Selected Poetry:

Selected Poetry John Donne, 1998 John Donne 1572 1631 is perhaps the most important poet of the seventeenth century In his day it seemed to his admirers that Donne had changed the literary universe and he is now widely regarded as the founder of the metaphysical school Donne's poetry is highly distinctive and individual adopting a multitude of rhythms images forms and personae from irresistible seducer to devout believer His greatness stems from the subtleties and ambivalences of tone that convey his remarkably modern awareness of the instability of the self This collection of Donne's verse is chosen from the Oxford Authors critical edition of his major works It includes a wide selection from his secular and divine poems such as the rebellious and libertine satires and love elegies the virtuoso Songs and Sonnets and the desperate passionate Holy Sonnets John Carey's introduction and extensive notes provide valuable insights into Donne's poetic genius

Selected Poetry and Prose Algernon Charles Swinburne, 1968 An anthology The Selected Poetry of Robinson Jeffers Robinson Jeffers, 1938 This new Jeffers Selected Poetry includes poems from the last quarter century of his life the previous Selected Poetry included poems only through 1937 It derives from the monumental five volume The Collected Poetry of Robinson Jeffers Stanford 1988 2000 edited by Tim Hunt and includes a sampling of the poems Jeffers left unpublished along with several prose pieces in which he reflects on his poetry and poetics Selected Letters John Keats, 2002 This book contains a collection of Keats letters written over four years With extraordinary candour and self knowledge he gives us his experience of almost everything that can happen to a young man between the ages of 21 and 25 Lydia Sigourney Lydia Sigourney, 2008-08-28 Lydia Huntley Sigourney 1791 1865 was the most widely read and respected pre Civil War American woman poet in the English speaking world In a half century career Sigourney produced a wide range of poetry and prose envisaging the United States as a new kind of republic with a unique mission in history in which women like herself had a central role This edition contributes to the current recovery of Sigourney and her republican vision from the oblivion into which they were cast by the aftermath of the Civil War the construction of a male dominated American national literary canon and the aesthetics of Modernism In this Broadview edition a representative selection of poetry and prose from across her career illustrates Sigourney's national vision and the diversity of forms she used to promote it In the appendices letters and documents illustrate her challenges and working methods in what she called her kitchen in Parnassus Robinson Jeffers Mercedes Cunningham Monjian, 2012-01-12 Robinson Jeffers name has been so inseparably linked with California that it is difficult to think of his origins being elsewhere Jeffers was both in 1887 in Pittsburgh Pennsylvania His father was a professor at Western Theological Seminary and a scholar of ancient languages who taught his son to read Greek before he started school In 1902 Jeffers enrolled in the University of Western Pennsylvania now the University of Pittsburgh but his family moved to California soon thereafter and he graduated from Occidental College at the age of eighteen Inhumanism was the label Jeffers first used in the preface to The Double Axe and Other Poems to explain the doctrine that permeates all of his poetry Defining humanism as a system of thinking in which man his interests and development are made dominant his addition of the negative prefix was his attempt to subdue human interests and development to something greater contrasting them against the magnificent beauty and immense worth of the natural world In addition to discussing Jeffers life and philosophy Monjian analyzes the form and style of his poetry calling it a singular style slashing its way across the page with violence of image and a free crashing rhythm She ends the book Whatever the future holds for this poet our own age is still awed by the magnificent talent and effort of a burdened mind struggling to free humanity from the shackles of an impoverished self love and the myths to which he believes it gave birth The Selected Poetry and Prose ,1953
