Community-Based Art Education Across the Lifespan Pamela Harris Lawton, Margaret A. Walker, Melissa Green, 2019-07-19 This book is a comprehensive introduction to the theory and practice of Community Based Art Education CBAE CBAE encourages learners to make connections between their art education in a classroom setting and its application in the community beyond school with demonstrable examples of how the arts impact responsible citizenship Written by and for visual art educators this resource offers guidance on how to thoughtfully and successfully execute CBAE in the pre K 12 classroom and with adult learners taking a broad view towards intergenerational art learning Chapters include vignettes exemplars of practice curriculum examples that incorporate the National Coalition for Core Arts Standards and research frameworks for developing implementing and assessing CBAE projects This is the book I have been waiting for carefully researched thought provoking and inspiring Lily Yeh Barefoot Artists Inc A practical guide for community based art education that is theoretically grounded in social justice Insightful suggestions for working with communities planning creating transformative learning and evaluating outcomes are based in the authors deep experience This book is a timely and welcome volume that will be indispensable to individuals and community organizations working in the arts for positive change Elizabeth Garber professor emeritus University of Arizona

Philosophical Questions in Art Education Dorit Barchana-Lorand, 2025-08-21 This book examines the rationale of incorporating the arts in the school curriculum from a philosophical rather than pedagogical perspective Educational resources are frequently under scrutiny and education policy makers wish to maximize the use of public funds and children's time at school leaving the arts as a lower priority To understand the logic behind this Lorand revisits milestones in the history of the philosophy of art to address core questions in art education namely what are the challenges of teaching the arts And why teach the arts at all Lorand draws on the work of a broad range of philosophers including Dewey Eisner Greene Hume Plato Kant Langer Read and Schiller The book aims to show how attempts to justify art as a tool for societal and individual improvement fail in advocating art education Ultimately she claims that the arts should be taught because children have the right to receive art education That right stems from the unique nature of art

Critical Literacy as Resistance Laraine Wallowitz, 2008 Critical Literacy as Resistance is a collaborate effort among secondary and university educators from across the United States that addresses questions such as What does a critical literacy classroom look like What various texts are used What strategies do teachers use to encourage students and teacher candidates to recognize how texts construct power and privilege How do educators inspire activism in and out of the classroom This book documents the experiences of scholars and teachers who have successfully bridged theory and practice by applying critical literacy into their respective content areas The authors spell out the difference between critical thinking and critical literacy then show how to write and implement curriculum that incorporates diverse texts and multiple literacies in all content areas including world language and includes the voices of students as they confront issues of race class gender and power The principles and practices laid out here will help teachers use literacy to liberate and empower students both in and outside the classroom by respecting and studying the literacies students bring to school while simultaneously teaching and challenging the literacies of those in power This is a book for pre and in service teachers in all content areas staff developers secondary literacy specialists university professors and anyone interested in social justice

Rethinking Language Arts Nina Zaragoza, 2013-12-02 In Rethinking Language Arts Passion and Practice Second Edition author Nina Zaragoza uses the form of letters to her students to engage pre service teachers in reevaluating teaching practices thus bringing to life a vision of an alternative classroom environment in which the teacher is the prime mover and creative leader Zaragoza discusses and explains the need for teachers to be decision makers reflective thinkers political beings and agents of social change in order to create a positive and inclusive classroom setting This book is both a critical text that deconstructs the way language arts are traditionally taught in our schools as well as a visionary text with clear no nonsense directions on how to provide much needed change in our schools

Art for Children Experiencing Psychological Trauma Adrienne D. Hunter, Donalyn Heise, Beverley H. Johns, 2018-04-17 Art for Children Experiencing Psychological Trauma aims to increase understanding of art's potential to enhance learning for children living in crisis In this ground breaking resource the first of its kind to focus specifically on the connection between art education and psychological trauma in youth populations readers can find resources and practical strategies for both teachers and other school based professionals Also included are successful models of art education for diverse populations with specific attention to youth who face emotional mental behavioral and physical challenges as well a framework for meaningful visual arts education for at risk in crisis populations

Handbook for Achieving Gender Equity Through Education Susan S. Klein, Barbara Richardson, Dolores A. Grayson, Lynn H. Fox, Cheris Kramarae, Diane S. Pollard, Carol Anne Dwyer, 2014-05-22 First published in 1985 the Handbook for Achieving Gender Equity Through Education quickly established itself as the essential reference work concerning gender equity in education This new expanded edition provides a 20 year retrospective of the field one that has the great advantage of documenting U S national data on the gains and losses in the efforts to advance gender equality through policies such as Title IX the landmark federal law prohibiting sex discrimination in education equity programs and research Key features include Expertise Like its predecessor over 200 expert authors and reviewers provide accurate consensus research based information on the nature of gender equity challenges and what is needed to meet them at all levels of education Content Area Focus The analysis of gender equity within specific curriculum areas has been expanded from 6 to 10 chapters including mathematics science and engineering Global Diversity Focus Global gender equity is addressed in a separate chapter as well as in numerous other chapters The expanded section on gender equity strategies for diverse populations contains seven chapters on African Americans Latina os Asian and Pacific Island Americans American Indians gifted students students with disabilities and lesbian gay bisexual and transgender students Action Oriented All chapters contain practical recommendations for making education activities and outcomes more gender equitable A final chapter consolidates individual chapter recommendations for educators policymakers and researchers to achieve gender equity in and through education New Material Expanded from 25 to 31 chapters this new edition includes more emphasis on male gender equity and on sexuality issues special within population gender equity challenges race ability and disability etc coeducation and single sex education increased use of rigorous research strategies such as meta analysis showing more sex similarities and fewer sex differences and of evaluations of implementation programs technology and gender equity is now treated in three chapters women s and gender studies communication skills relating to English bilingual and foreign language learning and history and implementation of Title IX and other federal and state policies Since there is so much misleading information about gender equity and education this Handbook will be essential for anyone who wants accurate research based information on controversial gender equity issues journalists policy makers teachers Title IX coordinators equity trainers women s and gender study faculty students and parents
