Rebirth Of Value Meditations On Beauty:

What is Time? G. J. Whitrow, 2003 In this engaging volume Professor G J Whitrow 1912 2000 takes us on a good humored and wide ranging tour of the thing that clocks keep more or less He discusses how our ideas of time originated and coaxes the layment to contemplate with pleasure the differences between cyclic linear biological cosmic and space time while providing frequent diversions into fascinating topics such as the Mayan calendar the migration of birds and the dances of bees This reissue of the classic and authoritative What is Time includes a new introduction by Dr J T Fraser founder of the International Society for the Study of Time and a bibliographic essay by Dr Fraser and Professor M P Soulsby of the Pennsylvania State University

Ecocriticism and the Idea of Culture Helena Feder, 2016-04-29 Ecocriticism and the Idea of Culture Biology and the Bildungsroman draws on work by Kinji Imanishi Frans de Waal and other biologists to create an interdisciplinary materialist notion of culture for ecocritical analysis In this timely intervention Feder examines the humanist idea of culture by taking a fresh look at the stories it explicitly tells about itself These stories fall into the genre of the Bildungsroman the tale of individual acculturation that participates in the myth of its complete separation from and opposition to nature which Feder argues is culture s own origin story Moving from Voltaire s Candide to Mary Shelley s Frankenstein and from Virginia Woolf s Orlando to Jamaica Kincaid s Lucy the book dramatizes humanism s own awareness of the fallacy of this foundational binary In the final chapters Feder examines the discourse of animality at work in this narrative as a humanist fantasy about empathy one that paradoxically excludes other animals from the ethical community to justify the continued domination of both human and nonhuman others

The Sunflower Forest William R. Jordan, 2012-02-07 Ecological restoration the attempt to guide damaged ecosystems back to a previous usually healthier or more natural condition is rapidly gaining recognition as one of the most promising approaches to conservation In this book William R Jordan III who coined the term restoration ecology and who is widely respected as an intellectual leader in the field outlines a vision for a restoration based environmentalism that has emerged from his work over twenty five years Drawing on a provocative range of thinkers from anthropologists Victor Turner Roy Rappaport and Mary Douglas to literary critics Frederick Turner Leo Marx and R W B Lewis Jordan explores the promise of restoration both as a way of reversing environmental damage and as a context for negotiating our relationship with nature Exploring restoration not only as a technology but also as an experience and a performing art Jordan claims that it is the indispensable key to conservation At the same time he argues restoration is valuable because it provides a context for confronting the most troubling aspects of our relationship with nature For this reason it offers a way past the essentially sentimental idea of nature that environmental thinkers have taken for granted since the time of Emerson and Muir

Dynamis of Healing Pia Sophia Chaudhari, 2019-08-06 This book explores how traces of the energies and dynamics of Orthodox Christian theology and anthropology may be observed in the clinical work of depth psychology Looking to theology to express its own religious truths and to psychology to see whether these truth claims show up in healing modalities the author creatively engages both disciplines in order to highlight the possibilities for healing contained therein Dynamis of Healing elucidates how theology and psychology are by no means fundamentally at odds with each other but rather can work together in a beautiful and powerful synergia to address both the deepest needs and deepest desires of the human person for healing and flourishing Future Survey Annual 1992 Michael Marien, 1993-01-30 Beyond Preservation A. Dwight Baldwin, Judith De Luce, Carl Pletsch, 1994 Healing Breath Ruben L. F. Habito, 2013-02-08 Healing our wounded Earth is not unrelated to healing our own personal wounds The pains of the Earth and those of the individuals making up our Earth community cannot be separated Thus the healing of our individual lives can become the basis of the healing of Earth This book sheds light on Zen as a spiritual path that leads to healing in the personal social and ecological dimensions of our being If you are seeking a form of spiritual practice that addresses all three of these dimensions or simply seeking to deepen your understanding of the Zen path it is written for you If instead of fragmentation disorientation and vacuity you seek wholeness groundedness and integrity in your life it is written for you Perhaps you too have come to realize that our global community is in a sad state of affairs that we need to radically change how we live and relate to one another and to the Earth You may already be engaged in some form of social or ecological action addressing these issues and you may feel overwhelmed by the magnitude of the task If you've been tempted to pessimism or have thrown up your hands in despair when your best efforts don't seem to make a dent this book is for you Healing Breath offers a way to integrate a spiritual path with active socio ecological engagement as the ground This book also addresses another set of questions can a Christian genuinely practice Zen How is Zen practice compatible with a Christian faith commitment To fully engage in a Zen practice what kind of belief system is presupposed or required How can spiritual practice in an Eastern tradition inform Christian life and understanding In the process of describing the Zen way of life Healing Breath will consider various Christian expressions symbols and practices not as an apologetic for that belief system but to show how they too point to the transformative and healing perspectives and experiences provided by Zen Darwin's Bards John Holmes, 2013-10-16 A comprehensive study of Darwin's legacy for religion ecology and the arts Includes over 50 complete poems and long extracts with an interpretative framework and close readings Poets examined include Tennyson Browning Hardy Frost Ted Hughes Pattia The Ecocriticism Reader Cheryll Glotfelty, Harold Fromm, 1996 This book is the first collection of its kind an anthology of classic and cutting edge writings in the rapidly emerging field of literary ecology Exploring the relationship between literature and the physical environment literary ecology is the study of the ways that writing from novels and folktales to U S government reports and corporate advertisements both reflects and influences our interactions with the natural world
