Religions In Christian Theology:

Christianity and the Religions Edward Rommen, 1995 The essays in this book take a fresh look at the biblical data and address the contemporary questions raised by religious pluralism The reader will gain a greater understanding of different religions and gain an increased confidence in the majesty and greatness of the one true God Introducing World Religions Charles E. Farhadian, 2015-06-09 This beautifully designed full color textbook offers a comprehensive introduction to the world's religions including history beliefs worship practices and contemporary expressions Charles Farhadian a seasoned teacher and recognized expert on world religions provides an empathetic account that both affirms Christian uniqueness and encourages openness to various religious traditions His nuanced ecumenical perspective enables readers to appreciate both Christianity and the world's religions in new ways The book highlights similarities dissimilarities and challenging issues for Christians and includes significant selections from sacred texts to enhance learning Pedagogical features include sidebars charts key terms an extensive glossary over two hundred illustrations and about a dozen maps This book is supplemented with helpful web materials for both students and professors through Baker Academic's Textbook eSources Resources include self quizzes discussion questions additional further readings a sample syllabus and a test bank Faith among Faiths

James L. Fredericks, Religions in Christian Theology Kalarikkal Poulose Aleaz, 2001 Here Is Presented A Collection Of Papers With The Contention That Christians Will Have To Evolve A More Comprehensive Role For Religions In Christian Theology Than What Has Been Envisaged In The Past The Diversity of Religions J. A DiNoia, 1992 DiNoia approaches the debate in the theology of religions with a fresh lucid critical and informed mind This book is timely provocative and explores new territories and recasts old debates in a fresh and intelligent manner It will appeal to philosophers theologians indologists and those concerned with the meeting of Christianity and the world religions Gavin D Costa University of Bristol

World Religions Richard Viladesau, Mark Stephen Massa, 1994 Appropriate for college theology students or inquiring general readers this anthology presents a concise history of Christian stances on other forms of belief and brief introductions to and excerpts from significant writings of the sacred books of the great world religious traditions Christianity and World Religions Gavin D'Costa, 2009-03-09 An engaging and accessible introduction to Christianity's relationship with other world religions addressing the questions of why the reality and vitality of other religions has become a challenge and showing how Christianity is equipped to deal with religious plurality at both the doctrinal and social level Timely and accessible this book tackles the question of why the reality and vitality of other religions has become a challenge for Christianity Makes a decisive contribution to debates about the clash between Islam and the West arguing that the major threat to religious freedoms come from secularism and that Islam and Christianity both have the resources to develop a vibrant and pluralist public square one informed by intellectual rigor and debate Considers the wider issue of how modernity has defined religion and provides a substantial critique of secular ways of controlling religions Shows how Christianity is very well suited to deal with religious plurality at the doctrinal and social level Addresses the core issues and describes the various answers that have been proposed in recent years making it an ideal introduction to the field and one which will stimulate ideas and discussions      No Other Name? Paul F. Knitter,1985 The college text examines the problem of integrating other world religions with the uniqueness and finality of Christ Secular approaches of Troeltsch Toynbee Jung as well as Christian evangelical mainline Protestant Catholic models are reviewed An evolving theocentric model which questions the universality uniqueness of Christianity is the revisionist position propounded by the author John Hiek Raimundo Panikkar Stanley Samartha others      Christian Theological Understanding of Other Religions John Berchmans Barla,1999 This book tries to give a theological answer to the question of religious pluralism that is the theological problem of the relation of other religions to Christianity according to Amalorpavadass Amalor sees other religions as God s providential ways of salvation God desires the salvation of all peoples with their religions and cultures There is only one salvation history centered in Christ Jesus the word become flesh The Church sacrament of universal salvation is sent out in the world to call all peoples to their unity in God through Christ to proclaim to the world in sincere dialogue and collaboration with others the on going revelation of God in Christ and its on going actualization in history      Encountering World Religions Irving Hexham,2019-05-21 The diversity of the world s religions has come to the West but believers are often ill equipped for any kind of serious engagement with non Christians In Encountering World Religions professor and author Irving Hexham introduces all the world s major religious traditions in a brief and understandable way Hexham outlines key beliefs and practices in each religion while also providing guidance on how to think critically about them from the standpoint of Christian theology African yogic and Abrahamic traditions are all covered Accessible and clear Encountering World Religions will provide formal and lay students alike with a useful Christian introduction to the major faiths of our world

