Court Cultures in the Muslim World Albrecht Fuess, Jan-Peter Hartung, 2014-06-03 Courts and the complex phenomenon of the courtly society have received intensified interest in academic research over recent decades however the field of Islamic court culture has so far been overlooked This book provides a comparative perspective on the history of courtly culture in Muslim societies from the earliest times to the nineteenth century and presents an extensive collection of images of courtly life and architecture within the Muslim realm The thematic methodology employed by the contributors underlines their interdisciplinary and comprehensive approach to issues of politics and patronage from across the Islamic world stretching from Cordoba to India Themes range from the religious legitimacy of Muslim rulers terminologies for court culture in Oriental languages Muslim concepts of space for royal representation accessibility of rulers the role of royal patronage for Muslim scholars and artists to the growing influence of European courts as role models from the eighteenth century onwards Discussing specific terminologies for courts in Oriental languages and explaining them to the non specialist chapters describe the specific features of Muslim courts and point towards future research areas As such it fills this important gap in the existing literature in the areas of Islamic history religion and Islam in particular

The Arabian Nights in Contemporary World Cultures Muhsin J. al-Musawi, 2021-08-26 The stories in the Thousand and One Nights or the Arabian Nights are familiar to many of us from the tales of Aladdin Sinbad the Sailor Ali Baba and his forty thieves to the framing story of Scheherazade telling these stories to her homicidal husband Shahrayar This book offers a rich and wide ranging analysis of the power of this collection of tales that penetrates so many cultures and appeals to such a variety of predilections and tastes It also explores areas that were left untouched like the decolonization of the Arabian Nights and its archaeologies Unique in its excavation into inroads of perception and reception Muhsin J al Musawi s book unearths means of connection with common publics and learned societies Al Musawi shows as never before how the Arabian Nights has been translated appropriated and authenticated or abused over time and how its reach is so expansive as to draw the attention of poets painters illustrators translators editors musicians political scientists like Leo Strauss and novelists like Michel Butor James Joyce and Marcel Proust amongst others Making use of documentaries films paintings novels and novellas poetry digital forums and political jargon this book offers nuanced understanding of the perennial charm and power of this collection An Anthropology of Contemporary Art Thomas Fillitz, Paul van der Grijp, 2020-05-15 Drawing on the exciting developments that have occurred in the anthropology of art over the last twenty years this study uses ethnographic methods to explore shifts in the art market and global contemporary art Recognizing that the huge diversity of global phenomena requires research on the ground An Anthropology of Contemporary Art examines the local art markets biennials networks of collectors curators artists patrons auction houses and museums that constitute the global art world Divided into four parts Picture and Medium World Art Studies and Global Art Art Markets Maecenas and Collectors Participatory Art and Collaboration chapters go beyond the standard emphasis on Europe and North America to present first hand fieldwork from a wide range of areas including Brazil Turkey and Asia and the Pacific With contributions from distinguished anthropologists such as Philippe Descola and Roger Sansi Roca this book provides a fresh approach to key topics in the discipline A model for demonstrating how contemporary art can be studied ethnographically this is a vital read for students in anthropology of art visual anthropology visual culture and related fields Circulations in the Global History of Art Thomas DaCosta Kaufmann, Catherine Dossin, Béatrice Joyeux-Prunel, 2016-03-03 The project of global art history calls for balanced treatment of artifacts and a unified approach This volume emphasizes questions of transcultural encounters and exchanges as circulations It presents a strategy that highlights the processes and connections among cultures and also responds to the dynamics at work in the current globalized art world The editors introduction provides an account of the historical background to this approach to global art history stresses the inseparable bond of theory and practice and suggests a revaluation of materialist historicism as an underlying premise Individual contributions to the book provide an overview of current reflection and research on issues of circulation in relation to global art history and the globalization of art past and present They offer a variety of methods and approaches to the treatment of different periods regions and objects surveying both questions of historiography and methodology and presenting individual case studies An Afterword by James Elkins gives a critique of the present project The book thus deliberately leaves discussion open inviting future responses to the large questions it poses History of Modern Art H. Harvard Arnason, 2004 Arnason's History of Modern Art remains the definitive source of information on the art of the modern era from Modernism's mid nineteenth century European beginnings to today's divergent art trends Now full color throughout this Fifth Edition contains new headings subheadings and a glossary to help the reader navigate the material and quickly identify areas of interest The entire text has been carefully edited for greater clarity narrative coherence and scholarly currency Jacket A World Art History and Its Objects , Ambiguity in Contemporary Art and Theory Frauke Berndt, Lutz Koepnick, 2018-04-06 It has become commonplace to associate art and aesthetic experience with the category of ambiguity Indeed when we talk about art we cannot do without the dynamic force of ambiguity just as the aesthetic itself cannot do without it The great efforts to disambiguate aesthetic practices and their associated theories and contexts would eliminate art s unique ability to reshape our knowledge of the world our sensory encounters with it and our moral or political positions in it The essays collected in this volume present different perspectives on this central category and develop interdisciplinary connections Contributors include Frauke Berndt Joy H Calico Stephan Kammer Lutz Koepnick Verena Krieger Richard Langston Rachel Mader Lily Tonger Erk Gabriel Trop and Thomas Wortmann
