Secret Reader 501 Sonnets:

The Secret Reader Willis Barnstone, 1996 I am captivated by these sonnets The free movement of consciousness the mind operating in the universe Here is are and cunning form and ruthless honesty Gerald Stern A valuable accomplishment a remarkable modernist testament Edward Hirsch

The Poems of Mao Zedong Zedong Mao, 2008-06-14 Mao Zedong leader of the revolution and absolute chairman of the People's Republic of China was also a calligrapher and a poet of extraordinary grace and eloquent simplicity The poems in this beautiful edition from the 1963 Beijing edition translated and introduced by Willis Barnstone are expressions of decades of struggle the painful loss of his first wife his hope for a new China and his ultimate victory over the Nationalist forces Willis Barnstone's introduction his short biography of Mao and brief history of the revolution and his notes on Chinese versification all combine to enrich the Western reader's understanding of Mao's poetry

Sonnets to Orpheus Rainer Maria Rilke, 2004-12-07 Written during an astonishing outburst of creativity during a period of only two weeks in February 1922 Rilke's Sonnets to Orpheus is one of the great poetic works of the twentieth century Willis Barnstone brings these striking poems into English with an approach honed through years of work on the philosophy of translation about which he has written extensively This dual language edition allows readers to compare versions face to face to get a clear sense of the nuances of the translation Also included is an extensive introduction from the translator that offers a biographical sketch of Rilke and reflects upon the ever present tension between the poet's passion for life romance and adventure and his yearning for the solitude he desperately needed to dedicate himself fully to his art

Six Masters of the Spanish Sonnet Willis Barnstone, 1997 With poems selected and translated by one of the preeminent translators of our day this bilingual collection of 112 sonnets by six Spanish language masters of the form ranges in time from the seventeenth to the twentieth centuries and includes the works of poets from Spanish America as well as poets native to Spain Willis Barnstone's selection of sonnets and the extensive historical and biographical background he supplies serve as a compelling survey of Spanish language poetry that should be of interest both to lovers of poetry in general and to scholars of Spanish language literature in particular Following an introductory examination of the arrival of the sonnet in Spain and of that nation's poetry up to Francisco de Quevedo Barnstone takes up his six masters in chronological turn preceding each with an essay that not only presents the sonneteer under discussion but also continues the carefully delineated history of Spanish language poetry Consistently engaging and informative and never dull or pedantic these essays stand alone as appreciations in the finest sense of that word of some of the greatest poets ever to write It is however Barnstone's subtle musical clear and concise translations that form the heart of this collection As Barnstone himself says In many ways all my life has been some kind of preparation for this volume

