Reality Of Linguistic Rules:

The Reality of Linguistic Rules Susan D. Lima, Roberta Corrigan, Gregory K. Iverson, 1994-11-24 This volume presents a selection of the best papers from the 21st Annual University of Wisconsin Milwaukee Linguistics Symposium Researchers from linguistics psychology computer science and philosophy using many different methods and focusing on many different facts of language addressed the question of the existence of linguistic rules Are such rules best seen as convenient tools for the description of languages or are rules actually invoked by individual language users Perhaps the most serious challenge to date to the linguistic rule is the development of connectionist architecture Indeed these systems must be viewed as a serious challenge to the foundations of all of contemporary linguistics Four broad themes emerged from the Milwaukee conference corresponding to the four parts of the volume Part I centers on arguments for the existence of symbolic rules in linguistic competence and performance Part II contains arguments against symbolic rules presenting connectionist models and other alternatives to the symbolic paradigm Parts III and IV take up two issues that are central to a number of language researchers Language acquisition and learnability and modularity These issues are addressed from within both rule based and non rule based perspectives Contributors Farrell Ackerman Michael Barlow Catherine Best David Corina Roberta Corrigan Kim Daugherty Bruce Derwing Jeff Elman Alice Faber John Goldsmith Helen Goodluck Neil Jacobs Richard Janda Brian Joseph Michael Kac Alan Kawamoto Suzanne Kemmer Susan Lima Brian MacWhinney Steven Pinker Alan Prince Gerald Sanders Hinrich Schutze Mark Seidenberg Royal Skousen Nicholas Sobin Joseph Stemberger Gregory Stone Ann Thyme Robert Van Valin Ignorance of Language Michael Devitt, 2006-04-27 What is linguistics about What role should linguistic intuitions play in constructing grammars What is innate about language Arguing that linguistics is about linguistic reality and is not part of psychology this book offers answers to these questions It is intended for those working on language and the mind The Doctrine of Atonement Jack D. Kilcrease, 2018-03-22 Post Enlightenment theology has frequently rejected the historic Christian doctrine of substitutionary atonement For theologians standing in the tradition of the Lutheran Confessions rejection of substitutionary atonement is particularly problematic because it endangers the unconditional nature of the justification through faith If one rejects vicarious satisfaction then the only alternative is to make redemption dependent on what sinners do for themselves In this study Jack Kilcrease argues for substitutionary atonement within the perspective of what he calls the Confessional Lutheran Paradigm The author also critiques a wide variety of modern Lutheran theologians understandings of atonement Werner Elert Gustaf Aul n Gustaf Wingren Robert Jenson Eberhard J ngel Wolfhart Pannenberg and Gerhard Forde As Kilcrease demonstrates although these authors often give many fine theological insights their distortion or misrepresentation of the doctrine of atonement carries over to a problematic understanding of law gospel and justification through faith Chris Langan's Major Papers 1989-2020 Christopher M. Menkiti on Community and Becoming a Person Edwin Etieyibo, Polycarp Ikuenobe, 2020-07-24

Ifeanyi Menkiti's articulation of an African conception of personhood especially in Person and Community in African Traditional Thought has become very influential in African philosophy. Menkiti on Community and Becoming a Person contributes to the debate in African philosophy on personhood by engaging with various aspects of Menkiti's account of person and community. The contributors examine this account in relation to themes such as individualism, communalism, rights, individual liberty, moral agency, communal ethics, education, state and nation building, elderhood and ancestorhood. Through these themes, this book edited by Edwin Etieyibo and Polycarp Ikuenobe shows that Menkiti's account of personhood in the context of community is both fundamental and foundational to epistemological, metaphysical, logical, ethical, legal, social and political issues in African thought systems.

Normativity, Meaning and Philosophy: Essays on Wittgenstein Hans-Johann Glock, 2024-04-09

This is a collection of essays on Wittgenstein and Wittgensteinian themes that appeared between 1996 and 2019. It is divided into three parts with a common trajectory laid out in a substantial introduction. The first part links meaning, necessity and normativity. It defends and modifies Wittgenstein's claim that the idea of a grammatical rule holds the key to understanding linguistic meaning and its connection to necessary truth. The second part elucidates the connections between meaning, concepts and thought in Wittgenstein and beyond. It shows how he laid the grounds for a sound understanding of four contested issues: radical interpretation, concepts, nonsense and animal minds. The third part provides a qualified defence of Wittgenstein's controversial idea that philosophical problems are conceptual and thereby rooted in confusions concerning the meanings of and semantic relations between linguistic expressions. Against irrationalist interpretations, it demonstrates that Wittgenstein's method is argumentative rather than therapeutic. The collection as a whole makes a powerful case for an analytic perspective on Wittgenstein. The essays bring out the abiding relevance of Wittgenstein's reflections to contemporary debates on central topics such as the role of normativity, the foundations of linguistic meaning, the nature of concepts, the possibility of animal thought and the proper methods of philosophy.

Existentialist Engagement in Wallace, Eggers and Foer Allard den Dulk, 2016-06-30 The novels of David Foster Wallace Dave Eggers and Jonathan Safran Foer are increasingly regarded as representing a new trend an aesthetic sea change in contemporary American literature Post postmodernism and New Sincerity are just two of the labels that have been attached to this trend But what do these labels mean What characterizes and connects these novels Den Dulk shows that the connection between these works lies in their shared philosophical dimension On the one hand they portray excessive self reflection and endless irony as the two main problems of contemporary Western life On the other hand the novels embody an attempt to overcome these problems sincerity reality commitment and community are portrayed as the virtues needed to achieve a meaningful life This shared philosophical dimension is analyzed by viewing the novels in light of the existentialist philosophies of S ren Kierkegaard Jean Paul Sartre Ludwig Wittgenstein and Albert Camus

Theology and the Public Daniel D. Shin,2018-11-28 Hans W Frei s groundbreaking achievement in theological hermeneutics Christology and theological method has made possible new alternatives in contemporary theology and has become a key impetus to the emergence of postliberal theology also known as the Yale School Much discussion has taken place since the publication of The Eclipse of Biblical Narrative in 1974 and his work continues to generate intense debate among his proponents critics and sympathetic observers One of the key questions in this conversation is whether Frei s work signals a sectarian flight from the public world at large to a private enclave in the intratextual world of biblical narrative Unfortunately his critics have misinterpreted his thought and failed to recognize that the notion of the public is a pivotal feature of his theology Therefore the aim of this book is to debunk common misunderstandings of his project by showing that Frei maintains a sustained and robust commitment to the public world This book demonstrates the public character of Frei s thought by examining the major foci of his work theological hermeneutics Christology ecclesiology and theological method It begins with an introductory chapter on postliberal theology with special attention to the criticism of sectarianism followed by a study of Frei s constructive proposals in relation to the church society and academy
