Modern Chinese Poetry An Introduction 1972:

Twentieth-century Chinese Women's Poetry: An Anthology Julia C. Lin, 2014-12-18 Chinese women's writing is rich and abundant although not well known in the West. Despite the brutal wars and political upheavals that ravaged twentieth century China, the ranks of women in the literary world increased dramatically. This anthology introduces English language readers to a comprehensive selection of Chinese women poets from both the mainland and Taiwan. It spans the early 1920s and the era of Republican China's literary renaissance through the end of the twentieth century. The collection includes 245 poems by forty poets in elegant English translations as well as an extensive introduction that surveys the history of contemporary Chinese women's poetry. Brief biographical head notes introduce each poet from Bin Xin, China's preeminent woman poet in the early Republican period to Rongzi, a leading poet of modern Taiwan. The selections are startling, moving, and wide ranging in mood and tone. Together they present an enticing palette of delightful, elegant, playful, lyric, and tragic poetry.

A Selective Guide to Chinese Literature, 1900-1949 Nils Göran David Malmqvist, European Science Foundation, 1988

Modern Chinese Writers Helmut Martin, Jeffrey C. Kinkley, 2016-09-16 This volume gathers personal reflections on life and literature by 44 of China's leading authors. It aims to illustrate how Chinese society and its creative writing have supported, competed, and fought with each other for the past 40 years and more. Much of what is revealed here is mundane, but the pressure of bringing art to social and political causes, indeed the universal pressure to survive, forges this collection into a very human document. The strengths and weaknesses of these essays offer a window on those of modern Chinese literature itself. Realism was the favoured literary doctrine of the day, and reflecting this, most of these essays speak for themselves about war, revolution, betrayal, and commitment.
