

Glory

by Maurice Dyson

O LORD, our Lord, how excellent is thy name in all the earth!
Psalm 8:1

Almighty God, how laudable,
Is Your eternal name!
In every place recordable,
Forevermore the same.

For You have set Your eminence,
So far above the skies;
The stars in their magnificence,
Shine forth like watching eyes.

Out from the mouths of little folk,
You have perfected praise;
That You may silence every yoke,
Imposed upon Your ways.

When I consider all the host;
The stars which You have made;
What then is man's allotted post,
In every role displayed?

You made him lord of land and sea;
Of birds and fish and beast;
You gave him all-sufficiency,
With grace that never ceased.

Almighty God, how laudable,
Is Your eternal name!
By every means accordable,
Your glory meets acclaim.

Religious Poems and Testimonies Merlene Tarver Howard,2024-01-23 This is a book of my testimonies and bible verses with matching poems All testimonies are my opinions the bible verses are from the scriptures At times it may make you laugh in joy or cry in sympathy This book that you will want to read again and again Religious Poems and Testimonies

Merlene Howard,2005-12-01 Christianity should be built on our Lord Jesus Christ s teaching about himself and the laws of his father in heaven which has completely lost it s bases in practice today The clerics and theologians have so fashioned it to make the elders pastors reverends bishops the pope etc to be heads of our present day Christian churches These churches look up to and listen to their hierarchical leaders and not the voice of God in the scripture which is God breathed No wonder why these churches are now more of cults than the true church which is the body of Christ They are more of political parties than the church Light of the World: 50 Testimonial Christian Poems Nomutsa Oliver Madamombe,2017-07-27 Light of the World is mainly derived from my first book Exceedingly Abundantly published in 2010 The poems are real life situations of men on earth believers and non believers However the focus and inspiration behind each poem is to glorify Almighty God the creator of Heaven and earth The scripture quotations with each poem helps to shade some light that God is with us now and forever more Following is a poem extract Enough is enough I ve gone through all the rough I am taking territory I am geared for victory Don t ask me how Because my time is NOW I m more than a conqueror I shall not be a labourer When I got sanctified Truly I got satisfied Satan you better flee I won t tolerate your plea Now we shall all see Who shall be driven into the sea You say you are dreadful I say I m powerful By now you must be furious And I m also serious I am waging war And you are going to fall Even when you draw near I w The Rainbow Testimony Dannette Clark-Clarkson,2021-08-16 In this devotional Dannette Clark Clarkson shares her psalms and poetry of her life journey to redemption The living Word of God brings the poetry to life as you experience the depth width and height of God s unconditional love for you through the blood of Jesus Christ our Lord The hope is That Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith to the end that ye being rooted and grounded in love may be strong to apprehend with all the saints what is the breadth and length and height and depth and to know the love of Christ which passeth knowledge that ye may be filled unto all the fullness of God Ephesians 3 17 19 The Christian Science Journal ,1883 Poetry as Testimony Antony Rowland,2014-03-26 This book analyzes Holocaust poetry war poetry working class poetry and 9 11 poetry as forms of testimony Rowland argues that testamentary poetry requires a different approach to traditional ways of dealing with poems due to the pressure of the metatext the original traumatic events the poems demands for the hyper attentiveness of the reader and a paradox of identification that often draws the reader towards identifying with the poet s experience but then reminds them of its sublimity He engages with the work of a diverse range of twentieth century authors and across the literature of several countries even uncovering new archival material The study ends with an analysis of the poetry of 9 11 engaging with the idea that it typifies a new era of testimony where global secondary witnesses react to a proliferation of media images This book ranges across the literature of several countries cultures and historical events in order to stress the large variety of contexts in which poetry has functioned productively as a form of testimony and to note the importance of the availability of translations to the formation of literary canons

Langston's Salvation Wallace D. Best, 2019-02-01 Winner of the 2018 Award for Excellence in the Study of Religion in Textual Studies presented by the American Academy of Religion 2018 Outstanding Academic Title given by Choice Magazine A new perspective on the role of religion in the work of Langston Hughes Langston's Salvation offers a fascinating exploration into the religious thought of Langston Hughes Known for his poetry plays and social activism the importance of religion in Hughes work has historically been ignored or dismissed This book puts this aspect of Hughes work front and center placing it into the wider context of twentieth century American and African American religious cultures Best brings to life the religious orientation of Hughes work illuminating how this powerful figure helped to expand the definition of African American religion during this time Best argues that contrary to popular perception Hughes was neither an avowed atheist nor unconcerned with religious matters He demonstrates that Hughes religious writing helps to situate him and other black writers as important participants in a broader national discussion about race and religion in America Through a rigorous analysis that includes attention to Hughes's unpublished religious poems Langston's Salvation reveals new insights into Hughes's body of work and demonstrates that while Hughes is seen as one of the most important voices of the Harlem Renaissance his writing also needs to be understood within the context of twentieth century American religious liberalism and of the larger modernist movement Combining historical and literary analyses with biographical explorations of Langston Hughes as a writer and individual Langston's Salvation opens a space to read Langston Hughes writing religiously in order to fully understand the writer and the world he inhabited

The Law and the Testimony. By the Author of "The Wide, Wide World" [i.e. Susan Warner. Passages of Scripture Arranged According to Subjects]. Susan Warner,1853 The Testimonies of Russian and American Postmodern Poetry Alben Lutzkanova-Vassileva,2016-06-30 This book challenges the belief in the purely linguistic nature of contemporary poetry and offers an interpretation of late twentieth century Russian poetry as a testimony to the unforeseen annulment of communist reality and its overnight displacement by a completely unfathomable post totalitarian order Alben Lutzkanova Vassileva argues that because of the sudden invalidation of a reality that had been largely seen as unattained and everlasting this shift remained secluded from the mind and totally resistant to cognition thus causing a collectively traumatic psychological experience The book proceeds by inquiring into a school of contemporary American poetry that has been likewise read as cut off from reality Executing a comparative analysis Vassileva advances a new understanding of this poetry as a testimony to the overwhelming and traumatic impact of contemporary media which have assailed the mind with far more signals than it can register digest and furnish with semantic weight
