Models In Process A Rhetoric And Reader:

Models in Process William J. Kelly, 1988-01-01 Models in Process William Jude Kelly, 1988 Theoretical Models and Processes of Literacy Donna E. Alvermann, Norman J. Unrau, Misty Sailors, Robert B. Ruddell, 2018-10-03 The Seventh Edition of this foundational text represents the most comprehensive source available for connecting multiple and diverse theories to literacy research broadly defined and features both cutting edge and classic contributions from top scholars Two decades into the 21st century the Seventh Edition finds itself at a crossroads and differs from its predecessors in three major ways the more encompassing term literacy replaces reading in the title to reflect sweeping changes in how readers and writers communicate in a digital era the focus is on conceptual essays rather than a mix of essays and research reports in earlier volumes and most notably contemporary literacy models and processes enhance and extend earlier theories of reading and writing Providing a tapestry of models and theories that have informed literacy research and instruction over the years this volume's strong historical grounding serves as a springboard from which new perspectives are presented The chapters in this volume have been selected to inspire the interrogation of literacy theory and to foster its further evolution This edition is a landmark volume in which dynamic dialogic and generative relations of power speak directly to the present generation of literacy theorists and researchers without losing the historical contexts that preceded them Some additional archival essays from previous editions are available on the book's eResource New to the Seventh Edition Features chapters on emerging and contemporary theories that connect directly to issues of power and contrasts new models against more established counterparts New chapters reflect sweeping changes in how readers and writers communicate in a digital era Slimmer volume is complemented by some chapters from previous editions available online Models in Process William Jude Kelly, 1988 Organizational Rhetoric Mary F. Hoffman, Debra J. Ford, 2010 Organizational Rhetoric introduces students to a rhetorical approach to understanding analyzing and creating organizational messages for both internal employees and external customers This textbook provides students a theoretically grounded understanding of the basic building blocks of organizational rhetoric the types of rhetorical situations faced by organizational communicators and the specific strategies used to address six common organizational rhetorical situations such as image management Students will gain an understanding of the power of organizations in contemporary society and be able to think critically about organizational messages The text is organized in two units In the first unit authors Mary Hoffman and Debra Ford introduce the rationale for a rhetorical approach to organizational messages and introduce the basic rhetorical building blocks and principles behind the rhetorical situation and the analysis of strategies In the second unit the authors cover six specific rhetorical situations commonly faced by organizations image and identity management issue management impression management risk management crisis management and organizational apologetics and internal message management Each chapter is structured similarly in conjunction with the ideas developed in unit one and each ends with a case study that exemplifies the content presented in that chapter Features and Benefits The first unit in the text will introduce the details of analyzing situations and identifying strategies The second unit will examine six specific recurring rhetorical situations for organizations Organizational schema centered on situations and strategies Use of real life case studies Focus on careers in organizational rhetoric Focus on thinking critically about organizations in society

Chinese Rhetoric and Writing Andy Kirkpatrick,Zhichang Xu,2012-03-07 Andy Kirkpatrick and and Zhichang Xu offer a response to the argument that Chinese students academic writing in English is influenced by culturally nuanced rhetorical baggage that is uniquely Chinese and hard to eradicate Noting that this argument draws from an essentially monolingual and Anglo centric view of writing they point out that the rapid growth in the use of English worldwide calls for a radical reassessment of what English is in today s world The result is a book that provides teachers of writing and in particular those involved in the teaching of English academic writing to Chinese students an introduction to key stages in the development of Chinese rhetoric a wide ranging field with a history of several thousand years Understanding this important rhetorical tradition provides a strong foundation for assessing and responding to the writing of this growing group of students

Critical Data Storytelling in the Composition Classroom Angela Laflen,2025-08-15 Critical Data Storytelling in the Composition Classroom provides a timely and essential framework for integrating data literacy into multimodal composition pedagogy Angela Laflen demonstrates that in an era dominated by big data and AI the need to understand how to work with data is no longer limited to scientists and mathematicians Instead data literacy has become a crucial skill for participating in democratic society At the heart of Laflen s approach is critical data storytelling a practice that equips students with the skills to understand interpret and ethically communicate with and about data through various multimodal formats By teaching students to make informed decisions as data storytellers Laflen addresses the ethical implications of working with data while offering practical strategies for reading and analyzing data stories This approach empowers both students and teachers to engage critically with data as a tool for learning and communication It also highlights how multimodal composition has yet to fully account for the central role of data in shaping contemporary communication and argumentation By focusing on the ethical and rhetorical dimensions of data storytelling Critical Data Storytelling in the Composition Classroom presents a pedagogical approach that prepares students for the challenges of working with data in a rapidly evolving digital landscape This flexible adaptable model for teaching critical data literacy is of great interest to writing instructors scholars in rhetoric and composition and educators who seek to prepare students for the demands of a data driven world

Transmedia Narratives for Cultural Heritage Nicole Basaraba,2022-04-21 Transmedia Narratives for Cultural Heritage focuses on theoretical approaches to the analysis and creative practice of developing non fiction digital transmedia narratives in the rapidly growing cultural heritage sector This book applies a media focused transdisciplinary approach to understand the conventions of emerging digital narrative genres Considering digital media s impact on narrative creation and reception the approach namely remixed transmedia can aid practitioners in creating strategic non fiction narratives for cultural heritage These creations also need to be evaluated and a digital media focused ludonarrative toolkit allows for the critical analysis of the composition and public participation in interactive digital narratives This toolkit is applied and exemplified in genres including virtual museums serious games and interactive documentaries The book also includes a seven phase theoretical framework that can assist future creators and project managers of non fiction transmedia mothership narratives and a methodology based on big data analysis for how to invent new cultural heritage narratives through bottom up remixing that allows for public inclusion Two transnational case studies on the 11 UNESCO World Heritage Australian Convict Sites and the Irish National Famine Way demonstrate the seven phase framework s applicability As many scholars across disciplines are increasingly creating digital narratives on historical topics for public consumption in various forms the theoretical foundations and practical project management framework will be useful for scholars and project teams in the domains of transmedia studies interactive narratives cultural heritage media studies comparative literature and journalism

Rhetoric's Questions, Reading and Interpretation

Peter Mack, 2017-08-20 This book aims to help readers interpret and reflect on their reading more effectively It presents doctrines of ancient and renaissance rhetoric an education in how to write well as questions or categories for interpreting one s reading The first chapter presents the questions Later chapters use rhetorical theory to bring out the implications of and suggest possible answers to the questions about occasion and audience chapter 2 structure and disposition 3 narrative 4 argument 5 further elements of content such as descriptions comparisons proverbs and moral axioms dialogue and examples 6 and style 7 Chapter eight describes ways of gathering material formulating arguments and writing about the texts one reads The conclusion considers the wider implications of taking a rhetorical approach to reading The investigation of rhetoric s questions is interspersed with analyses of texts by Chaucer Sidney Shakespeare Fielding and Rushdie using the questions The text is intended for university students of literature especially English literature and rhetoric and their teachers
