholars and researchers of critical humanities religion cultural studies sociology of religion comparative religion philosophy anthropology theology Indology history politics postcolonial studies critical theory and South Asian studies Rethinking Religious Conversion Jack Williams, 2024-10-17 Drawing on methods from religious studies philosophy and cognitive science Jack Williams develops a unique and interdisciplinary approach to the study of religious conversion This is the first major philosophical study of conversion to treat the phenomenon as a long term process shaped by the convert's embodiment and immersion in a linguistic social and ritual community Williams analysis of the conversion process is rooted in a view of cognition as both embodied and affective and is informed by the latest research in phenomenology affect theory neuroscience and enactivist cognitive science In conversation with diverse conversion narratives he advances a theory of conversion that is not restricted to a modern Western context but that can be applied to experiences of conversion across global history and culture Rethinking Religious Conversion displays an original approach to the philosophical study of diverse religious practices By bringing together a diverse array of contemporary and historical scholarship it revitalizes the study of conversion for both philosophy and religious studies The Oxford Handbook of New Religious Movements James R. Lewis, Inga B. Tollefsen, 2016-04-12 The study of New Religious Movements NRMs is one of the fastest growing areas of religious studies and since the release of the first edition of The Oxford Handbook of New Religious Movements in 2003 the field has continued to expand and break new ground In this all new volume James R Lewis and Inga B Tollefsen bring together established and rising scholars to address an expanded range of topics covering traditional religious studies topics such as scripture charisma and ritual while also applying new theoretical approaches to NRM topics Other chapters cover understudied topics in the field such as the developmental patterns of NRMs and subcultural considerations in the study of NRMs The first part of this book examines NRMs from a social scientific perspective particularly that of sociology In the second section the primary factors that have put the study of NRMs on the map controversy and conflict are considered The third section investigates common themes within the field of NRMs while the fourth examines the approaches that religious studies researchers have taken to NRMs As NRM Studies has grown subfields such as Esotericism New Age Studies and neo Pagan Studies have grown as distinct and individual areas of study and the final section of the book investigates these emergent fields

The Oxford Handbook of Religious Conversion Lewis R. Rambo, Charles E. Farhadian, 2014-03-06 The Oxford Handbook of Religious Conversion offers a comprehensive exploration of the dynamics of religious conversion which for centuries has profoundly shaped societies cultures and individuals throughout the world Scholars from a wide array of religions and disciplines interpret both the varieties of conversion experiences and the processes that inform this personal and communal phenomenon This volume examines the experiences of individuals and communities who change religions those who experience an intensification of their religion of origin and those who encounter new religions through colonial intrusion missionary work and charismatic and revitalization movements The thirty two innovative essays provide overviews of the history of particular religions including Hinduism Buddhism Confucianism Taoism Sikhism Islam Christianity Judaism indigenous religions and new religious movements The essays also offer a wide range of disciplinary perspectives psychological sociological anthropological legal political feminist and geographical on methods and theories deployed in understanding conversion and insight into various forms of deconversion

Identity Crises and Indigenous Religious Traditions Elijah Obinna, 2017-02-10 This book highlights the complex identity crises among many Christians as they negotiate their new identities religious ideas and convictions as both Christians and members of Nigerian African societies of indigenous religious traditions and identities Through an interdisciplinary interpretation of religious practices and educational issues in teaching and ritual training the author provides tools to help analyse empirical cases These include the negotiation processes among Christians with focus on the Presbyterian Church of Nigeria PCN and members of the Ogo society within the Amasiri Afikpo North Local Government Area Ebonyi state in South eastern Nigeria Identifying the power dynamic identity role and influence of indigenous religions on Christians and the Ogo society this book reveals the limited interactions between many Christians and members of the Ogo society Questions explored include what makes the Ogo society an integral part of the socio religious life of Amasiri and what powers and identity does it confer on the initiates how is the PCN within Amasiri responding to the Ogo society through its religious practices such as baptism confirmation local auxiliary ministries and organisational structure and how does the understanding and application of conversion within the

PCN impact on its members response to the Ogo society Demonstrating how complex religious identities and practices of Nigerian African Christians can balance mission influenced Christianity with indigenous religious traditions and identities this book recognises the importance of appropriating the powers of indigenous cultures ingenuity and creativity in the construction and preservation of community identities As such it will be of keen interest to scholars of Christian theology indigenous religious practice and African lived religion

Pentecostals, Proselytization, and Anti-Christian Violence in Contemporary India Chad M. Bauman, 2015-01-02 Every year there are several hundred attacks on India's Christians These attacks are carried out by violent anti minority activists many of them provoked by what they perceive to be a Christian propensity for aggressive proselytization or by rumored or real conversions to the faith Pentecostals are disproportionately targeted Drawing on extensive interviews ethnographic work and a vast scholarly literature on interreligious violence Hindu nationalism and Christianity in India Chad Bauman examines this phenomenon While some of the factors in the targeting of Pentecostals are obvious and expected their relatively greater evangelical assertiveness for instance other significant factors are less acknowledged and more surprising marginalization of Pentecostals by mainstream Christians the social location of Pentecostal Christians and transnational flows of missionary personnel theories and funds A detailed analysis of Indian Christian history contemporary Indian politics Indian social and cultural characteristics and Pentecostal belief and practice this volume sheds important light on a troubling fact of contemporary Indian life

