Women Living Zen Paula Kane Robinson Arai,1999-08-26 In this study based on both historical evidence and ethnographic data Paula Arai shows that nuns were central agents in the foundation of Buddhism in Japan in the sixth century They were active participants in the Soto Zen sect and have continued to contribute to the advancement of the sect to the present day Drawing on her fieldwork among the Soto nuns Arai demonstrates that the lives of many of these women embody classical Buddhist ideals They have chosen to lead a strictly disciplined monastic life over against successful careers and the unconstrained contemporary secular lifestyle In this and other respects they can be shown to stand in stark contrast to their male counterparts

Daughters of Sarah ,1990 New Books on Women and Feminism ,1991 The Annual Review of Women in World Religions Arvind Sharma,Katherine K. Young,1993-11-18 Just as a mirror captures a large area within its small limit this journal reflects the otherwise far ranging and far reaching phenomena that are categorized as women and religion The Annual Review of Women in World Religions has been conceived as a forum for the latest historical and anthropological research on women in all religions It is also a form for discussion of contemporary trends such as the influence of secularism fundamentalism or feminism on women and religion Accordingly it contributes to the on going project to add to our basic knowledge about women and helps evaluate the past as well as the present through insights generated by gender studies today Within the boundaries of academic scholarship the editors seek to include the research of those who are both inside and outside the traditions Moreover the book encourages women and men of all beliefs to participate in the on going dialogue which it represents and promotes This journal is polymethodic interdisciplinary and multitrade in its approach to the study of women and religion It not only allows the comparative dimension to appear in bolder relief but also helps to establish a dialogue between the two solitudes of humanistic and social scientific studies in the field Volume III contains the following essays Rabi ah as Mystic Muslim and Woman by Barbara Lois Helms Slighted Grandmothers The Need for Increased Study of Female Spirits and Spirituality in Native American Religions by Jordan Paper Women of Medieval South India in Hindu Temple Ritual Text and Practice by Leslie C Orr and Confucianism and Women in Modern Korea Continuity Change and Conflict by Edward Y J Chung Women and Goddesses in Myth and Sacred Text Tamara Agha-Jaffar,2005 Unable to find a suitable textbook to use in her courses on women in mythology and religion Agha Jaffar Kansas City Kansas Community College compiled this reader on 18 incarnations of the Great Goddess honored before being dethroned by male deities Chapters on each one contain a glossary of names and terms A timeline charts sacred women goddesses in various cultures from Isis in 3000 BCE to Native American s Corn Mother and White Buffalo Woman

Paperbound Books in Print ,1992 Index to Book Reviews in Religion ,1999 American Book Publishing Record ,2005 Religious Encounters in Transcultural Society David William Kim,2017-11-30 This volume focuses on the various phenomena of religious encounters in a transcultural society where religion or religious traditions play a significant role in a multi cultural concept Religious Encounters in Transcultural Society is divided into three parts Islamic encounters with regional religions East Asian religious encounters and alternative religious encounters This book evokes the fact that religious encounters exist in every transcultural society even though they often remain hidden behind socio cultural issues The situation can be changed but one culture cannot harmoniously and always contain two or multi beliefs The issue of religious encounters mostly arises in the transnational process of religious globalization Library Journal ,2003 Includes beginning Sept 15 1954 and on the 15th of each month Sept May a special section School library journal ISSN 0000 0035 called Junior libraries 1954 May 1961 Also issued separately Re-Inventing Islam Deanna Ferree Womack,2025 From the end of the American Civil War to the start of World War II the Protestant missionary movement unintentionally tilled the soil in which American Islamophobia would eventually take root What ideas did missionaries in Islamic contexts pass on to later generations How were these ideas connected to centuries old Protestant discourses about Muslims and gender beginning in the Reformation And what bearing does this history have on the birth of Islamophobia and on Christian Muslim dialogue efforts in the US today In answering these questions Re inventing Islam traces the gender constructs that have informed historical Protestant perceptions of Islam especially in the far reaching textual visual and material influences of the American and British movement for missions to Muslims This book first considers Protestant discourse about Muslim women and men from the Reformation to the Enlightenment Then it turns to the colossal archive of literature images and cultural objects that missionaries and particularly missionary women collected from Islamic contexts and used to inform and motivate their constituents Anglo Protestants in the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries perpetually re invented stereotypes about

Muslims and used these negative images to achieve particular Protestant theological and political purposes including missionary aims They did so when disseminating gender critiques widely to Protestant men women and children Why did they re invent Islam Deanna Ferree Womack argues that they did so to reinforce Protestant theological claims to justify their evangelistic endeavors to express both humanitarian concern and Eurocentric views of the world and to support British and American cultural economic and military expansion Simultaneously however this same missionary movement educated its constituents about diverse Islamic cultures in part by providing humanizing images of Islam Missionaries also formed personal relationships with Muslims that would open pathways toward formal efforts of Christian Muslim dialogue after the mid twentieth century Americans have inherited all of these legacies In revisiting this history readers will find new possibilities for building a more open and just future
