Remapping Ethiopia:

Remapping Ethiopia Wendy James, Donald L. Donham, Eisei Kurimoto, Alessandro Triulzi, 2002 This new volume examines the major changes effected by the socialist regime from the revolution of 1974 to its overthrow in 1991 and then into the current period which has been marked by moves towards local democracy and political devolution North America Ohio U Press Ethiopia Addis Ababa U Press

Ethiopia John Markakis, 2011 An historical overview of Ethiopia's transformation from a multicultural empire into a modern nation state Provides the gist of one scholar's knowledge of this country acquired over several decades The author of numerous works on Ethiopia Markakis presents here an overarching concise historical profile of a momentous effort to integrate a multicultural empire into a modern nation state The concept of nation state formation provides the analytical framework within which this process unfolds and the changes of direction it takes under different regimes as well as a standard for assessing its progress and shortcomings at each stage Over a century old the process is still far from completion and its ultimate success is far from certain In the author's view there are two major obstacles that need to be overcome two frontiers that need to be crossed to reach the desired goal The first is the monopoly of power inherited from the empire builders and zealously guarded ever since by a ruling class of Abyssinian origin The descendants of the people subjugated by the empire builders remain excluded from power a handicap that breeds political instability and violent conflict The second frontier is the arid lowlands on the margins of the state where the process of integration has not yet reached and where resistance to it is greatest Until this frontier is crossed the Ethiopian state will not have the secure borders that a mature nation state requires John Markakis is a political historian who has devoted a professional lifetime to the study of Ethiopia and its neighbours in the Horn of Africa He has published several books and many articles on this area

Education for Children with Disabilities in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia Margarita Schiemer, 2017-08-02 This book is open access under a CC BY 4.0 license This book presents insights into the lived realities of children with disabilities in primary schools in Addis Ababa Ethiopia It examines specific cultural and societal characteristics of Ethiopia that influence the education of children with disabilities The book presents findings drawn from interviews with and participant observation of the schoolchildren family members teachers and other experts and places these findings in a cultural historical context The multidimensional approach taken allows for on the one hand the provision of a historical grounding of the book explaining the main historical junctures and their implications for education and the discussion of the role of culture and society as barriers and facilitators of education On the other hand it gives the book a more personal angle allowing the reader to gain insight into what it means to feel like a family develop a sense of belonging and trying to move toward educational equity

Reconfiguring Ethiopia: The Politics of Authoritarian Reform Jon Abbink, Tobias Hagmann, 2016-04-22 This book takes stock of political reform in Ethiopia and the transformation of Ethiopian society since the adoption of multi party politics and ethnic federalism in 1991 Decentralization attempted democratization via ethno national representation and partial economic liberalization have reconfigured Ethiopian society and state in the past two decades Yet as the contributors to this volume demonstrate democracy in Ethiopia has not changed the authority structures and the culture of centralist decision making of the past The political system is tightly engineered and controlled from top to bottom by the ruling Ethiopian Peoples Revolutionary Democratic Front EPRDF Navigating between its 1991 announcements to democratise the country and its aversion to power sharing the EPRDF has established a de facto one party state that enjoys considerable international support This ruling party has embarked upon a technocratic developmental state trajectory ostensibly aimed at depoliticizing national policy and delegitimizing alternative courses The contributors analyze the dynamics of authoritarian state building political ethnicity electoral politics and state society relations that have marked the Ethiopian polity since the downfall of the socialist Derg regime Chapters on ethnic federalism revolutionary democracy opposition parties the press the judiciary state religion and state foreign donor relations provide the most comprehensive and thought provoking review of contemporary Ethiopian national politics to date This book is based on a special issue of the Journal of Eastern African Studies

