Alternate Currents Justin B. Stein, 2023 In the second half of the twentieth century Reiki went from an obscure therapy practiced by a few thousand Japanese and Japanese Americans to a global phenomenon. By the early twenty-first century, people in nearly every corner of the world have undergone the initiations that authorize them to channel a cosmic energy known as Reiki to heal body, mind, and spirit. They lay hands on themselves and others, use secret symbols and incantations to send Reiki to distant recipients, and strive to follow five precepts to cultivate their spiritual growth. Reiki's international rise and development is due to the work of Hawayo Takata (1900–1980), a Hawai'i-born Japanese American woman who brought Reiki out of Japan and adapted it for thousands of students in Hawai'i and North America, shaping interconnections across the North Pacific region as well as cultural transformations over the transwar period spanning World War II.

Alternate Currents: Reiki's Circulation in the Twentieth Century North Pacific analyzes how, from her training in Japan in the mid-1930s to her death in Iowa in 1980, Takata built a vast trans-Pacific network that connected Japanese American laborers on Hawai'i plantations to social elites in Tokyo, Hollywood, and New York; middle-class housewives in American suburbs; and off-the-grid tree planters in the mountains of British Columbia. Using recently uncovered archival materials and original oral histories, Stein examines how these relationships between healer and patient, master and disciple, became deeply infused with values of their time and place and how they interplayed with Reiki's circulation, performance, and meanings along with broader cultural shifts in the twentieth-century North Pacific. Highly readable and informative, each chapter is structured around a period in the life of Takata, the charismatic rags-to-riches architect of the network in which Reiki spread for decades. Alternate Currents explores Reiki as an exemplary transnational spiritual therapy, demonstrating how lived practices transcend artificial distinctions between religion and medicine and circulate in global systems while maintaining strong connections with the practices homeland.

The Routledge Companion to Butoh Performance Bruce Baird, Rosemary Candelario, 2018-09-03. The Routledge Companion to Butoh Performance provides a comprehensive introduction to and analysis of the global art form butoh. Originating in Japan in the 1960s, butoh was a major innovation in twentieth-century dance and performance, and it continues to shape and shift around the world. Taking inspiration from the Japanese avant-garde, Surrealism, Happenings, and authors such as Genet and Artaud, its influence can be seen throughout contemporary performing arts, music, and visual art practices. This Companion places the form in historical context, documents its development in Japan and its spread around the world, and brings together the theory and the practice of this compelling dance. The interdisciplinarity evident in the volume reflects the depth and the breadth of butoh, and the editors bring specially commissioned essays by leading scholars and dancers together with translations of important early texts. The Routledge Companion to Theatre-Fiction Graham Wolfe, 2023-11-14. Novelists have long been attracted to theatre. Making Personas Hideaki Fujiki, 2020-10-26 The film star is not simply an actor but a historical phenomenon that derives from the production of an actor's attractiveness the circulation of his or her name and likeness and the support of media consumers This book analyzes the establishment and transformation of the transnational film star system and the formations of historically important film stars Japanese and non Japanese and casts new light on Japanese modernity as it unfolded between the 1910s and 1930s Hideaki Fujiki illustrates how film stardom and the star system emerged and evolved touching on such facets as the production representation circulation and reception of performers images in films and other media Examining several individual performers particularly benshi narrators Onoe Matsunosuke Tachibana Teijir Kurishima Sumiko Clara Bow and Natsukawa Shizue as well as certain aspects of different star systems that bolstered individual stardom this study foregrounds the associations of contradictory multivalent social factors that constituted modernity in Japan such as industrialization capitalism colonialism nationalism and consumerism Through its nuanced treatment of the production and consumption of film stars this book shows that modernity is not a simple concept but an intricate contested and paradoxical nexus of diverse social elements emerging in their historical contexts
