Religions in Dialogue Alan Race, Ingrid Shafer, 2017-11-30 This title was first published in 2002 Judaism Christianity and Islam as Abrahamic religions share much theological common ground and the momentum for dialogue between them at theological levels has greatly increased in recent decades This book explores the relationship between religion and the modern democratic state from the perspective of these three monotheistic traditions It investigates how the three religions in dialogue might overcome their historic antagonism as a prelude to working for the development of the global common good As part of the test of religious ideals some of the contributions bring theory down to earth by examining the role of religion in three democratic states with different histories Turkey Indonesia India and also in relation to a culture of human rights Drawing together leading Muslim Christian and Jewish authors from America Europe and Asia the book presents a rare collaboration of faiths and ideas to make a contribution to studies of inter religious dialogue and the changing role of religion in the democratic state

Cultures and Religions in Dialogue Panikkar, Raimon, 2018-12-20

Theology and the Dialogue of Religions Michael Barnes, 2002-03-14 Theology of religions is an area of theological reflection on inter religious relations which raises fundamental questions for all people of faith in a pluralist post modern world How to practise a religious faith with integrity while respecting other claims to ultimate truth Must the other always be regarded as a problematic complication on the fringes of a Christianity centred world Is there a third way between an all dominating exclusivism and a vapid relativism This book contributes to the debate about the place of inter religious relations in the life of the Church by developing a theology of dialogue In offering a critique of much current thinking in this area Michael Barnes SJ proposes instead a theology rooted in the themes of welcome and hospitality He argues for a vision of Christianity as a school of faith a community called not just to teach others but to learn from them as well

World Cultures and World Religions Hendrik Kraemer, 2003-06 The meeting of Christianity and the non Christian religions the impact of East on West and West on East the clash of cultures and the movement of divine and human forces that are changing the pattern of man s life form the basis of Kraemer s magisterial book He deals historically with the world situation as he sees it because history determines the mood in which East and West approach this coming dialogue In a series of masterly chapters Kraemer surveys the position of the world s religions deeply enmeshed in socio cultural systems that create both barriers to change but impetus towards evolution The dialogue with the grand elusive Eastern systems of humanist thinking demands searching thought fundamental re adjustment of methods and readiness to find fresh points of contact It will however vindicate the personal conception of the living God as manifest in Jesus Christ The key word of Oriental philosophies is Harmony glossing over the glaring disharmonies of man s life This is the heart of the dialogue that Kraemer discusses backed by his vast experience and learning Kraemer provides a formative and fundamental tool for Christians and all who are aspire to an intelligent and penetrative understanding of the religious and cultural life of the world
