

Writing Across the Curriculum Overview

The philosophies underlying these programs generally agree on certain basic principles:

- that writing is the responsibility of the entire academic community.
- that writing must be integrated across departmental boundaries.
- that writing instruction must be continuous during all years of post-secondary education.
- that writing promotes learning
- that only by practicing the conventions of an academic discipline will students begin to communicate effectively within that discipline

(WAC Clearinghouse, "Basic Principles of WAC", 1992).

Real Writing Across The Curriculum:

Landmark Essays on Writing Across the Curriculum Charles Bazerman, David R. Russell, 2020-11-25 Rhetoric as a general teaching while preaching locality of action and guidelines for handling that locality has tended from the beginning to serve as a universality It has offered a generalized techne with only limited categories appropriate for all discursive situations at least for those that were not excluded from the realm of rhetoric Nonetheless from its beginnings rhetoric limited its interests to certain activity fields such as law government religion and most important the educators of leaders in these activity fields This collection presents landmarks showing where the Writing Across the Curriculum WAC and Writing in the Disciplines WID movements have gone They have opened up a number of prospects that were impossible to see when rhetoric and composition confined their gaze to relatively few discursive activities This suggests that the rhetorical landscape is becoming more complex and interesting as well as more responsive to life in the complex differentiated societies that have emerged in the last few centuries This volume will reveal to scholars and researchers a range of possibilities for the study of disciplinary discourse and its teaching and suggest to them new prospects for the future and for the better

The New Work of Writing Across the Curriculum Staci M. Perryman-Clark, 2023-08-21 The New Work of Writing Across the Curriculum is a descriptive analysis of how institutions can work to foster stronger intellectual activities around writing as connected to campus wide diversity and inclusion initiatives Author Staci M Perryman Clark blends theory and practice grounds disciplinary conversations with practical examples of campus work and provides realistic expectations for operations with budgetary constraints while enhancing diversity equity and inclusion work in higher education Many of these initiatives are created in isolation reinforcing institutional silos that are not used strategically to gain the attention of senior administrators particularly those working at state supported public institutions who must manage shrinking institutional budgets Yet teaching and learning centers and WAC programs gain tremendously from one another by building explicit partnerships on campus wide diversity initiatives that emphasize cultural competence In addition both cultural competence and written proficiency enhance the transferable skills necessary for completing undergraduate education requirements and this work can be leveraged to draw the attention of senior administrative leadership Faculty development and WAC need to make diversity and inclusion initiatives a priority for professional development The New Work of Writing Across the Curriculum reviews initiatives that point to increased understanding of diversity and inclusion that will be of significance to administrators WAC specialists faculty developers and diversity officers across the spectrum of institutions of higher learning

Introducing Writing Across the Curriculum into China Dan Wu, 2012-09-19 Dr Wu Dan's Introducing Writing Across the Curriculum into China is an important and provocative research study that is broadly international in scope Of particular significance for education in China this book provides a historical analysis of writing instruction in China and an original application of activity theory used to analyze problems and possibilities for Writing Across the Curriculum WAC in higher education Through an examination of important aspects of WAC as it has developed in the United States Dr Wu Dan brings together various perspectives in support of developing and sustaining WAC programs in China and by analogy throughout the world Her work opens new avenues for research in writing and for the teaching of courses throughout the curriculum using a writing in the disciplines approach A major contribution to international WAC scholarship Introducing Writing Across the Curriculum into China will be invaluable to English faculty and to all readers interested in educational innovations in China

Citizenship Across the Curriculum Michael B. Smith, Rebecca S. Nowacek, Jeffrey L. Bernstein, 2010-05-03 Citizenship Across the Curriculum advocates the teaching of civic engagement at the college level in a wide range of disciplines and courses Using writing across the curriculum programs as a model the contributors propose a similar approach to civic education In case studies drawn from political science and history as well as mathematics the natural sciences rhetoric and communication studies the contributors provide models for incorporating civic learning and evaluating pedagogical effectiveness By encouraging faculty to gather evidence and reflect on their teaching practice and their students learning this volume contributes to the growing field of the scholarship of teaching and learning The Wonder of Writing Across the Curriculum Art Young, 1994

Creative Writing Across the Curriculum Justin Nicholes, 2022-11-02 Situated among fields applied linguistics creative writing studies writing studies this book empirically explores the language of writers in contexts of learning externalized in literary genres At its core this book features linguistic and thematic analysis of the writing and reflections of adults who experienced what they usually described as meaningful CW in university coursework sometimes in science and research focused courses where they might not have expected to compose a literary genre In addition to synthesizing empirical studies that in total included more than 3 500 participants chapters present new research involving about 400 more This book is meant to be substantial in its goal of systematically organizing what is known about CW's relationship to writers in terms of feelings of engagement gains in content knowledge and revelations about oneself and others

