Selling School Budgets In Hard Times:

Selling School Budgets in Hard Times William Goldstein, 1984 Financial planning for education is a difficult task as schools struggle for a share of diminishing tax resources The presentation of school budgets for voter approval must be done as effectively as possible When presenting budgets administrators should take into account that the public has a low tolerance for detail budgets are boring a well informed public is more positive presentation materials should be attractive and brief support groups are needed and the media should be used wisely The most important component of the process is the presentation of the budget support material Fifteen suggestions for presenting budget proposals to the public are provided The printed budget should be attractive be self explanatory answer the public s questions use graphics and easily understood tables and use clear uncluttered prose The author provides an example of a bird s eye budget that is easy to read understandable and inexpensively produced A checklist for assessing a school s budget presentation is provided Selling budgets in difficult times is hard work that takes careful planning and thorough understanding of demographics social climate and financial capabilities MD Resources in education ,1985-03 New England Journal of Education Thomas Williams Bicknell, Albert Edward Winship, Anson Wood Belding, 1879 Effective Schools Research Arthur W. Steller, 1988 This booklet presents the concept of school effectiveness the factors associated with effectiveness and supporting research Six factors of school effectiveness are discussed 1 strong instructional leadership by the principal 2 clear instructional focus 3 high expectations and standards 4 safe and orderly climate 5 frequent monitoring of student achievement and 6 active parent involvement Included is a chapter on the current debate surrounding the effective schools movement Fifty four references are included SI Journal of Rural Education ,1923 The Journal of Rural Education ,1923 Religion and the Schools Eugene T. Connors, 1988 This fastback examines the U S Supreme Court decisions and a few lower court decisions concerning religion and education rendered in the 1980s and for background purposes it also includes some decisions prior to the 1980s The first of four parts discusses cases pertaining to prayer and religious activities in school Included in the discussion are cases concerning moment of silence posting the Ten Commandments school clubs and the Equal Access Act religious holidays and holiday observances Christmas pageants and other seasonal observances and prayers during school functions The second part discusses cases involving aid to parochial schools Litigation involving shared time programs and Chapter I services is discussed along with tax deductions for education expenses The third part addresses religion in the curriculum reviewing cases on religious objections to compulsory school attendance creationism and evolution using the Bible in the school curriculum teachers rights to refuse to teach objectionable material and textbooks and secular humanism A list of cases is appended TE Journal of Education ,1883 The Journal of Education Thomas Williams Bicknell, Albert Edward Winship, Anson Wood Belding, 1928 Public Relations Inquiry as Rhetorical Criticism William N. Elwood, 1995-06-30 Whether politically socially economically or psychologically postmodern institutions attempt to influence their environments through the use of rhetoric in their public relations campaigns As corporations increasingly dominate the public discourse we experience daily it becomes increasingly important to understand how that discourse operates and to become more informed creators and consumers of institutional rhetoric This volume examines the theoretical bases and practical effects of a variety of public relations campaigns The contributors demonstrate that rhetorical inquiry is a viable and underrated approach to explaining the influence of public relations campaigns Cases analyzed in the book range from those of national scope e g Mobil Oil s Observations campaign of the 1970s and 1980s to studies of targeted influence e g corporate recruitment videos to cases of internal relations e g issues management during corporate mergers to studies of local situations e g the anatomy of a local ballot issue campaign While the various contributors employ a broad range of rhetorical methods and analysis the discussions remain approachable and understandable for students and professionals alike