Understanding Contemporary Ethiopia Gérard Prunier,Éloi Ficquet,2015-09-15 When we think of Ethiopia we tend to think in cliches Solomon and the Queen of Sheba the Falasha Jews the epic reign of Emperor Haile Selassie the Communist Revolution famine and civil war Among the countries of Africa it has a high profile yet is poorly known How ever all cliches contain within them a kernel of truth and occlude much more Today s Ethiopia and its painfully liberated sister state of Eritrea are largely obscured by these mythical views and a secondary literature that is partial or propagandist Moreover there have been few attempts to offer readers a comprehensive overview of the country s recent history politics and culture that goes beyond the usual guidebook fare Understanding Contemporary Ethiopia seeks to do just that presenting a measured detailed and systematic analysis of the main features of this unique country now building on the foundations of a magical and tumultuous past as it struggles to emerge in the modern world on its own terms

Lands of the Future Echi Christina Gabbert,Fana Gebresenbet,John G. Galaty,Günther Schlee,2021-01-15 Rangeland forests and riverine landscapes of pastoral communities in Eastern Africa are increasingly under threat Abetted by states who think that outsiders can better use the lands than the people who have lived there for centuries outside commercial interests have displaced indigenous dwellers from pastoral territories This volume presents case studies from Eastern Africa based on long term field research that vividly illustrate the struggles and strategies of those who face dispossession and also discredit ideological false modernist tropes like backwardness and primitiveness

Spatial Practices ,2018-06-26 The edited collection Spatial Practices Territory Border and Infrastructure in Africa presents research findings from the German Research Council s Priority Programme 1448 Adaptation and Change in Africa 2011 2018 At the heart of the volume are important new spatial practices that have emerged after the end of the Cold War in the fields of conflict climate change migration and urban development to name but a few and their ordering effects with regard to social relations These findings bear particular relevance for the co production of territorialities and sovereignties for borders and migrations as well as infrastructures and orders Contributors are Sabine Baumgart Andrea Behrends Marc Boeckler Martin Doeverspeck Ulf Engel Claudia Gebauer Karsten Giese Katharina Heitz Tokpa Shahadat Hossain Anna H ncke Gabriel Klaeger Kelly Si Miao Liang Andreas Mehler Felix M ller Detlef M ller Mahn Wolfgang Scholz Sophie Schramm Jannik Schritt Michael Stasik Florian Weisser Julia Willers and Franzisca Zanker

Dams, Power, and the Politics of Ethiopia's Renaissance Tom Lavers, 2024-10-01 This is an open access title available under the terms of a CC BY NC ND 4 0 International licence It is free to read on the Oxford Academic platform and offered as a free PDF download from OUP and selected open access locations

After more than a decade of construction Ethiopia is filling the Grand Ethiopian Renaissance Dam GERD a controversial dam with the potential to transform the hydrology and politics of the Nile Basin The GERD is the culmination of a dam building boom carried out over three decades and a key pillar of the Ethiopian Peoples Revolutionary Democratic Front s EPRDF efforts to bring about an Ethiopian Renaissance Dams Power and the Politics of Ethiopia s Renaissance provides a detailed examination of the domestic and international political dynamics that shaped Ethiopia s dam building drawing on extensive primary research including more than a hundred interviews with politicians technocrats consultants and donors The authors reflect on the implications of Ethiopia s dam building for broader debates about the role of the state in late development the dynamics of twenty first century dam building and the political economy of renewable energy transitions A central argument of the book is that Ethiopia s dam building is symbolic of the successes and failures of the EPRDF s developmental state On the one hand this dams boom enhanced electricity generation capacity while constituting a key element of the state infrastructure investment that turned Ethiopia into one of the world s fastest growing economies In contrast a politically driven decision making process undermined electricity planning contributed to an unsustainable debt burden and ultimately failed to provide reliable electricity access to key users Following the EPRDF s collapse the subsequent Prosperity Party government has taken steps away from the state led development model of its predecessor while labouring towards the final completion of the GERD

Oxford Studies in African Politics and International Relations is a series for scholars and students working on African politics and International Relations and related disciplines Volumes concentrate on contemporary developments in African political science political economy and International Relations such as electoral politics democratization decentralization gender and political representation the political impact of natural resources the dynamics and consequences of conflict comparative political thought and the nature of the continent s engagement with the East and West Comparative and mixed methods work is particularly encouraged Case studies are welcomed but should demonstrate the broader theoretical and empirical implications of the study and its wider relevance to contemporary debates The focus of the series is on sub Saharan Africa although proposals that explain how the region engages with North Africa and other parts of the world are of interest Series Editors Nic Cheeseman University of Birmingham Peace Medie University of Bristol and

