Creating Identity in the Victorian Fictional Autobiography Heidi L. Pennington,2018-04-30 This is the first book length study of the fictional autobiography a subgenre that is at once widely recognizable and rarely examined as a literary form with its own history and dynamics of interpretation Heidi L Pennington shows that the narrative form and genre expectations associated with the fictional autobiography in the Victorian period engages readers in a sustained meditation on the fictional processes that construct selfhood both in and beyond the text Through close readings of Jane Eyre David Copperfield and other well known examples of the subgenre Pennington shows how the Victorian fictional autobiography subtly but persistently illustrates that all identities are fictions Despite the subgenre s radical implications regarding the nature of personal identity fictional autobiographies were popular in their own time and continue to inspire devotion in readers This study sheds new light on what makes this subgenre so compelling up to and including in the present historical moment of precipitous social and technological change As we continue to grapple with the existential question of what determines who we really are this book explores the risks and rewards of embracing conscious acts of fictional self production in an unstable world

Hollywood Sex Comedies, 1953-1964 Hal Erickson,2024-06-27 The Hollywood sex comedy a feature length film in which sex motivates the storyline and the laughs are triggered by sexual situations came into its own with the 1953 release of the once controversial The Moon Is Blue That film received very positive critical and audience response despite being denied a seal of approval from the Production Code Administration and receiving a Condemned rating from the Legion of Decency These two formidable watchdog agencies would continue to be challenged and audiences would continue to be convulsed by the abundance of sex comedies still to come The present informal survey focuses on 25 selected examples of the genre released between 1953 and 1964 Along with such familiar works as The Seven Year Itch The Tender Trap Pillow Talk and Kiss Me Stupid several lesser known sex comedies like I Married a Woman The Tunnel of Love Happy Anniversary and Period of Adjustment are documented analyzed and placed in context with their times Some are masterpieces others mildly amusing and a few downright awful but all are fascinating artifacts of a bygone era in popular entertainment The Second Season of Growth Craig Childress Johnson,2017-03-10 Advice given when buying plants or trees is Don t expect any blooms the first year Fruit trees may require three years I planted a slim brown stick in my yard and got nothing the first year except a thin brown stick with a few leaves on it During its second season of growth and beyond that brown stick grew to 7 inches in diameter and now produces wondrous 20 foot pink clouds each spring In an ideal world we learn lessons the first time around So often as with daffodils and cherry trees we need more time to get it Winter incendiary summer a few storms and unexpected late frost toughen us giving us confidence to face whatever life has for us We can then bloom where we are planted We often don t have choices about challenges life gives us but we have free will in deciding how to respond to them We can embrace the One who gives Wisdom to live life abundantly May these vignettes inspire you to find pearls of learning and wisdom to be harvested from the depths of your own life