Controversies and Subjectivity Pierluigi Barrotta, Marcelo Dascal, 2005-09-22 This collective volume focuses on two closely connected issues whose common denominator is the embattled notion of the subject The first concerns the controversies on the nature of the subject and related notions such as the concepts of I and self From both theoretical and historical viewpoints several of the contributors show how different and incompatible perspectives on the subject can help us understand today's world its habits style power relations and attitudes For this purpose use is made of insights in a broad range of disciplines such as sociology psychoanalysis pragmatics intellectual history and anthropology This interdisciplinary approach helps to clarify the multifaceted character of the subject and the role it plays nowadays as well as over the centuries The second issue concerns the subject in inter personal as well as in intra personal controversies The enquiry here focuses on the ways in which different aspects of the subject and subjective differences affect the conduct content and rationality of controversies with others as well as within oneself on a variety of topics Among such aspects the contributors analyse the subject's emotions cognitive states argumentative practices and individual and collective identity The interaction between the two issues the controversies on the subject and the subject of controversies sheds new light on the debate on modernity and its alleged crisis

Understanding New Religious Movements John A Saliba, 2004-09-08 Discussions of any religion can easily raise passions But arguments tend to become even more heated when the religion under discussion is characterized as new Divisions around the study of new religious movements NRMs or cults or nontraditional or alternative or emergent religions are so acute that there is even controversy over what to call them John Saliba strives to bring balance to these discussions by offering perspectives on new religions from different academic perspectives history psychology sociology law theology and counseling This approach provides rich descriptions of a broad range of movements while demonstrating how the differing aims of the disciplines can create much of the controversy around NRMs The new second edition has been updated and revised throughout and includes a new foreword by noted historian of religion J Gordon Melton For classes in religion or the social sciences or for interested individuals Understanding New Religious Movements offers the most objective introduction possible Christian Missionary Engagement in Central Nigeria, 1857-1891 Femi J.

Kolapo,2019-11-28 In the decades before colonial partition in Africa the Church Missionary Society embarked on the first serious effort to evangelize in an independent Muslim state Bishop Samuel Ajayi Crowther led an all African field staff to convert the people of the Upper Niger and Confluence area whose communities were threatened or already conquered by an expanding jihadist Nupe state In this book Femi J Kolapo examines the significance of the mission as an African rather than European undertaking assessing its impact on missionary practice local engagement and Christian conversion prospects By offering a fuller history of this overlooked mission in the history of Christianity in Nigeria this book reaffirms indigenous agency and rethinks the mission as an experiment ahead of its time Religion, Gender and Sexuality in Everyday Life Peter Nynäs,2016-04-08 Exploring the intersection between religion gender and sexuality within the context of everyday life this volume examines contested identities experiences bodies and desires on the individual and collective levels With rich case studies from the UK USA Europe and Asia Religion Gender and Sexuality in Everyday Life sheds light on the manner in which individuals appropriate negotiate transgress invert and challenge the norms and models of various religions in relation to gender and sexuality and vice versa Drawing on fascinating research from around the world this book charts central features of the complexities involved in everyday life examining the messiness limits transformations and possibilities that occur when subjectivities religious and cultural traditions and politics meet within the local as well as transnational contexts As such it will be of interest to scholars of sociology anthropology geography and cultural studies examining questions of religion and spirituality gender and sexuality and individual and collective identities in contemporary society Latina/o y Musulman Hjamil A. Martinez-Vazquez,2010-01-01 Latinas/os are the fastest growing minoritized ethnic group in the United States and Islam is one of the fastest growing religions in the United States It is therefore no surprise that the Latina/o Muslim population is one of the fastest growing communities in the United States As a minority within a minority the ways in which U S Latina/o Muslims construct their identity is not only interesting in itself but also of interest for how they challenge traditional understandings of U S Latina/o identities This book explores the process of conversion of U S Latina/o Muslims and how it becomes the foundation for the re construction of their U S Latina/o identities Furthermore since Latina/o religious experience in the United States up until now has largely assumed Christianity as the de facto religion Latina/o y

Muslims bring a whole new angle to studies in this area Martinez Viquez lays the broader analytical foundation for how the religious experiences of non-Christian U.S. Latinas/os shape the process of identity construction "Kingdom-Minded" People Denise Austin, 2011-09-20 During the early twentieth century in China a number of key economic leaders converted to Christianity Whilst strongly influenced by cultural heritage powerful modernizing forces and tumultuous political changes the new Christian identity inculcated by Protestant missionaries motivated these entrepreneurs to modify their business practices improve their social environment and extend the influence of Christianity Protestant and Catholic sojourners likewise made significant contributions into their adopted communities With unprecedented economic growth in China today a fascinating contemporary parallel can be seen particularly through the influence of Pentecostal charismatic and evangelical training Previous research has explored the emergence of the urban Christian elite in modern China However this systematic study provides new understanding of how Christian identity motivates Chinese business Christians toward economic social and religious contribution

