Remembrance Of Things Past 7vol:

Men and Mothers Hendrika C. Freud, 2018-03-08 Not all men vie with their fathers for the love of their mothers In some families the mother becomes the central figure for her son the father is excluded or excludes himself and does not come between mother and son The main thesis of this book using clinical vignettes and quotes from the work of Marcel Proust to illustrate the author's points is that in these cases fantasies of matricide replace patricide Men develop their male gender identity by being permitted to separate from their mother early on but when a man does not resolve his infantile tie to his mother he risks remaining in a passive and or dependent position towards her Over identification with the mother might ensue hampering masculine development Mothers who seek emotional support by binding their sons too closely can become seductive towards them The child is inclined to try to satisfy the emotional needs of his mother and he fears rejection if he asserts his independence instead of complying

The Ideal Reader Jacques Riviere, 2017-07-05 Jacques Riviere knew how to accept art emotionally No French critic was ever less a traditional pedagogue Riviere was an intelligent French writer who knew that the summit of the intellect is to admit affective knowledge instinct and intuition The heart or taste is always superior to raw intelligence Riviere's supple metaphors are not easily rendered into English The density of his thought the complexity of his views the moral and spiritual fervor that vibrates in these pages further enhances the difficulties the skilled translator must overcome Literary criticism is often ephemeral it has served its purpose if it stimulates discussion about the work of art under scrutiny Not so with essays like these They demand an active reading as do the original works themselves They do not easily yield their significance Among the critics who came into the French literary scene in the years immediately preceding and following the First World War Jacques Riviere has been least affected by the attrition of time His studies of Proust and Rimbaud still rank among the two or three essential works to be read on these authors Few other critics have gone further in a sensuous perception of these authors work and the intellectual lucidity in analyzing it Riviere had few pretensions to profundity and a great purity of style In an age of slogans and judgments this volume reminds the reader of the extraordinary role of European critical thought in the twentieth century

Dysfluencies Chris Eagle,2013-11-07 Dysfluencies is the first comprehensive study of how speech disorders are portrayed in modern literature Tracing the roots of this interaction between literary practice and speech pathology back to the rise of aphasiology in the 1860s Dysfluencies examines portrayals of disordered speech by writers like Zola Proust Joyce Melville and Mishima as well as contemporary writers like Philip Roth Gail Jones and Jonathan Lethem Dysfluencies thus speaks directly to the growing interest at present both in popular culture and the Humanities regarding the status of the Self in relation to speech pathology The need for this type of study is clear considering the number of prominent writers whose works foreground disorders of speech Melville Zola Kesey Mishima Roth et al Moreover thinkers like Freud Bergson and Jakobson were similarly concerned with the implications of language breakdown This volume shows this concern began with the rise of neurology and aphasiology which challenged spiritual conceptions of language and replaced them with a view of language as a material process rooted in the brain Dysfluencies traces the history of this interaction between literary practice and speech pathology arguing that works of literature have responded differently to the issue of language breakdown as the dominant views on the issue have shifted from neurological circa 1860s to 1920s to psychological circa 1920s to 1980s and back to neurological during the so called decade of the Brain the 1990s

Court Ceremonies and Rituals of Power in Byzantium and the Medieval Mediterranean ,2013-09-19

Publicly performed rituals and ceremonies form an essential part of medieval political practice and court culture. This applies not only to western feudal societies but also to the linguistically and culturally highly diversified environment of Byzantium and the Mediterranean basin. The continuity of Roman traditions and cross fertilization between various influences originating from Constantinople, Armenia, the Arab Muslim World and western kingdoms and naval powers provide the framework for a distinct sphere of ritual expression and ceremonial performance. This collective volume placing Byzantium into a comparative perspective between East and West examines transformative processes from Late Antiquity to the Middle Ages, succession procedures in different political contexts, phenomena of cross cultural appropriation and exchange and the representation of rituals in art and literature. Contributors are Maria Kantirea, Martin Hinterberger, Walter Pohl, Andrew Marsham, Björn Weiler, Eric J. Hanne, Antonia Giannouli, Jo Van Steenberg, Stefan Burkhardt, Ioanna Rapti, Jonathan Shepard, Panagiotis Agapitos, Henry Maguire, Christine Angelidi and Margaret Mullett.

The Cambridge Companion to Literature on Screen Deborah Cartmell, Imelda Whelehan, 2007-05-10 A collection of essays covering many different aspects of literature on screen.

