The Child's Secret of Learning Gerald Van Koeeverden, 2005-08 Can it be shown that learning our first language like any other skill is a personal work of art emerging from the interaction of body and brain in making one common sense of the world Through exploring the basic structure and dynamics of language can we rediscover it as the resolution of a creative synthesis In searching for the child s learning secret or conversely the adult s burden of innocence lost the author explores examples of both everyday skills and scientific knowledge to discover his quartet of consciousness He shows how this quarrelsome four the artist and idealist of the arts and the theorist and empiricist of the sciences emerge naturally through how feel think experiment and act and remerge creatively in language It challenges academics to recognize the limitations of nature versus nurture debates in learning psychology and even biology Through clear and simple images van Koeeverden presents a unique and dynamic understanding of learning bringing a delightful new voice into the discussion

Secret Missions Ellis M. Zacharias, 2014-03-15 An instant bestseller when it was first published in 1946 this memoir recounts the author s nearly forty years of service in naval intelligence beginning in 1908 One of the first to venture into the realm of psychological warfare Ellis Zacharias was awarded the Legion of Merit with two gold stars for his contributions Among the highlights of his impressive career was the role he played in convincing the Japanese to accept surrender in 1945 a subject he deals with in fascinating detail in this book Zacharias gives readers access to rare psychological profiles that he prepared for the Office of Naval Intelligence on leading political and military figures in Japan His book also recounts his exploits as a young naval attach with the U S Embassy in Tokyo in the early 1920s In the early months of the war readers join him in the thick of combat in the Pacific first aboard a cruiser under his command and later in a battleship Of particular interest are descriptions of his one man radio broadcasts beamed at Japan between V E and V J days that received kudos from Adm Ernest J King for helping bring about the surrender Aquarius Ascendant Secrets Saket Shah,2020-01-05
