Modern art from post-impressionism to the present Sam Hunter, John Jacobus, 1976      Imagining the Future of the Museum of Modern Art Museum of Modern Art (New York, N.Y.), 1998 Edited by John Elderfield Introduction by Glenn D Lowry      Modern Art Sam Hunter, John M. Jacobus, 1977*      The Evolution of Contemporary Arts Markets Andrés Solimano, 2021-09-30 The Evolution of Contemporary Arts Markets looks at the historical evolution of the art market from the 15th century to the present day Art is both an expression of human creativity and an object of economic value and financial refuge at times of economic turbulence Historically the art market evolved with the development of capitalism finance and technical change and art schools responded to social events such as wars revolutions and waves of democratization The author discusses the main features of modern art markets such as complexity in art valuation globalism segmentation financialization indivisibility liquidity and provenance issues The book studies the impact of wealth inequality and economic cycles and crises on the art market and features a chapter focusing specifically on the art market in China This accessible publication is ideal for a broad interdisciplinary audience including those involved in the economic and financial fields as well as art lovers art market participants and social and cultural scholars      Russian and Soviet Views of Modern Western Art, 1890s to Mid-1930s Ilia Dorontchenkov, 2009-06-10 From the first Modernist exhibitions in the late 1890s to the Soviet rupture with the West in the mid 1930s Russian artists and writers came into wide contact with modern European art and ideas Introducing a wealth of little known material set in an illuminating interpretive context this sourcebook presents Russian and Soviet views of Western art during this critical period of cultural transformation The writings document complex responses to these works and ideas before the Russians lost contact with them almost entirely Many of these writings have been unavailable to foreign readers and until recently were not widely known even to Russian scholars Both an important reference and a valuable resource for classrooms the book includes an introductory essay and shorter introductions to the individual sections      The American Magazine of Art , 1925      Merchants Record and Show Window , 1928      Artwork , 1927      Painting and Sculpture in Europe, 1880-1940 George Heard Hamilton, 1993-01-01 This new edition of a book that offers the best available grounding in its huge subject as the Sunday Times called it includes color plates and a revised and expanded bibliography Professor Hamilton traces the origins and growth of modern art assessing the intrinsic qualities of individual works and describing the social forces in play The result is an authoritative guide through the forest of artistic labels Impressionism and Expressionism Symbolism Cubism Constructivism Surrealism etc and to the achievements of Degas and Cezanne Ensor and Munch Matisse and Kandinsky Picasso Braque and Epstein Mondrian Dali Modigliani Utrillo and Chagall Klee Henry Moore and many other artists in a revolutionary age      Christian Education and the Emerging Church Rev. Dr. Wendi Sargeant, 2015-07-24 All signs point to Christian education having lost its theological location and prominence in the life of the Western Protestant church The Emerging Church movement as an intentionally postmodern approach to ministry in the contemporary context may however offer insights to reinterpret Christian education This significant movement in today s church gives Christian education a new interpretive framework that is theologically located at an intersection of doxology and doctrine In her examination of postmodern faith formation Wendi Sargeant explores the importance of the Christian worshipping community as the most appropriate setting for Christian education Practitioners and students will benefit from the ready to use teaching and learning matrix and all those with interest in the formation of faith in themselves and others will draw much from the way Sargeant situates worship as the basis for enhancing Christian formation and ethos