Beautiful Shadow Andrew Wilson, 2008-12-07 The life of Patricia Highsmith was as secretive and unusual as that of many of the best known characters who people her peerlessly disturbing thrillers and short stories. Yet even as her work has found new popularity in the last few years, the life of this famously elusive writer has remained a mystery. For Beautiful Shadow, the first biography of Highsmith, British journalist Andrew Wilson mined the vast archive of diaries, notebooks and letters she left behind, astonishing in their candor and detail. He interviewed her closest friends and colleagues as well as some of her many lovers. But Wilson also traces Highsmith's literary roots in the work of Poe, noir and existentialism, locating the influences that helped distinguish Highsmith's writing so startlingly from more ordinary thrillers. The result is both a serious critical biography and one that reveals much about a brilliant and contradictory woman, one who despite her acclaim and affairs always maintained her solitude.

The Doctor in Literature Solomon Posen, 2005 Posen, a retired physician and a former English major, has indexed 1500 passages from approximately 600 novels, short stories and plays describing physicians. He also analyzes several persistent themes in literature such as doctors' fees, lack of time, bedside manner and social status. Posen's extensive research has uncovered a resentment of doctors and a discontent with the medical profession that transcends time and place.

The Genealogy of Values Edward Andrew, 1995 Until the time of Karl Marx and John Stuart Mill, philosophers generally held economics to be an integral element of moral philosophy. These days, the language of values, moral, aesthetic and cognitive, dominates philosophic discourse, even though contemporary philosophers rarely hold economics to be integral to moral philosophy. Examining the thought of Friedrich Nietzsche and the art of Marcel Proust, Edward Andrew provides the first sustained critical analysis of values discourse, an analysis that deconstructs its content and its form.

Celebrating Shakespeare Clara Calvo, Coppélia Kahn, 2015-11-19 On the 400th anniversary of Shakespeare's death this collection opens up the social practices of commemoration to new research and analysis An international team of leading scholars explores a broad spectrum of celebrations showing how key events such as the Easter Rising in Ireland the Second Vatican Council of 1964 and the Great Exhibition of 1851 drew on Shakespeare to express political agendas In the USA commemoration in 1864 counted on him to symbolise unity transcending the Civil War while the First World War pulled the 1916 anniversary celebration into the war effort enlisting Shakespeare as patriotic poet The essays also consider how the dream of Shakespeare as a rural poet took shape in gardens how cartoons challenged the poet's elite status and how statues of him mutated into advertisements for gin and Disney cartoons Richly varied illustrations supplement these case studies of the diverse complex and contradictory aims of memorialising Shakespeare The UAB

Marcel Proust Symposium William C. Carter, 1989 Losing Site Dr Shelley Hornstein, 2013-06-28 As Ruskin suggests in his Seven Lamps of Architecture We may live without architecture and worship without her but we cannot remember without her We remember best when we experience an event in a place But what happens when we leave that place or that place no longer exists This book addresses the relationship between memory and place and asks how architecture captures and triggers memory It explores how architecture exists as a material object and how it registers as a place that we come to remember beyond the physical site itself It questions what architecture is in the broadest sense assuming that it is not simply buildings Rather architecture is considered to be the mapping of physical mental or emotional space The idea that we are all architects in some measure as we actively organize and select pathways and markers within space is central to this book's premise Each chapter provides a different example of the manifold ways in which the physical place of architecture is curated by the architecture in our mental space our imaginary toolbox when we think of a place and look at a photograph or visit a site and describe it later or send a postcard By connecting architecture with other disciplines such as geography visual culture sociology and urban studies as well as the fine and performing arts this book puts forward the idea that a conversation about architecture is not exclusively about formal isolated buildings but instead must be deepened and broadened as spatialized visualizations and experiences of place The Strange M. Proust Andre Benhaim, 2017-07-05 The strange M Proust the narrator the author and the embodiment of A la Recherche du Temps perdu is now so canonical a writer that his very strangeness is easily overlooked His book made of other books his epic composed of extraordinary miniatures his orderly structure where every law is subverted his chronology where time can be undone and his geography where places can superimpose in these and many other ways Proust continues to astonish even readers who have engaged with him for their entire careers In this book arising from the Princeton symposium of 2006 major critics come together to offer provocative readings of a work which is at the same time classical and unusual French and foreign familiar and strange The book is dedicated to the memory of Malcolm Bowie 1943-2007 whose keynote address was one of his last major lectures Other contributors include David Ellison Anne Simon Eugene Nicole Joseph Brami Raymonde Coudert Christie McDonald
