Religious Diversity And Social Change:

Religious Diversity and Social Change Kevin J. Christiano, 1987 Floods of immigration and rapid industrialization and urbanization in America at the turn of the century set in motion the transformation of many long established institutions This book examines specific ways in which cultural changes affected the structure of the religious establishment Statistical models are applied to United States Census data from 1890 and 1906 on city and church populations revealing connections between the growth of cities the increase in literacy and the formation of ethnic subcommunities that led to a new level of religious diversity The author analyses evidence of growing competition among churches and of a level of individual commitment to congregations demonstrating that the patterns of religious community established at the turn of the century provided the basis for the current denominational system The author further analyses the relationship of religious diversity to urban secularization as well as its role as a catalyst to sectarian conflict In offering a quantitative assessment of issues central to the history of American religion this book is a significant contribution to the study of religion in America

Paul Martin, Wayne Proudfoot, 1996 Introduction Irene Bloom Public Commissions on Cultural and Religious Diversity Solange Lefebvre, Patrice Brodeur, 2017-05-08 Due to growing negative perceptions about relations between historically entrenched dominant populations and various minority groups issues relating to the need to better manage cultural and religious diversity have been intensifying in many countries These negative perceptions have recently led to a significant increase in popular support for right and extreme right nationalist discourses and have created so much public tension that national governments have had no choice but to respond. In the last two decades in several Western contexts in particular the issues raised by such combined challenges have culminated in the creation of government initiated or private national commissions. This book presents the results of a multidisciplinary analysis from a broader framework that includes the national public commissions which have addressed the challenges of managing cultural and religious diversity in Belgium Britain Canada Quebec France Morocco and Norway including also other cases of public management in Australia and Singapore. It includes in depth studies of the issues and controversies examined by each of the commissions such as the ways they perceived the issues their results and impact the key political players involved the media debates and reception surrounding each commission the communication strategies and difficulties their leaders encountered as well as the legal aspects each commission has raised. The reports represent a rich body of work charting the fundamental questions nations face about their nature history and future while the impact on peoples lives tells us much about different approaches to the issues of cultural identity between countries.

Sites and Politics of Religious Diversity in Southern Europe Ruy Blanes, José Mapril, 2013-07-11 In recent years the Southern borders of Europe have become landmarks for the mediatic and academic verve regarding the migration and diasporas towards and beyond Schengen Europe. In these debates religion is acknowledged as playing a central role in the recognition of major societal changes in the continent being object of political concern and attention from the recognition of plural forms of Christianity to the debates on a European Islam. Yet in this respect what goes on around the borders of Portugal Spain Italy or Greece is still largely uncharted and un debated. With the contribution of renowned anthropologists sociologists and religious studies scholars this book critically presents and discusses case studies on the sites and politics of religious diversity in Southern Europe including the impact of migrant religiosity in national and EU politics. Contributors include Anna Fedele Barbara Bertolani Clara Saraiva Cristina Sanchez Carretero Ester Gallo Eugenia Roussou Fabio Peroco Inam Leghari Jos Mapril Katerine Seraidari Maria Del Mar Griera Manuela Canton Delgado Nora Repo Ramon Sarr Ruy Blanes Sandra Santos Silvia Sai Trine Staunig Willert and Virtudes Tellez Delgado.

Religious Diversity--What's the Problem? Rita M. Gross, 2014-04-24 Once upon a time on grounds of both religion and common sense people assumed that the earth was flat and that the sun literally rose and set each day When newly developing knowledge made those beliefs untenable giving them up was difficult Today the belief that only one of the world's various religions is true for all people on earth is equivalent to the belief in a flat earth Both notions have become untenable given contemporary knowledge about religion Even though many people are still troubled by the existence of religious diversity today that diversity is a fact of life Religious diversity should be no more troubling to religious people than the fact that the earth is round and circles the sun This provocative book based on the author's longtime practice of Buddhism and comparative study of religion provides tools with which one can truly appreciate religious diversity as a gift and resource rather than as a deficiency or a problem to be overcome After we accept diversity as inevitable and become comfortable with it diversity always enriches life both nature and culture

Religious Diversity in Southeast Asia and the Pacific Gary D. Bouma, Rodney Ling, Douglas Pratt, 2009-12-04 Religious diversity is now a social fact in most countries of the world While reports of the impact of religious diversity on Europe and North America are reasonably well known the ways in which Southeast Asia and Asia Pacific are religiously diverse and the ways this diversity has been managed are not This book addresses this lack of information about one of the largest and most diverse regions of the world It describes the religious diversity of 27 nations as large and complex as Indonesia and as small as Tuvalu outlining the current issues and the basic policy approaches to religious diversity Southeast Asia and the Pacific Islands are portrayed as a living laboratory of various religious blends with a wide variance of histories and many different approaches to managing religious diversity While interesting in their own right a study of these nations provides a wealth of case studies of diversity management most of them stories of success and inclusion

Religious Diversity and Public Religion in China Zhibin Xie, 2017-03-02 This book addresses the issue of public religion and its implications in Chinese society Zhibin Xie explores various normative considerations concerning the appropriate role of religion in public political life in a democratic culture Besides drawing on the theoretical discourse on religion in the public sphere from Western academics it holds that the issue of religion in Chinese politics should be addressed by paying attention to characteristics of religious diversity and its political context in China This leads to a position of liberal constrained public religion in China which encourages religious contribution to the public sphere as a substantial component of religious liberty in China on the one hand and proposes some constraints both upon government and religions for regulating religious political discourse on the other