Ricardo Soares de Oliveira University of Oxford Muslim Ethiopia Terje Østebø, 2013-04-17 Drawing on international and multidisciplinary expertise this pioneering edited collection analyzing Islam in contemporary Ethiopia challenges the popular notion of a Christian Ethiopia imagined as the century old never colonized Abyssinia isolated in the highlands and dominated by Orthodox Christianity Contested Power in Ethiopia Kjetil Tronvoll, Tobias Hagmann, 2011-12-09 Drawing on nine case studies this book offers a comparative ethnography of the contested powers that shape democratization in Ethiopia Focusing on the competitive 2005 elections the authors analyze how customary leaders political parties and state officials confronted each other during election time Historical Dictionary of Ethiopia David H. Shinn, Thomas P. Ofcansky, 2013-04-11 Ethiopia is clearly one of the most important countries in Africa First of all with about 75 million people it is the third most populous country in Africa Second it is very strategically located in the Horn of Africa and bordering Eritrea Sudan Kenya and Somalia with some of whom it has touchy and sometimes worse relations Yet its capital Addis Ababa is the headquarters of the African Union the prime meeting place for Africa's leaders So if things went poorly in Ethiopia this would not be good for Africa and for a long time this was the case with internal disruption rife until it was literally suppressed under the strong rule of the recently deceased Meles Zenawi The Historical Dictionary of Ethiopia Second Edition covers the history of Ethiopia through a chronology an introductory essay appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has several hundred cross referenced entries on important personalities politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Ethiopia The Crisis of Democratization in the Greater Horn of Africa Kidane Mengisteab, 2020 Analyses the structural and institutional obstacles to democratization in transitional societies fractured societies fragmented economies and institutions of governance weak or deformed state structures and how to overcome these Poverty Reduction Strategies in Africa Mike Odey, Toyin Falola, 2017-09-08 A fundamental question about contemporary Africa is why does Africa remain so poor long after the departure of the European Colonial domination and in the midst of so many natural resources Poverty Reduction Strategies in Africa provides new understandings of the persistent issue of poverty in Sub Saharan Africa and makes recommendations for policy frameworks to help African governments alleviate poverty Each chapters uses case studies to review the old strategies for resolving the problem of poverty in the continent and make the case for new initiatives to address poverty The contributors focus on practical and day to day issues as the best approach to formulate and implement poverty reduction strategies in contemporary Africa This book is invaluable reading for students and scholars of African politics and development The Horn of Africa since 2018 Jan Záhorský, Aleksi Ylönen, 2025-04-15 This book takes stock of developments in the Horn of Africa since 2018 a key time of political turbulence marked by revolution military coups and civil war as well as alliances peace deals reforms and reconciliation processes Bringing together a group of experienced and younger scholars from the Horn of Africa and Europe the book investigates the various multi layered and intertwined factors and consequences of political developments in Ethiopia Eritrea Sudan South Sudan Djibouti and Somalia The authors investigate the endemic political instability across much of the Horn of Africa while also reflecting on political continuities and transformations including attempts at peace and state building They consider the important role of regional organizations and intra and extra regional actors in the domestic politics of the states in the Horn of Africa The book concludes with a section focusing on the prospects for reform and conflict resolution in the context of shifting regional power relations This book will be an important resource for researchers working on contemporary politics history and society in the Horn of Africa

Politics and Violence in Eastern Africa David M. Anderson, Øystein H. Rolandsen, 2017-10-02 Over the fifty years between 1940 and 1990 the countries of eastern Africa were embroiled in a range of debilitating and destructive conflicts starting with the wars of independence but then incorporating rebellion secession and local insurrection as the Cold War replaced colonialism The articles gathered here illustrate how significant widespread and dramatic this violence was In these years violence was used as a principal instrument in the creation and consolidation of the authority of the state and it was also regularly and readily utilised by those who wished to challenge state authority through insurrection and secession Why was it that eastern Africa should have experienced such extensive and intensive violence in the fifty years before 1990 Was this resort to violence a consequence of imperial rule the legacy of oppressive colonial domination under a coercive and non representative state system Did essential contingencies such as the Cold War provoke and promote the use of violence Or was it a choice made by Africans themselves and their leaders a product of their own agency This book focuses on these turbulent decades exploring the principal conflicts in six key countries Kenya Uganda Sudan Ethiopia Somalia and Tanzania This book was published as a special issue of the Journal of Eastern African Studies

