Modern Architecture and Expressionism Dennis Sharp, 1966 Expressionist Architecture Wolfgang Pehnt, 1973

Modern Architecture Henry-Russell Hitchcock, 1929 Contemporary Architecture Marta Tobolczyk, 2021-07-05

This book offers an exciting journey into the most recent architectural achievements seen in their complexity and plurality and described in the most objective and truthful way The development of contemporary architecture is presented as it commenced more than a century ago as it tried to reconcile democratic ideals with the forces of the Industrial Era In contrast to many books on the modern day art of building the development of architecture is not described chronologically here but rather independently for each selective architectural trend This allows a better explanation of some evolutionary processes and the continuity of each trend Thanks to such an approach this book will serve as a convenient tutorial for courses on history of contemporary architecture in all art and architectural schools Modern Architecture Since 1900

William J. R. Curtis, 1987 First published in 1982 Curtis's book has quickly achieved recognition as the standard work on the subject providing a lucid and accurate overview of modern architecture and a balanced critique of its achievements This second edition includes a new chapter on recent world architecture Expressionist Architecture Wolfgang Pehnt, Edith Küstner, 1973

The Early Sketches of German Architect Erich Mendelsohn (1887-1953) Hans Rudolf Morgenthaler, Erich Mendelsohn, 1992 Erich Mendelsohn was considered one of the most successful modern architects in Germany during the 1920s This volume contains a catalogue of his early sketches It establishes a chronological sequence of the sketches and furnishes a clear explanation of his creative background A detailed evaluation of his relationship to the Blue Rider group supplies a source for his Expressionist intentions and design theory Mendelsohn's own statements from papers and letters are also examined Modern Architecture Alan Colquhoun, 2002-04-25 This new account of international modernism explores the complex motivations behind this revolutionary movement and assesses its triumphs and failures The work of the main architects of the movement such as Frank Lloyd Wright Adolf Loos Le Corbusier and Mies van der Rohe is re-examined shedding new light on their roles as acknowledged masters Alan Colquhoun explores the evolution of the movement from Art Nouveau in the 1890s to the megastructures of the 1960s revealing the often contradictory demands of form function social engagement modernity and tradition A World History of Architecture Marian Moffett, Michael W. Fazio, Lawrence

Wodehouse, 2003 The Roman architect and engineer Vitruvius declared firmitas utilitas and venustas firmness commodity and delight to be the three essential attributes of architecture These qualities are brilliantly explored in this book which uniquely comprises both a detailed survey of Western architecture including Pre-Columbian America and an introduction to architecture from the Middle East India Russia China and Japan The text encourages readers to examine closely the pragmatic innovative and aesthetic attributes of buildings and to imagine how these would have been praised or criticized by contemporary observers Artistic economic environmental political social and technological contexts are discussed so as to
