Global Governance, Human Rights and International Law Errol P. Mendes, 2014-02-05 This book offers a stimulating introduction to the links between areas of global governance human rights global economy and international law By drawing on a range of diverse subject areas Errol P Mendes argues that the foundations of global governance human rights and international law are undermined by a conflict or tragic flaw where insistence on absolute conceptions of state sovereignty are pitted against universally accepted principles of justice and human rights resulting in destructive self interest for both the state and the global community The book explores how human rights and international law are applied in some of the critical institutions of global governance and in the operations of the global private sector and how States institutions and global civil society struggle to fight this tragic flaw The book is brought up to date by considering developments in the role of the IMF the World Bank bilateral investment treaties the likely failure of the Doha round of WTO negotiations the legacy of the 2008 financial crisis and the role of the International Criminal Court and the evolving Responsibility to Protect doctrine in international peace and security crises in the Middle East Central and West Africa among other regions of the world With its intensely interdisciplinary approach this book motivates new thinking in the realm of global governance and international law and promotes the development of new strategies for negotiating between conflicting leadership and organisational values within global institutions The book will be of great interest and use to students and researchers of public international law international relations and political science business and human rights global governance and international trade and economic law Navigating the Tension

Between Sovereignty and Self-Determination in Postcolonial Africa Philip C. Aka,2024-01-16 This book addresses the unique challenges faced by Africa regarding peaceful self determination Unlike other regions Africa has seen limited success in nonviolent self determination campaigns Since 1989 only three African nations Namibia Eritrea and South Sudan have joined the UN after enduring prolonged and violent struggles for independence In a world characterized by constant change border alterations typically require armed conflicts in postcolonial Africa In response to this disconcerting trend the book offers pragmatic blueprints for achieving peace emphasizing constitutional approaches to navigate the delicate balance between sovereignty and self determination The work delves into the complexities of five self determination struggles spanning three African countries providing valuable insights into the challenges faced It distils six critical lessons from these case studies and presents fourteen blueprint proposals tailored to address the unique dynamics of postcolonial Africa where reconciling sovereignty and self determination remains a pressing concern Philosophical Dimensions of Human Rights

Claudio Corradetti,2011-10-29 This book presents a unique collection of the most relevant perspectives in contemporary human rights philosophy Different intellectual traditions are brought together to explore some of the core postmodern issues challenging standard justifications Widely accessible also to non experts contributions aim at opening new perspectives on the state of the art of the philosophy of human rights This makes this book particularly suitable to human rights experts as well as master and doctoral students Further while conceived in a uniform and homogeneous way the book is internally organized around three central themes an introduction to theories of rights and their relation to values a set of contributions presenting some of the most influential contemporary strategies and finally a number of articles evaluating those empirical challenges springing from the implementation of human rights This specific set up of the book provides readers with a stimulating presentation of a growing and interconnecting number of problems that post natural law theories face today While most of the contributions are new and specifically conceived for the present occasion the volume includes also some recently published influential essays on rights democracy and their political implementation Human Rights in

Nigeria's External Relations in the Age of General Muhammadu Buhari and His Successors Philip C.

Aka,2024-07-17 Under the Fourth Republic since 1999 the challenge Nigerian leaders face like never before is how to create a state that matches the expectations of their diverse peoples at home and abroad Taking this proposition as starting point this book advances proposals for a human right policy referred to alternately in the work as principled foreign policy for Nigeria under the Fourth Republic taking advantage of the inestimable opportunity afforded by General Muhammadu Buhari

s departure from the political scene on May 29 2023 after the famine domestically and externally wrought by his two terms of office as President It is a broad ranging argument draped in the less arcane constitutional vocabulary and material of human rights for thoroughgoing reforms at home and abroad as the only antidote to the nation building dilemmas Nigeria confronts in the first quarter of the twenty first century Buhari s departure marks the end of military teleguidance of Nigerian politics under the Fourth Republic in the camouflage of democratic rule a birthmark of remote control dating back to the first military intervention in the country in January 1966 These momentous events within Nigeria coincide with equally epoch making developments in the UK Nigeria s former colonial overlord with ripple effects in Nigeria signified by the death of Queen Elizabeth II after seven decades on the throne and the emergence of Prince Charles as King of England A new monarch in Britain adds to the opportunity that falls open for the reconfiguration of Nigeria s external relations with ramifications for the application of human rights in those relations Despite its known disabilities Nigeria has the potential infrastructure including its sizable population to conduct a human right policy if its leaders rationalize the country s resources more wisely Law and Humanities Helle Porsdam,2019-04-11 Promoting cultural and scientific creativity and knowledge and understanding cultural rights work as atrocity prevention tools and enable people to aspire to a better future