Dissent, Protest and Dispute in Africa Toyin Falola, Emmanuel Mbah, 2016-12-19 This book provides unique and detailed perspectives on different aspects of dissent protest and disputes and how these have in turn continued to pose challenges in Africa The contributors argue that dissent protest and most forms of disputes in Africa are the result of daily challenges that its people have faced and continue to encounter to this day These challenges include amongst others demands for transparency good governance and accountability waves of instability that have created insecurity in most parts of the continent an unsustainable level of youth unemployment rapid population growth a continent wide healthcare and poverty crises and numerous environmental challenges The chapters elevate the debates on dissent protest and disputes conflict in Africa by adding new ideas and introducing new and useful interpretations The book's strength lies in the contributors ability to conflate colonial and postcolonial tendencies to show how challenges of the past are not so different from those of today while also presenting important historical issues from various scholarly perspectives Dissent Protest and Dispute in Africa will be of interest for students and scholars of African history politics and culture as well as those interested in social movements and civil society

Food Security, Safety Nets and Social Protection in Ethiopia Dessalegn Rahmato, Alula Pankhurst, Jan-Gerrit van

Uffelen,2013 This book which examines Ethiopia s food security strategy and the safety net program from different approaches and perspectives in the context of the development of a social protection policy is a continuation of that tradition Ethiopia s safety net program is one of the largest and most influential social protection schemes in Africa and as noted by several authors in this volume provides important lessons beyond the Ethiopian context Back cover Developing

Heritage - Developing Countries Marie Huber,2020-11-23 The history of development has paid only little attention to cultural projects This book looks at the development politics that shaped the UNESCO World Heritage programme with a case study of Ethiopian World Heritage sites from the 1960s to the 1980s In a large scale conservation and tourism planning project selected sites were set up and promoted as images of the Ethiopian nation This story serves to illustrate UNESCO s role in constructing a useful past in many African countries engaged in the process of nation building UNESCO experts and Ethiopian elites had a shared interest in producing a portfolio of antiquities and national parks to underwrite Ethiopia s imperial claims to regional hegemony with ancient history The key findings of this book highlight a continuity in Ethiopian history despite the political ruptures caused by the 1974 revolution and UNESCO s transformation from knowledge producer to actual provider of development policies The particular focus on the bureaucratic and political practices of heritage bridges a gap between cultural heritage studies and the history of international organisations The result is a first study of the global discourse on heritage as it emerged in the 1960s development decade The Rise of the Infrastructure State Seth

Schindler,Jessica DiCarlo,2023-12-12 Tensions between the US and China have escalated as both powers seek to draw countries into their respective political and economic orbits by financing and constructing infrastructure Wide ranging and even handed this book offers a fresh interpretation of the territorial logic of US China rivalry and explores what it means for countries across Eurasia Africa and Latin America The chapters demonstrate that many countries navigate the global infrastructure boom by articulating novel spatial objectives and implementing political and economic reforms By focusing on people and places worldwide this book broadens perspectives on the US China rivalry beyond bipolarity It is an essential guide to 21st century politics Inequalities and Conflicts in Modern and Contemporary African History Jan

Záhorík,2018-11-16 The book deals with historical social economic political and international causes contexts and consequences of inequalities and conflicts in Africa In particular the book is to puts conflicts and turbulences in Ethiopia in a broader African comparative perspective It also identifies and analyzes multiple causes of conflicts which cannot be studied only as a result of one variable Inequalities and conflicts have a whole set of causes stemming from historically inherited as well as global international socio economic political and other contexts which cannot be analyzed separately This book is vital for anyone who is interested in the study of African history comparative politics and conflict in Africa
