Widening the World of International Relations Ersel Aydinli, Gonca Biltekin, 2018-07-11 Current international relations IR theories and approaches which are almost exclusively built in the West are alien to the non Western contexts that engender the most hard pressing problems of the world and ultimately unhelpful in understanding or addressing the needs surrounding these issues Our supposedly revolutionary new concepts and approaches remain largely insufficient in explaining what happens globally and in offering lessons for improvement This deficiency can only be addressed by building more relevant theories For theory to be relevant in accounting for contemporary international relations we argue it should not only apply to but also emanate from different corners of the current political universe In other words diversity and dialogue can only come about when periphery scholars do not just meta theorize but also theorize Aydinli and Biltekin propose a new form of theorizing through this collection of work one that effectively blends peripheral outlooks with theory production They call this form homegrown theorizing or original theorizing in the periphery about the periphery Arguing that disciplinary culture is oblivious to the diversity that might be achieved by theorizing based on indigenous ideas and or practices this book intends to highlight that potential showing diversity in the background of the authors because wherever one looks at the world from paints the picture that is being seen Therefore we bring together scholars from Eastern Europe to South Africa from Iran to Japan to cover the extant diversity in ideas This work will be essential reading for all students and scholars concerned with the future of international relations theory The Frederick Douglass Papers Frederick Douglass, 2021-01-01 The journalism and personal writings of the great American abolitionist and reformer Frederick Douglass Launching the fourth series of The Frederick Douglass Papers designed to introduce readers to the broadest range of Frederick Douglass's writing this volume contains sixty seven pieces by Douglass including articles written for North American Review and the New York Independent as well as unpublished poems book transcriptions and travel diaries Spanning from the 1840s to the 1890s the documents reproduced in this volume demonstrate how Douglass's writing evolved over the five decades of his public life Where his writing for publication was concerned mostly with antislavery advocacy his unpublished works give readers a glimpse into his religious and personal reflections The writings are organized chronologically and accompanied by annotations offering biographical information as well as explanations of events mentioned and literary or historical allusions Politics, Social Theory, Utopia and the World-System C.

el-Ojeili, 2012-01-25 It is common to hear that we live in unique turbulent and crisis ridden times and this turbulence transformation and crisis are said to be deeply significant perhaps threatening for the human sciences Responding to such claims this book provides an accessible engagement with pressing contemporary topics such as violence social movements equality identity and democracy Foregrounding the imagination of possibilities utopia the mapping of the present theory and the transformation of the world system historical and global questions the book surveys central issues and paradigms in contemporary political sociology urging a recommitment to certain concepts and traditions for guidance in thinking and acting in the world The Utopian Constellation Chamsy el-Ojeili, 2019-11-18 This book examines the utopian dimension of contemporary social and political thought Arguing for a utopian optic for the human sciences el Ojeili claims that major transformations of the utopian constellation have occurred since the end of the twentieth century Following a survey of major utopian shifts in the modern period el Ojeili focuses on three spaces within today's utopian constellation At the liberal centre we see a splintering effect particularly after the global financial crisis of 2008 a contingent neo liberalism a neo Keynesian turn and a liberalism of fear At the far Right margin we see the consolidation of post fascism a combination of the future in the past elements of the post modern present and appeals to a novel future Finally at the far Left a new communism has emerged with novel positions on resistance maps of power and a contemporary variant of the Left's artistic critique The Utopian Constellation will be of interest to scholars and students across the human sciences with an interest in utopian studies ideological and discourse analysis the sociology of knowledge and the study of political culture Announcement for Autumn ... Lewis Institute of Arts and Sciences, 1929
