World History Helen Buss Mitchell, Joseph Mitchell, Buss Mitchell Helen, 2004-08. This book follows the periodization of the Western world beginning with Exploration and Colonization, continuing through the Enlightenment and Industrial Scientific Revolutions, examining the hot and cold wars of the Twentieth Century, and ending with Global Problems, Global Interdependence. Within this narrative of Western progress, one can find responses to imperialism, resistance to expansionism, and the slave trade. Women emerge as citizens and even rulers. China's decision to abandon its exploration of the world, as well as its competence in mechanization and mass production, offers a parallel narrative to Europe's embracing of this path. And the book concludes with a survey of challenging new problems: atomic, nuclear, and chemical weapons; the so-called population bomb; religious zealotry and terrorism; and the largely unpredictable results of globalization. To the reader.