The Content and Context of Hate Speech Michael Herz,Peter Molnar,2012-04-09 The contributors to this volume consider whether it is possible to establish carefully tailored hate speech policies that are cognizant of the varying traditions histories and values of different countries Throughout there is a strong comparative emphasis with examples and authors drawn from around the world All the authors explore whether or when different cultural and historical settings justify different substantive rules given that such cultural relativism can be used to justify content based restrictions and so endanger freedom of expression Essays address the following questions among others is hate speech in fact so dangerous or harmful to vulnerable minorities or communities as to justify a lower standard of constitutional protection What harms and benefits accrue from laws that criminalize hate speech in particular contexts Are there circumstances in which everyone would agree that hate speech should be criminally punished What lessons can be learned from international case law An Insider's Guide to the UN Linda M. Fasulo,2004-01-01 A guide to the United Nations covers such topics as its history organization finances and operations around the world Fidel Castro and Africa's Liberation Struggle Sabella Ogbobode Abidde,Charity Manyeruke,2020-10-01 The post 1959 Cuban government s engagement with Africa which was led by its charismatic and revolutionary leader Fidel Castro had two connecting dimensions military internationalism and humanitarian internationalism While African states and societies benefited immensely from these engagements it was Fidel Castro s military assistance towards the decolonization of and the pushback of Apartheid South Africa that received the loudest attention and ovation in the developing world Fidel Castro this book argues was never motivated by economic selfish or geopolitical considerations but rather by the altruism and the certainty of his worldview and by the historical connection between the peoples of Cuba and Africa The principle of international solidary socialism and the emancipation of Africa was a much desired aspiration and attainment Beginning covertly in Algeria in 1961 and the Congo and Guinea Bissau in 1964 and more conspicuously in Angola in 1975 Fidel Castro and his socialist government was at the forefront supporting liberation movements in their struggle against colonialism Defining Castro s engagement with Africa was his support for the People s Movement for the Liberation of Angola MPLA against the United States backed Apartheid South Africa which supported the National Liberation Front of Angola FNLA and the National Union for the Total Independence of Angola UNITA

Human Rights Education and the Politics of Knowledge Joanne Coysh,2017-02-24 Around the world there are a myriad of NGOs using human rights education HRE as a tool of community empowerment with the firm belief that it will help people improve their lives One way of understanding these processes is that they translate universal human rights speak using messages and symbols which make them relevant to people s daily lives and culturally resonant However an alternative more radical perspective is that these processes should engage individuals in modes of critical inquiry into the ways that that existing power structures maintain the status quo and control not only how we understand and speak about social inequality and injustice but also act on it This book is a critical inquiry into the production distribution and consumption of HRE and how the discourse is constructed historically socially and politically through global institutions and local NGO practice The book begins with the premise that HRE is composed of theories of human rights and education both of which are complex and multifaceted However the book demonstrates how over time a dominant discourse of HRE constructed by the United Nations institutional framework has come to prominence and the ways it is reproduced and reinforced through the practice of intermediary NGOs engaged in HRE activities with community groups Drawing on socio legal scholarship it offers a new theoretical and political framework for addressing how human rights pedagogy knowledge and power can be analysed between the global and local by connecting the critical but well trodden theories of human rights to insights on critical pedagogy It uses critical discourse analysis and ethnographic research to investigate the practice of NGOs engaged in HRE using contextual evidence and findings from fieldwork with NGOs and communities in Tanzania

