Modern Confessional Writing New Critical Essays:

Modern Confessional Writing Jo Gill, 2006-03-29 A comprehensive and scholarly account of this popular and influential genre the essays in this collection explore confessional literature from the mid twentieth century to the present day and include the writing of John Berryman Anne Sexton Ted Hughes and Helen Fielding Drawing on a wide range of examples the contributors to this volume evaluate and critique conventional readings of confessionalism Orthodox humanist notions of the literary act of confession and its assumed relationship to truth authority and subjectivity are challenged and in their place a range of new critical perspectives and practices are adopted Modern Confessional Writing develops and tests new theoretically informed views on what confessional writing is how it functions and what it means to both writer and reader When read from these new perspectives modern confessional writing is liberated from the misconception that it provides a kind of easy authorial release and readerly catharsis and is instead read as a discursive self reflexive sophisticated and demanding genre

Modern Confessional Writing Jo Gill, 2006 This collection of essays provides a critique of the popular and powerful genre of confessional writing Contributors discuss a range of poetry prose and drama including the work of John Berryman Anne Sexton Ted Hughes and Helen Fielding

The Limits of Life Writing David McCooey, Maria Takolander, 2019-12-18 In the age of social media life writing is ubiquitous But if life writing is now almost universal engaged with on our phones reported in our news the generator of capital no less then what are the limits of life writing Where does it begin and end Do we live in a culture of life writing that has no limits Life writing as both a practice and a scholarly discipline is itself markedly concerned with limits the limits of literature of genres of history of social protocols of personal experience and forms of identity and of memory By attending to limits border cases hybridity generic complexities formal ambiguities and extra literary expressions of life writing The Limits of Life Writing offers new insights into the nature of auto biographical writing in contemporary culture The contributions to this book deal with subjects and forms of life writing that test the limits of identity and the tradition of life writing The liminal case studies explored include magical realist fiction graphic memoir confessional poetry and personal blogs They also explore the ethical limits of representation found in Holocaust life writing the importance of ficto critical memoir as a form of resistance for trans writers and the use of postmemoir to navigate the traumas of diasporic experience In addition The Limits of Life Writing goes beyond the conventional limits of life writing scholarship to consider how writers themselves experience limits in the creation of life writing offering a work of life writing that is itself concerned with charting the limits of auto biographical expression This book was originally published as a special issue of Life Writing

The Cambridge Companion to The Essay Kara Wittman, Evan Kindley, 2022-11-03 The book studies the history and theory of the essay and its social political and aesthetic contexts

Africa Writing Europe Maria Olaussen, Christina Angelfors, 2009 Africa Writing Europe offers critical readings of the meaning and presence of Europe in a variety of African literary texts Authors discussed include Leila Aboulela

Tatamkhulu Afrika Alice Solomon Bowen Ken Bugul and Tayeb Salih Compelling Confessions Suzanne Diamond, 2010-12-10 Compelling Confessions The Politics of Personal Disclosure is a collection of essays whose shared purpose is to offer an accessible interdisciplinary exploration of the social dynamics behind confessional discourse As various contributors to this collection demonstrate confession is ubiquitous in contemporary culture not only within psychological or therapeutic frameworks or literary analysis but also in internet discussion groups in the criminal justice system in political rhetoric in so called reality and interview style television programming in writing pedagogy and increasingly in the testimonial strain observable in contemporary scholarship Yet telling one's story raises questions not only about authorial intent or authenticity but also about the pressures disclosure can impose upon its audiences Far less ubiquitous than confessions themselves as these contributors suggest are the critical tools that general audiences might employ in order to better evaluate the rhetoric of personal disclosure It is in fact the shortage of such tools responses and procedures that could be stated plainly and implemented by any reader or viewer that Compelling Confessions sets out to address Interrogating Trauma Mick Broderick, Antonio Traverso, 2013-09-27 Throughout the past century traumatic experiences have been re enacted frequently by evolving media and art forms Now there is a significant body of theory across academic disciplines focused on the representation of cataclysmic European and US historical events However less critical attention has been devoted to the representation of havoc outside the West even though depictions of Third World disasters saturate contemporary media and art around the globe This book considers traumatic histories internationally in a broad range of creative arts and visual media representations Deploying diverse applications of the conventional theories of trauma it examines the theoretical limitations at the same time as considering alternative methodologies Interrogating Trauma is concerned with the examination of the concept of trauma and how it is often unproblematically used to theorise the cultural representation of disaster and atrocity It offers a theorisation of trauma in order to reappraise the relationship between cultural representation and the socio historical processes which are marked by violence conflict and suffering This book was published as a special issue of Continuum Journal of Media and Cultural Studies Dear World Kylie Cardell, 2014-12-03 Recent radical changes have altered the form and functions of the diary from the confession diaries of reality television how to diaries and graphic diaries to the published diaries of war correspondents the urgent personal writing of Arab women under conflict and the daily online postings of sex bloggers The Page is Printed Carrie Smith, 2021-09-15 Does it matter when and where a poem was written Or on what kind of paper How do the author's ideas about inspiration or how a poem should be written precondition the moment of putting pen to paper This monograph explores these questions in offering the first full length study of Ted Hughes's poetic process Hughes's extensive archives held in the UK and US form the basis of the book's unique exploration of his writing process It analyses Hughes's techniques throughout his career arguing that his self conscious experimentation with the processes by which he wrote profoundly affected both the style and subject matter of his work The book considers Hughes s changing ideas about how poetry ought to be written discussing how these affect his creative process It presents a fresh exploration of Hughes s major collections across the span of his career to build a detailed illustration of how his writing methods altered The book thus restores the materiality of paper and ink to Hughes s poems reading their histories the stories they tell of their composition and of the intellectual and creative environments in which they were gestated born and matured In the process it offers a template for new approaches in authorship studies reframing one of the twentieth century s most iconic literary figures through the unseen histories of his creative process Sylvia

Plath Paul Mitchell,2011-11-28 Sylvia Plath es una de las poetas m s conocidas y controvertidas del siglo XX Desde su muerte en 1963 el debate cr tico sobre su obra ha sido animado y en ocasiones incluso hostil Esta obra ilustra c mo leer a Plath desde una perspectiva alternativa utilizando la teor a de Julia Kristeva sobre el lenguaje pol tico y que permite una apreciaci n de los poemas que va m s all de lo biogr fico al hacer nfasis en cambio en los textos de ese modo se engrana con la primera persona como una herramienta heur stica compleja e inestable Al explorar los poemas en t rminos de su trascendencia en lugar de centrarse exclusivamente en su significado explora la manera en la que la obra de Plath produce una crisis de subjetividad oratoria y a partir de ah emerge la naturaleza revolucionaria de la voz po tica