Writing Across Distances and Disciplines Joyce Magnotto Neff, Carl Whithaus, 2009-03-04 Writing Across Distances and Disciplines addresses questions that cross borders between onsite hybrid and distributed learning environments between higher education and the workplace and between distance education and composition pedagogy This groundbreaking volume raises critical issues clarifies key terms reviews history and theory analyzes current research reconsiders pedagogy explores specific applications of WAC and WID in distributed environments and considers what business and education might teach one another about writing and learning Exploring the intersection of writing across the curriculum composition studies and distance learning it provides an in depth look at issues of importance to students faculty and administrators regarding the technological future of writing and learning in higher education Writing Across the Curriculum Stephen Brown,2006-07-10 The Harcourt Brace Guide to Writing Across the Curriculum Christopher J. Thaiss,1998 Resources in Education ,2001-10 The WPA Outcomes Statement—A Decade Later Nicholas N. Behm,Gregory R. Hafer,2014-09-29 Embracing WRITING Embracing Writing responds to the writing across the curriculum movement in a way that enables educators to integrate writing into their courses not just painlessly but productively instead of simply increasing their workloads with writing assignments that students dislike Embracing Writing elucidates the principles of academic writing and shows instructors how to integrate writing with course content blending them to enhance and deepen the higher education learning process Scholarly writing is a central part of the academic experience and when used effectively can be an outstanding pedagogical tool The creative approach in Embracing Writing will have you looking at writing in a whole new way Not only will your students appreciate the honest nurturing and fun writing assignments but your own writing will improve as well This is not a rulebook for writers but a guided approach to viewing writing and content as one indivisible whole Embracing Writing will help you Engage students in writing assignments that actually help them develop their writing ability Understand what makes good collegiate writing and how it can aid in content discovery Discover new pathways for your own writing so writing for publication and the classroom is enjoyable again Develop a writing pedagogy that doesn't detract from core course content delivery There often is a disconnect between administrative demands for in course writing and the inadequate training resources available to faculty members Because most of us aren't trained as writers we need a meaningful way to connect writing to our areas of expertise Embracing Writing provides that connection Writing Across the Curriculum Shelley S. Peterson, 2008-08-08 As the amount of curriculum in today's classrooms expands and teaching time seems to shrink teachers are looking for ways to integrate content area and writing instruction In this revised and expanded edition of Writing Across the Curriculum Shelley Peterson shows teachers how to weave writing and content area instruction together in their classrooms The author provides practical and helpful ideas for classroom teachers and content area specialists to easily incorporate writer's workshop while teaching in their subject area New features in this second edition include Websites that can be used to teach writing e.g. wiki's weblogs and digital storytelling Examples from grades 4-8 classrooms that show how science social studies health and mathematics teachers can also be teachers of poetry narrative and non narrative writing New assessment scoring guides Information on working with struggling writers and supporting English Language Learners Graphic organizers templates and mini lessons that engage students in learning

Rhetorical Strategies and Genre Conventions in Literary Studies

Laura Wilder, 2012-05-31 Laura Wilder fills a gap in the scholarship on writing in the disciplines and writing across the curriculum with this thorough study of the intersections between scholarly literary criticism and undergraduate writing in introductory literature courses Rhetorical Strategies and Genre Conventions in Literary Studies is the first examination of rhetorical practice in the research and teaching of literary study and a detailed assessment of the ethics and efficacy of explicit instruction in the rhetorical strategies and genre conventions of the discipline Using rhetorical analysis ethnographic observation and individual interviews Wilder demonstrates how rhetorical conventions play a central although largely tacit role in the teaching of literature and the evaluation of student writing Wilder follows a group of literature majors and details their experiences Some students received experimental explicit instruction in the special topoi while others received more traditional implicit instruction Arguing explicit instruction in disciplinary conventions has the potential to help underprepared students Wilder explores how this kind of instruction may be incorporated into literature courses without being overly reductive Taking into consideration student perspectives Wilder makes a bold case for expanding the focus of research in writing in the disciplines and writing across the curriculum in order to grasp the full complexity of disciplinary discourse Foundations of Braille Literacy Evelyn J. Rex, 1994 This ground breaking text addresses the teaching of braille reading and writing in the context of general literacy Employing theoretical frameworks and approaches to teaching print reading and writing and practical applications for instruction in braille literacy this innovative book can be used both in university training programs and by practicing educators working with braille learners Foundations of Braille Literacy also includes perspectives on literacy the history of literacy for people who are blind the learning processes of people who are blind and assessment of braille literacy Programs that Work Toby Fulwiler, Art Young, 1990 This book describes in detail successful writing across the curriculum programs at fourteen colleges and universities in the United States Each chapter is written by a team of participating instructors many representing disciplines other than English