The Ethics of Foreign Policy David B. MacDonald,Robert G. Patman,2016-03-23 This ground breaking volume considers the ethical aspects of foreign policy change through five interrelated dimensions conceptual security economic normative and diplomatic Defining ethics and what an ethical foreign policy should be is highly contested The book includes many very different viewpoints to reflect the strong divergence of opinion on such issues as humanitarian intervention free trade the doctrine of preemption political corruption and human rights The thematic approach provides this volume with a clear organizational structure giving readers a balanced overview of a number of important conceptual and practical issues central to the ethical analysis of states conduct and foreign policy making An impressive group of international scholars and practitioners including a New Zealand Foreign Minister a US National Security Advisor and an ICJ Justice makes this volume ideally suited to courses on international relations security studies ethics and human rights philosophy media studies and international law The Past Can't Heal Us Lea David,2020-07-16 Lea David exposes the dangers and pitfalls of mandating memory in the name of human rights in conflict and post conflict settings Our Last Best Hope -President John F. Kennedy M. James Wilkinson,2007-12 As America tries to deal with the consequences of its misfired Iraq expedition and the host of other challenges lurking in a murky future this book will sharpen our thoughts on the uses and misuses of the UN and where it fits into Washington policies The authors suggest an approach and specific policy elements that merit serious attention even as they make clear they do not expect the UN will be any kind of panacea Morton Abramowitz Senior Fellow at The Century Foundation By the same authors The Third Try can the UN work Published in Australia by Scribe Books in 2005 The Third Try was selected for the short list of a prestigious New South Wales Literary Prize The German translation by Dr Michael Haupt was released in 2006 by Parthas Verlag in Berlin from Third Try Australian reviews a brilliant analysis of an often maligned organization that pledged international kinship and is struggling to reinvent itself to stand for something meaningful An extremely significant book that is sure to rouse the public from its slumber Five stars Tony O Loughlin Australian Bookseller Publisher October 2005 written for the lay reader and is set out in a clear straightforward style Its accessible manner makes welcome reading when facing such a daunting subject Chris Saliba WebDiary Bosnia as Civic State and Global Citizen Philip C. Aka,2021-11-22 For long the narrative in constitutional law public policy and statecraft is that Bosnia must join the EU as a matter of economic development and nation building This book introduces another dimension to the narrative oversights without which the story remains one dimensional rather than balanced That missing element in the literature this study integrates is a reformed Bosnian state along the lines proposed in this book that operates outside the EU The setting of the work within the fields of knowledge of comparative constitutional law and public choice theory provides added value to the reader including students scholars policy makers and lay persons The Interrelation between the Right to Identity of Minorities and their Socio-economic Participation Kristin Henrard,2013-01-08 This edited volume sets out to unravel various dimensions of a particular topical question pertaining to minorities and minority protection which has not been explored yet more particularly the socio economic participation of minorities in relation to their right to respect for identity This interrelation and interaction is studied from a multi disciplinary perspective spanning a broad range of disciplines while drawing on a rich variety of case studies covering various corners of the world This interrelation manifests itself in distinctive ways for religious minorities ethnic minorities and indigenous peoples As it is impossible to provide a comprehensive coverage this volume aims to offer a range of articles that reveal the breadth of the theme under review while combining theoretical analysis with fascinating case studies Christianity, Globalization, and Protective Homophobia Kopya Kaoma,2017-11-16 This book examines how socio political assumptions inform and shape the contestation of sexuality on the African continent Across Africa the idea that homosexuality is un African un Christian un natural and un cultural is now well established This book analyzes politically and religiously inspired protective homophobia within the context of Africa s socioeconomic and political place in the global community The author builds upon on the ground research and his groundbreaking previous studies on the cultural politics of globalization in Africa to present a wide complex and interdisciplinary understanding of Africa s sexual politics Woman, Man, and God in Modern Islam Theodore Friend, 2012 Award winning historian Theodore Friend recently set out alone across Asia and the Middle East on a quest to understand firsthand the life situations of women in Indonesia Pakistan Saudi Arabia Iran and Turkey Woman Man and God in Modern Islam recounts Friend s remarkable journey and relates hundreds of encounters and conversations with people he met along the way Commingling a deep respect for Islam and his faith in the potential of women to change their worlds Friend presents an open exploratory outsider s perspective on women in five very different Islamic cultures timely fare for all who wish to broaden their world horizons Balkan holocausts? David Bruce MacDonald, 2013-07-19 This electronic version has been made available under a Creative Commons BY NC ND open access license Comparing and contrasting propaganda in Serbia and Croatia from 1986 to 1999 this book analyses each group s contemporary interpretations of history and current events It offers a detailed discussion of Holocaust imagery and the history of victim centred writing in nationalist theory including the links between the comparative genocide debate the so called Holocaust industry and Serbian and Croatian nationalism There is a detailed analysis of Serbian and Croatian propaganda over the Internet detailing how and why the Internet war was as important as the ground wars in Kosovo Croatia and Bosnia Hercegovina and a theme by theme analysis of Serbian and Croatian propaganda using contemporary media sources novels academic works and journals
