Recasting The Past:

Recasting the Past: The Art of Chinese Bronzes, 1100-1900 Pengliang Lu, 2025-02-28 Bronze vessels were the ultimate emblems of power in ancient China Beginning in the twelfth century the rediscovery of ancient bronzes as evidence of an earlier golden age led to a revival of bronze casting This publication is the first comprehensive study of these later Chinese bronzes in archaic styles which were commissioned by emperors and officials from the twelfth through the nineteenth centuries to assert political legitimacy and alignment with traditional values Redressing the misconception that these works were mere imitations of the ancient vessels they emulated Recasting the Past demonstrates that they were in fact creative reinterpretations of antique shapes and decorative motifs that were fundamentally new creations with their own aesthetic and functional character Featuring nearly two hundred objects many never before published including ceremonial bells incense burners flower vases ritual vessels and writing utensils Pengliang Lu explores their cultural and political significance from the Song dynasty through the Qing dynasty and shows their enormous influence on Chinese art and culture

Fortune,Joretta L. Marshall,2002 Forgive and forget Under normal circumstances it is difficult enough but for victims of domestic or sexual abuse it is exponentially harder Can you forgive the unforgivable Using research studies stories and prayer Forgiveness and Abuse Jewish and Christian Reflections focuses on forgiveness and reconciliation by abuse victims Several religious authors discuss their own views and opinions as well as share the wisdom of their traditional religious teachings With the events of recent years weighing heavily on society s shoulders this collection is vital reading for clergy counselors therapists and the abuse survivors themselves Why Iris Murdoch Matters Gary Browning,2018-08-23 In Why Iris Murdoch Matters Gary Browning draws on as yet unpublished archival material to present an unrivalled overview of Murdoch s work and thought Browning argues for Murdoch s position amongst the key theorists of modern life and discusses in detail her engagement with the notion of late modernity Her multiple perspectives on art philosophy religion politics and the self all relate to how she understands the nature of late modernity Browning lucidly illustrates that through both her thought and fiction we can grasp the significance of issues that remain of paramount importance today the possibilities of a moral life without foundations the meaning of philosophy in a post metaphysical age the prospects of politics without ideological certainties and the significance of art after realism A totally original work arguing persuasively that Iris Murdoch not only matters but is absolutely central to how we think through the contemporary age Travel and Modernist

Literature Alexandra Peat, 2012-03-28 Through close readings of works from Henry James to W E B Du Bois and from Virginia Woolf to Jean Rhys this book discusses how fictional travelers negotiate and adapt various tropes of travel such as quest expatriation displacement and exile as models for their own journeys Specifically Peat considers the ethical dimensions of modernist travel from two distinct vantages The first focuses on the relationship between the secular and the sacred in modernist travel literature arguing that the recurrent narrative of secular travel is haunted by a desire for spiritual transcendence The second posits modernist travel fiction as a potentially positive example of transcultural relations consciously arguing against the received notion that travel during an imperial era is always by nature itself imperialist Throughout particular attention is paid to the transnational nature of modernism and the various global flows traced by modernist literature

The Birth of Sense Don Beith, 2018-04-01 In The Birth of Sense Don Beith proposes a new concept of generative passivity the idea that our organic psychological and social activities take time to develop into sense More than being a limit passivity marks out the way in which organisms persons and interbodily systems take time in order to manifest a coherent sense Beith situates his argument within contemporary debates about evolution developmental biology scientific causal explanations psychology

postmodernism social constructivism and critical race theory Drawing on empirical studies and phenomenological reflections Beith argues that in nature novel meaning emerges prior to any type of constituting activity or deterministic plan The Birth of Sense is an original phenomenological investigation in the style of Maurice Merleau Ponty and it demonstrates that the French philosopher's works cohere around the notion that life is radically expressive While Merleau Ponty's early works are widely interpreted as arguing for the primacy of human consciousness Beith argues that a pivotal redefinition of passivity is already under way here and extends throughout Merleau Ponty's corpus This work introduces new concepts in contemporary philosophy to interrogate how organic development involves spontaneous expression how personhood emerges from this bodily growth and how our interpersonal human life remains rooted in and often thwarted by domains of bodily expressivity

Etymological & Pronouncing Dictionary of Difficult Words Ebenezer Cobham Brewer, Passage through Hell David L. Pike, 2018-09-05 Taking the culturally resonant motif of the descent to the underworld as his guiding thread David L. Pike traces the interplay between myth and history in medieval and modernist literature Passage through Hell suggests new approaches to the practice of comparative literature and a possible escape from the current morass of competing critical schools and ideologies Pike's readings of Louis Ferdinand Celine and Walter Benjamin reveal the tensions at work in the modern appropriation of structures derived from ancient and medieval descents His book shows how these structures were redefined in modernism and persist in contemporary critical practice In order to recover the historical corpus of modernism he asserts it is necessary to acknowledge the attraction that medieval forms and motifs held for modernist literature and theory By pairing the writings of the postwar German dramatist and novelist Peter Weiss with Dante's Commedia and Christine de Pizan with Virginia Woolf Pike argues for a new level of complexity in the relation between medieval and modern poetics Pike's supple and persuasive reading of the Commedia resituates that text within the contradictions of medieval tradition He contends that the Dantean allegory of conversion altered to suit the exigencies of modernism maintains its hold over current literature and theory The postwar writers Pike treats Weiss Seamus Heaney and Derek Walcott exemplify alternate strategies for negotiating the legacy of modernism The passage through hell emerges as a way of disentangling images of the past from their interpretation in the present New Journeys in Iberian Studies Mark Gant, Anneliese Hatton, Paco Ruzzante, 2018-07-27 The research collected in this volume consists of 18 chapters which explore a number of key areas of investigation in contemporary Iberian studies As the title suggests there is a strong emphasis on transnational and transregional approaches to the subject area reflecting current discourse and scholarship but the contributions are not limited by these approaches and include an eclectic range of recent work by scholars of history politics literature the visual arts and cultural and social studies often working in transdisciplinary ways The geographical scope of the transnational processes considered range from intra-Iberian interconnections to those with the UK Italy and Morocco as well as transatlantic influences between the Peninsula and Argentina Cuba and Brazil The book opens up some pioneering new directions in research in Iberian studies as well as variety of fresh approaches to hitherto neglected aspects of more familiar issues Returning Home to Rome Ines Angjeli Murzaku, 2009 Civilization and Monsters Gerald A. Figal, 1999

Discusses the representation role of the supernatural or the fantastic in the construction of Japanese modernism in late 19th and early 20th century Japan
