Self Advocacy In The Lives Of People With Learning Difficulties The Politics Of Resilience:

Self-advocacy in the Lives of People with Learning Difficulties Dan Goodley, 2000 How do people with the label of learning difficulties challenge disabling environments What role can professionals play in supporting such challenges How do self advocacy groups contribute to disability politics and the development of theories of disability This timely book sets out to answer these questions for students teachers and practitioners working in the field It examines self advocacy in the lives of people with learning difficulties The term learning difficulties is used to describe people who have been labelled at some point in their lives as requiring specialist mental handicap services Learning difficulties is preferred over other synonyms such as mental handicap mental impairment or learning disabilities because it is the term preferred by many in the self advocacy movement the focus of this book Hitherto a number of books have introduced and examined the notion of self advocacy This volume goes beyond these studies to offer an appraisal of self advocacy in the lives of people with learning difficulties that is grounded in their own experiences It redresses the dominant focus on learning difficulties as pathology or tragedy highlighting the ways in which people so labelled are fighting for their own human rights in a disabling society through their involvement in self advocacy groups It outlines a number of lessons for supporters policy makers professionals and service providers in relation to the resilience of self advocates with learning difficulties and gives examples of good practice

Exploring Experiences of Advocacy by People with Learning Disabilities Rohhss Chapman, Duncan Mitchell, Nigel Ingham, Sue Ledger, Rannveig Traustadottir, 2006-05-15 This book charts the course through which people with learning disabilities have become increasingly able to direct their own lives as fully active members of their communities Many of the personal accounts photographs and songs included in this book will be accessible and encouraging to people with learning disabilities

Learning Disability Grant, Gordon, Ramcharan, Paul, Flynn, Margaret, 2010-05-01 Learning Disability uses a life cycle approach to show how those with learning disabilities can be helped most at different stages in their lives

Disability Through the Life Course Tamar Heller, Sarah Parker Harris, 2012 The SAGE Reference Series on Disability is a cross disciplinary and issues based series incorporating links from varied fields that make up Disability Studies This volume tackles issues relating to disability through the life course

Disability, Culture and Identity Sheila Riddell, Nick Watson, 2014-06-11 Disabilities Culture and Identity is a succinct and accessible presentation of current research on disability culture and identity It is an ideal text for students and lecturers alike studying and working in the areas of Disability Studies and Social Policy Disabilities Culture and Identity provides a comprehensive and well structured introduction to an area of growing importance The authors provide up to date and extensive coverage of the development of thinking on cultures of disability including those relating to people with learning difficulties people with mental health problems and people with learning difficulties Also covered in detail are critical areas in disability studies including Development of the social model of disability Disability and the politics of social justice Disability and theories of culture and media Disability ethnicity and generation The policy options for empowering disabled people and how the disabled are empowering themselves The disability arts movement Media treatment of disability Experiences of Special Education Derrick Armstrong, 2003-12-16 This is a refreshing book which examines the stories of those people who have received SEN provision Funded by the ESRC it explores the wider issues of Special Education and defines its future role Rights in Practice for People with a Learning Disability Liz Tilly, Jan Walmsley, 2023-12-29 This book aims to raise awareness about the possibility of achieving the goals of the United Nations Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities UNCRPD in order for all disabled people to enjoy the benefit of human rights The stories of people who have been supported to enjoy their rights and their citizenship will enable readers to focus on how services and support can enable people with a learning disability to have their rights upheld with an outcome of citizenship independence and achievement Despite the UNCRPD being in place since 2006 a significant number of learning disability service provider organisations and professionals in the UK are not aware of its existence This book aims to bridge the gap between policy and practice to demonstrate the value of a human rights approach as the foundation for services and support for people with a learning disability Key Concepts in Learning Disabilities Pat Talbot, 2010-03-03 This is a handy guide to the topics you need to know about whether studying or working in the field of learning disabilities The A Z format allows you to dip in and quickly find relevant information on topics ranging from Autism to Rights and from Advocacy to Challenging Behaviors Social Work with People with Learning Difficulties Paul Williams, Michelle Evans, 2013-04-15 Part of the Transforming Social Work Practice series this title intends to support students on the social work degree It seeks to confirm and strengthen social work values and principles so that the progress and successes achieved by Valuing People can continue Understanding and Promoting Access for People with Learning Difficulties Jane Seale, Melanie Nind, 2009-09-10 The issue of access is at the forefront of the practical challenges facing people with learning difficulties and people working with or supporting them This engaging text brings together evidence narratives and discussions that question and advance our understanding of the concept of access for people with learning difficulties Seale and Nind draw on their expertise to analyse a wide range of situations including access to public spaces citizenship education community participation and employment Through a series of related chapters key researchers in the field of inclusion and learning difficulties enrich the access debate by considering what kind of access people with learning difficulties want identifying effective practice in relation to facilitating and promoting access revealing the capability of people with learning difficulties to seek and achieve access to potentially exclusionary communities providing a space for a wide range of people to share access stories With contributions from a variety of stakeholders including people with learning difficulties Understanding and Promoting Access for People with Learning Difficulties clarifies the concept of access without over simplifying what is involved Through rigorous critique this book provides a unique rationale for a new multi dimensional model of access and ways of promoting it Proposing a reconceptualisation of the risk associated with promoting access for people with learning difficulties this book will be of immense interest to students researchers and professionals involved in inclusion and disability issues
