Models Of Efficient Reading Ira Series On The Development Of The Reading Process:

Models of Efficient Reading Karen M. Cohen, Richard Fuller West, George Marsh, 1978 Annual Report International Reading Association, 1978 Library of Congress Catalogs Library of Congress, 1980 Reading and Understanding Joseph H. Danks, Kathy Pezdek, 1980 This monograph the sixth in a series on the development of the reading process is concerned with the development of reading comprehension In the first chapter Comprehension in Listening and Reading Same or Different Joseph H Danks analyzes the evidence for the proposition that the comprehension processes for language in print and language in speech are the same and for the contrary proposition that there are significant differences in the understanding of the message in print and speech In the second chapter Arguments for a Constructive Approach to Comprehension and Memory Kathy Pezdek reviews pertinent research literature on comprehension from the constructive memory approach to the issue She makes a case for the proposition that the meaning of a sentence is not simply the sum of the separate meanings of the individual words and that sentence comprehension is in a very real sense the determiner of the words of the sentence She also reviews factors of constructive memory that influence reading comprehension MKM

Monographic Series Library of Congress, 1979 Language Awareness and Reading Lynn H. Waterhouse, Karen M. Fischer, Ellen Bouchard Ryan, 1980 Reading Research Into the Year 2000 Anne P. Sweet, Judith I. Anderson, 2013-12-16 Through the years research on reading has made enormous contributions to helping us understand how students learn to read and how teachers can best instruct them Research continues to add to our fundamental knowledge of reading in significant ways thus adding more pieces to the puzzle for example finding answers to how students learn content in other school subjects through reading and what strategies teachers can use to help their students do this more effectively Reading Research into the Year 2000 describes the dynamic process that the Department of Education engages in to plan and execute a reading research agenda It was written to inform a wide ranging public those who will benefit directly or indirectly from reading research findings including those who use research applications as well as those who conduct the research Moreover it was written to make public the process of establishing a national R D Center Few people outside the Department of Education are aware of the procedures that are undertaken The editors believe that if more people are in the know they will be more likely to participate in the entire process from generating research ideas to submitting applications and that this greater participation is essential if we are to garner divergent thinking about how to solve critical education research issues They have made a significant step toward breaking down barriers to full participation and paved the way for greater involvement of non traditional players in competing for a national R D Center award