Religiosity and Recognition Thomas Sealy, 2021-06-28 This book argues that multiculturalism remains a relevant and vital framework through which to understand and construct inclusive forms of citizenship Responding to contemporary ethnic and religious diversity in European states and the position of religious minorities debates in multiculturalism have revitalized discussion of the public role of religion yet multiculturalism has been increasingly challenged in both political as well as academic circles With a focus on Britain and through a study of the narratives of British converts to Islam this book engages in debates centered around multiculturalism particularly on the issues of identity recognition and difference Yet it also identifies and interrogates multiculturalism's shortcomings in relation to specifically religious identities and belonging In a unique and innovative analysis this book combines a discussion of multiculturalism in Britain with insights from political theology It juxtaposes multiculturalism's concepts of ethno-religious identity and recognition with the notions of religiosity and hospitality to offer a new perspective on religious identity and the implications of this for thinking with and about multiculturalism and multicultural social and political relations

Crises and Conversions Minoo Mirshahvalad, 2024-05-13 This book explores the phenomenon of conversion to Shi'a Islam in Italy It thoroughly examines the motivations behind this religious transition and scrutinizes the doctrinal characteristics that Shiism incorporates thanks to the contributions of Italian converts The text emphasizes the significance of Ren Gu non's Traditionalism as a pivotal factor in driving this religious mobility Additionally the book delves into the writings of figures such as Julius Evola who introduced Gu non to Italy shedding light on Evola's impact on the youth in the post-World War II era Furthermore it evaluates the influence of Henry Corbin on this spiritual journey To realize this study between 2018 and 2023 Minoo Mirshahvalad employed multidisciplinary methods that integrated sociology and history

Spiritual and Religious Competencies in Clinical Practice Cassandra Vieten, Shelley Scammell, 2015-09-01 Religion lies at the heart of many clients' core values and helps shape their perception of themselves and the world around them In Spiritual and Religious

Competencies in Clinical Practice two clinical psychologists provide a much needed research based road map to help professionals appropriately address their clients spiritual or religious beliefs in treatment sessions This book is a must read for any mental health professional Migration and the Making of Global Christianity Jehu J. Hanciles, 2021-03-16 A magisterial sweep through 1500 years of Christian history with a groundbreaking focus on the missionary role of migrants in its spread Human migration has long been identified as a driving force of historical change Building on this understanding Jehu Hanciles surveys the history of Christianity's global expansion from its origins through 1500 CE to show how migration more than official missionary activity or imperial designs played a vital role in making Christianity the world's largest religion Church history has tended to place a premium on political power and institutional forms thus portraying Christianity as a religion disseminated through official representatives of church and state But as Hanciles illustrates this top down perspective overlooks the multifarious array of social movements cultural processes ordinary experiences and non elite activities and decisions that contribute immensely to religious encounter and exchange Hanciles's socio historical approach to understanding the growth of Christianity as a world religion disrupts the narrative of Western preeminence while honoring and making sense of the diversity of religious expression that has characterized the world Christian movement for two millennia In turning the focus of the story away from powerful empires and heroic missionaries Migration and the Making of Global Christianity instead tells the more truthful story of how every Christian migrant is a vessel for the spread of the Christian faith in our deeply interconnected world

Contemporary Spiritualities Clive Erricker, Jane Erricker, 2001-08-01 Spirituality can be understood within both a religious and secular context Fuelled by the controversy that surrounds different understandings of human identity and notions of progress knowledge and truth in modernist and postmodernist contexts the concept of spirituality is a hotly contested topic of debate as to its relevance within contemporary culture and its meaning within religious traditions This book aims to inform readers on this debate and contextualize it within these different frames of reference It approaches the topic of spirituality with an identification of the major influences on contemporary thinking and presents a coherent framework of understanding that links divergent thinking into a common goal Writings range across different thinkers and practitioners within established religious tradition contemporary movements and those who operate within psychological and secular understandings Focusing on the question what does it mean to be human this engaging study attempts to overcome the divide between secular and religious understandings of spirituality

Thinking about Religion A. Smith, 2014-04-08 Thinking about Religion examines cutting edge breakthroughs from across the sciences concluding that religion persists because the mind is primed for faith ready to grasp and fiercely defend beliefs that make sense but defy logic

The Parsis of India Jesse Palsetia, 2021-11-22 The Parsis of India examines a much neglected area of Asian Studies In tracing key points in the development of the Parsi community it depicts the Parsis history and accounts for their ability to preserve maintain and construct a distinct identity For a great part the story is told in the colonial setting of

Bombay city Ample attention is given to the Parsis evolution from an insular minority group to a modern community of pluralistic outlook Filling the obvious lacunae in the literature on British colonialism Indian society and history and last but not least Zoroastrianism this book broadens our knowledge of the interaction of colonialism and colonial groups and elucidates the significant role of the Parsis in the commercial educational and civic milieu of Bombay colonial society
