Religious Broadcast Management Handbook:

Religious Broadcast Management Handbook Thomas C. Durfey, James A. Ferrier, 1986-01-01 Handbook of Media Management and Economics Alan Albarran, Bozena Mierzejewska, Sylvia M. Chan-Olmsted, Jaemin Jung, Michael O. Wirth, 2006-04-21 This comprehensive Handbook provides a synthesis of current work and research in media management and economics The volume has been developed around two primary objectives assessing the state of knowledge for the key topics in the media management and economics fields and establishing the research agenda in these areas ultimately pushing the field in new directions The Handbook s chapters are organized into parts addressing the theoretical components key issues analytical tools and future directions for research Each chapter offers the current state of theory and scholarship of a specific area of study and the volume contributors all well established in their areas of specialty represent domestic and international scholarship With its unparalleled breadth of content from expert authors the Handbook provides background knowledge of the various theoretical dimensions and historical paradigms and establishes the direction for the next phases of research in this growing arena of study The Handbook of Media Management and Economics will serve to stimulate future thought and research in the media management and economics disciplines As such this volume will be a required reference for students professors and industry practitioners for years to come World Radio TV Handbook ,1981 1952 54 include world wide radio who s who Evangelicalism Richard Kyle, 2017-09-20 Most forms of religion are best understood in the context of their relationship with the surrounding culture This may be particularly true in the United States Certainly immigrant Catholicism became Americanized mainstream Protestantism accommodated itself to the modern world and Reform Judaism is at home in American society In Evangelicalism Richard Kyle explores paradoxical adjustments and transformations in the relationship between conservative Protestant Evangelicalism and contemporary American culture Evangelicals have resisted many aspects of the modern world but Kyle focuses on what he considers their romance with popular culture Kyle sees this as an Americanized Christianity rather than a Christian America but the two are so intertwined that it is difficult to discern the difference between them Instead in what has become a vicious self serving cycle Evangelicals have baptized and sanctified secular culture in order to be considered culturally relevant thus increasing their numbers and success within abundantly populous and populist driven American society In doing so Evangelicalism has become a middle class movement one that dominates America s culture and unabashedly populist Many Evangelicals view America as God s chosen nation thus sanctifying American culture consumerism and middle class values Kyle believes Evangelicals have served themselves well in consciously and deliberately adjusting their faith to popular culture Yet he also thinks Evangelicals may have compromised themselves and their future in the process so heavily borrowing from the popular culture that in many respects the Evangelical subculture has become secularism with a light gilding of Christianity If so he asks can Evangelicalism survive its own popularity and reaffirm its religious origins or will it assimilate and be absorbed into what was once known as the Great American Melting Pot of religions and cultures Will the Gospel of the American dream ultimately engulf and destroy the Gospel of Evangelical success in America This thoughtful and thought provoking volume will interest anyone concerned with the modern day success of the Evangelical movement in America and the aspirations and fate of its faithful Routledge Revivals: Radio Broadcasting from 1920 to 1990 (1991) Diane Foxhill Carothers,2016-11-10 First published in 1991 this book presents a comprehensive annotated bibliography of radio broadcasting Its eleven chapter categories cover almost the entire range of radio broadcasting with the exception of radio engineering due to its technical complexity although some of the historical volumes do encompass aspects thus providing background material Entries are primarily restricted to published books although a number of trade journals and periodicals are also included Each entry includes full bibliographic information including the ISBN or ISSN where available and an annotation written by the author with the original text in hand Pat Robertson David John Marley,2007 A portrait of the 700 Club host and co founder of the Christian Coalition considers his role as a reviled figure in the secular world and a formidable role model among Christian fundamentalists in a profile that lauds his achievements while questioning some of his decisions Religious Broadcasting Sourcebook Ben Armstrong,Benjamin Leighton Armstrong,1978 Christian Communicator's Handbook Floyd A.
