Caesarea David Ben Yochanan, 2001-10-28 The epic story of three young people in first century Israel who find the Holy Ark of the Covenant and hide it during the Roman Invasion of AD70 The story is at once a romance novel a spy thriller and an easy to read history and sociology of their times Characters include six Roman emperors particularly Claudius and Nero as well as the generals who support them and their women Included are fascinating insights into the minds of Nero and the Jewish leaders of their time You ll live through the Fire of Rome the destruction of the Temple the siege at Masada and the Vesuvius eruption Central to the theme of the book is the Aqueduct at Caesarea on the Mediterranean Coast and particularly its eighteenth arch Looking unto Jesus, as carrying on the great work of man's salvation, or A view of the everlasting Gospel I. I Am Peter Daniel J. Casieri, 2022-03-09 Wearied by trial and persecution an aging Apostle Peter awaits his execution in a Roman dungeon in Jerusalem Like his Savior before him he was arrested during the Passover feast days He was apprehended with fellow Apostle James who was summarily executed by Herod Agrippa I Peter is spared so that Agrippa may make a public spectacle of this successor to Jesus of Nazareth Peter suffers alone until he is attended by a surprise guest a Roman physician and scribe who calls himself Luke It is Luke s mission to complete a narrative of the life of Christ And so he is desperate for a personal interview with Christ s most eminent apostle Assuming these to be the final moments of his life he readily complies The miraculous tale is well known to most especially those to whom the Gospel has been preached Peter s personal touch however fills in portions of the story that are as yet unwritten His excursion is full of surprises Meanwhile a handful of praying disciples gathered at the family home of Peter s son by faith John Mark are pleading for his release They