Christianity Donald W. Ekstrand,2008-04 In this broad comprehensive introduction to Christianity Dr Ekstrand explores science philosophy Scripture the teachings of Jesus Christ the message of the apostles and the essence of orthodox Christianity as represented by both Catholic and Protestant traditions Christian      Christianity and Other Religions John Hick,Brian Hebblethwaite,2014-10-01 Edited by two of the most prominent names in interfaith dialogue this is an introduction to the complex relationships between Christianity and the other world faiths Featuring essays from some of the key thinkers in the Christian faith It covers both Catholic and Protestant approaches and features all the rival points of view including the uncompromising absolutism of Karl Barth and Pope John Paul II the more ecumenical approaches of Karl Rahner and Hans Kung and the religious pluralism of Wilfred Cantwell Smith and John Hick among others      An Introduction to Religious and Theological Studies, Second Edition Cyril Orji,2021-01-07 An Introduction to Religious and Theological Studies walks students through topical issues to be encountered in the study of the Abrahamic religions Judaism Christianity and Islam as these religions encounter other religions in the context of the wider ecumenism The text is written from a Christian point of view and aims at helping students understand that to be Christian is to be ecumenical African Traditional Religions ATRs has been included in this survey to provide background for the religious traditions and cultures of peoples of Africa as Christianity moves inexorably southward The book has been written with undergraduate general education students in mind including meeting the needs of those in seminaries and theological institutes

Christian and Islamic Theology of Religions Esra Akay Dag, 2017-04-21 Cover Title Copyright Dedication Contents Preface Abbreviations Introduction 1 Christian theology of religions 2 Rowan Williams s theology of religions 3 Islamic theology of religions 4 Jerusha Lamptey s theology of religions 5 Theology of religions reassessed Conclusion Index A Tapestry of Faiths Winfried Corduan, 2002 Or do we hold out the Christian faith as the one true hope for all the world One of a Kind Adam Sparks, 2010-01-01 A fundamental requirement in an inclusivist understanding of the relationship between Christianity and other religions is evidence of God s salvific activity outside any knowledge of Christ This is commonly identified in the religion of Old Testament Israel On this basis an analogy the Israel analogy is drawn between the religion of the old covenant and contemporary non Christian religions Closely related is the parallel argument that as Christ has fulfilled the Old covenant he can also be seen as the fulfillment of other religious traditions and their scriptures This study outlines the use of the Israel analogy and the fulfillment model subjecting these concepts to a biblical and theological critique revealing that the exegetical and patristic data are misconstrued in support of these concepts Furthermore the Israel analogy and the fulfillment model undermine the sui generis relationship between the old and new covenants and fail to respect the organic progressive nature of salvation history They also misconstrue the old covenant and the nature of its fulfillment in the new covenant The Israel analogy and fulfillment model rely on a correspondence between the chronologically premessianic Israel and the epistemologically premessianic other religions and therefore consider the BC condition to continue today In so doing they undermine the significance of the Christ event by failing to appreciate the decisive effect of this event on history and the nature of existence It marks a radical turn in salvation history a crisis point rendering the BC period complete and fulfilled Therefore the concept of a continuing premessianic condition or state is seriously flawed as are the Israel analogy and fulfillment model Thus the inclusivist paradigm reliant in large part on these defective concepts is also problematic and proponents of this paradigm need to reconsider its basis Theology David Ford, 2013-10-24 This Very Short Introduction provides both the believer and non believer with a balanced survey of the central questions of theology David Ford s approach draws us in to considering the principles underlying religious belief including the centrality of salvation to most major religions the concept of God in ancient modern and postmodern contexts the challenge posed to theology by prayer and worship and the issue of sin and evil He also probes the nature of experience knowledge and wisdom in theology and discusses what is involved in interpreting theological texts In this new edition Ford considers the contemporary relevance of theology including the effect of globalization and digitized communication examines the theological responses to change and development in science considers the impact of increased engagement between Islam and the West and looks at the development and importance of theology between the different faiths

Revelation in Christian Theologies of Religions

Iain McGee, 2024-06-04 What are non-Christian religions? How is God related to them? How do they relate to Christianity? In this original book, Iain McGee explores five Christian theologians' answers to these questions. The study spans the history of the church, covering figures from four different continents: Justin Martyr, Augustine, John Calvin, Jonathan Edwards, and Daniel Strange. Focusing on the revelation-religion interface in the writings of these scholars, McGee outlines and analyzes their varied understandings of Logos, illumination, the prisca theologia, and the demonic, alongside the relationships between them and their impact on non-Christian religion. McGee forwards an argument that each theology can be considered a biblically informed, contextually reflective, and reactive response to significant religious challenges faced by these Christian thinkers in their attempts to demonstrate the uniqueness of the Christian faith.

A Journey Through Christian Theology William P. Anderson, 2010-05-05 The history of Christian theology can be a daunting, even forbidding, field for the novice who sees neither the need for nor pertinence of rummaging around dusty old texts. This people-friendly volume, a full-scale reader in the history of Christian theology, offers an easy, non-threatening, occasionally humorous, yet quite thorough entry into Christianity's central texts, from the Apostolic Fathers to Mary Daly. It is also enlivened by dozens of cartoons by Rich Diesslin. Highly accessible introductions to five periods precede brief introductions to, and texts from, more than fifty key thinkers. The texts highlight perennial themes and questions in Christian tradition, especially the meaning and importance of Jesus' challenges to the institutional church, tensions of faith and reason, spirituality, and the Christian quest for social justice. The new edition, half again as large as the original, adds significant work from the Cappadocian Fathers and the Christological controversialists, the Franciscan tradition, the Radical and English reforms, and deeper coverage of twentieth-century theologians. With learning aids, research paper suggestions, and guide and glossary.
