Great Powers, Small Wars Larisa Deriglazova, 2020-03-03 A sophisticated appraisal of the problem of asymmetric conflict in the post World War II period In a sophisticated combination of quantitative research and two in depth case studies Larisa Deriglazova surveys armed conflicts post World War II in which one power is much stronger than the other She then focuses on the experiences of British decolonization after World War II and the United States in the 2003 Iraq war Great Powers Small Wars employs several large databases to identify basic characteristics and variables of wars between enemies of disproportionate power Case studies examine the economics domestic politics and international factors that ultimately shaped military events more than military capacity and strategy

Security Sector Reform in Conflict-Affected Countries Mark Sedra, 2016-11-03 This book examines the evolution impact and future prospects of the Security Sector Reform SSR model in conflict affected countries in the context of the wider debate over the liberal peace project Since its emergence as a concept in the late 1990s SSR has represented a paradigm shift in security assistance from the realist regime centric train and equip approach of the Cold War to a new liberal holistic and people centred model The rapid rise of this model however belied its rather meagre impact on the ground This book critically examines the concept and its record of achievement over the past two decades putting it into the broader context of peace building and state building theory and practice It focuses attention on the most common celebrated and complex setting for SSR conflict affected environments and comparatively examines the application and impacts of donor supported SSR programming in a series of conflict affected countries over the past two decades including Afghanistan Sierra Leone the Democratic Republic of Congo East Timor and Bosnia Herzegovina The broader aim of the book is to better understand how the contemporary SSR model has coalesced over the past two decades and become mainstreamed in international development and security policy and practice This provides a solid foundation to investigate the reasons for the poor performance of the model and to assess its prospects for the future This book will be of much interest to students of international security peacebuilding statebuilding development studies and IR in general