Life Watch Willis Barnstone, 2003 Life Watch A Circle of Ninety One Nights is an ambitious sequence of poems that begins in childhood moves through Barnstone's adult years and returns to youth The poems engage and reflect on the civil wars that the author found himself in the midst of Mexican orphanages the cafes and arts salons in Paris and walking with Borges As the circles of these poems widen they gather many perspectives on a life watched Willis Barnstone has taught at universities in Greece and Argentina and authored more than 40 books poetry collections poetry translations philosophical and religious texts The New Covenant his literary translation of the New Testament was published in 2001 Riverhead Books Sarah Laughed Judith Goldhaber, 2007 Poetry SARAH LAUGHED is the second collaboration between poet Judith Goldhaber and artist Gerson Goldhaber a husband and wife team from Berkeley California Following the formal model of their previous work SONNETS FROM AESOP which won the Independent Publishers Book Award Judith Goldhaber imbues familiar Biblical folklore with equal parts humor and wisdom Gerson's delightfully childlike illustrations accompany the poetry rendering the work a storybook of sorts open to young and old alike In the hands of Petrarch and Shakespeare the sonnet became associated with the inner paradoxes of erotic psychology Like Pushkin and Vikram Seth Judith Goldhaber has adapted the sonnet to the paradoxes of social narrative as well Peter Dale Scott The poetry and illustrations work their magic together delighting the eye and beckoning the mind to wonder Daniel Matt Healing the Split Marc Elihu Hofstadter, 2011 Healing the Split consists of the collected essays of poet literary critic and philosopher Marc Elihu Hofstadter The essays stretch from Hofstadter's early scholarly articles about poets William Carlos Williams and Yves Bonnefoy through articles published in the Redwood Coast Review about poetry art music science politics and France to recent articles concerning the split between the sciences and the humanities reason and feeling intuition faith The book embodies Hofstadter's consistent belief in the idea that all human activities are composed of an objective element and a subjective element Human knowledge whether scientific mathematical philosophical or artistic contains a degree of objective certainty mixed with a component of subjective feeling The differences between science and the humanities are differences of degree of objectivity not of essence and the knowledge the humanities display is a genuine form of knowledge less certain than science but rich in tangible felt experience Even early in his career as a literary critic Hofstadter was interested in how such otherwise diverse poets as Williams and Bonnefoy sacralize the coming together of mind and world in all forms of human experience As Williams put it No ideas but in things by which he meant not Let there not be any ideas but Let all ideas be inextricably entwined with the physical world Hofstadter argues that in all our activities there is a mixture of the thinking reasoning mind and the parts of us that feel perceive touch our bodies our hearts Science and philosophy are the great achievements of the mind while art and religion are the most powerful consummations of sensing and feeling yet science and philosophy are partly emotive and art and theology partly rational The difference again is in degree Healing the Split is an attempt to bring reason and feeling intuition faith together to show how they are intimately related The Buddhist faith is key to this effort because Buddhism doesn't analyze out reason and non rational knowledge as separate faculties but tries to unite them in a direct embodied kind of experience that heals the split between them and makes the individual human being whole In Buddhism everything we know is known through consciousness and distinctions between subject and object mind and world logic and faith become artificial since consciousness is essentially unitary And Buddhism sees all phenomena known through consciousness as being related in a universal web everything is connected ultimately to everything else and the world is essentially One Healing the Split is finally a work of mysticism in the line of Parmenides who believed that everything is one or the Kabbalists who worshipped the All in the form of Ha Shem the unnamable Name Marc Elihu Hofstadter was born in New York City in 1945 He received his B A in French literature from Swarthmore College in 1967 and his Ph D in Literature from the University of California at Santa Cruz in 1975 He has taught American literature at Santa Cruz the University of Orleans on a Fulbright Lectureship and Tel Aviv University In 1980 he obtained his Master of Library Science degree from the University of California at Berkeley and from 1982 to 2005 served as the Librarian of the City of San Francisco's transit agency He has published five volumes of poetry House of Peace Visions Shark's Tooth Luck and Rising at 5 AM all of which are available on amazon.com and his poems translations and essays have appeared in over sixty magazines He lives in the retirement community of Rossmore in Walnut Creek California with his partner the artist David Zurlin

The Complete Poems of Sappho Willis Barnstone, 2009-03-10 A vivid contemporary translation of the greatest Greek love poet with a wealth of materials for understanding her work by a prize winning poet and translator Sappho's thrilling lyric verse has been unremittingly popular for more than 2 600 years certainly a record for poetry of any kind and love for her art only increases as time goes on Though her extant work consists only of a collection of fragments and a handful of complete poems her mystique endures to be discovered anew by each generation and to inspire new efforts at bringing the spirit of her Greek words faithfully into English In the past translators have taken two basic approaches to Sappho either very literally translating only the words in the fragments or taking the liberty of reconstructing the missing parts Willis Barnstone has taken a middle course in which he remains faithful to the words of the fragments only very judiciously filling in a word or phrase in cases where the meaning is obvious This edition includes extensive notes and a special section of Testimonia appreciations of Sappho in the words of ancient writers from Plato to Plutarch Also included are a glossary of all the figures mentioned in the poems and suggestions for further reading

Fourteen on Form William Baer, 2009-06 When free verse and its many movements seemed to dominate poetry other writers worked steadfastly insistently and majestically in traditional forms of rhyme and meter Such poets as Anthony Hecht Donald Justice Derek Walcott and Richard Wilbur utilized sonnets villanelles blank verse and many other forms to create dazzling lasting work Their writing posed a counterpoint to free verse sustained a tradition in English language verse and eventually inspired the movement called New Formalism Fourteen on Form Conversations with Poets collects interviews with some of the most influential poets of the last fifty years William Baer editor of The Formalist asks incisive questions that allow writers to discuss in detail a wide range of topics related to their work methods of composition and the contemporary poetry scene Maxine Kumin reflects on being a woman poet during a period in which women were not encouraged to submit to journals With clarity and passion Walcott remembers the impetus of his famous Eulogy to W H Auden British poet Wendy Cope talks about the differences between how her barbed poems are received in England and abroad The conversations return continually to the serious matter of poetic craft especially the potential power of form in poetry These well paced conversations showcase poets discussing their creative lives with insight and candor The sum total of their forthright opinions in Fourteen on Form not only elucidates the current situation of the art form but it also serves as a primer for understanding the fundamental craft of poetics
