Travellers in Ottoman Lands II Ines Asceric-Todd,Aid Smajić,Janet Starkey,Paul Starkey,2024-11-28 This volume has a special focus on the Ottoman Balkans and Anatolia as seen and described by travellers from both within and outside the region 26 papers shed valuable light on the topics of Christian Muslim and East West relations and the transition from the Ottoman Empire to successor nation states in the 19th and early 20th centuries Islam in the Modern World Denis MacEoin,Ahmed Al-Shahi,2013-07-24 In recent years events in the Islamic world have captured the attention of the West to an unprecedented degree However much of the media coverage of events like the Islamic revolution in Iran has merely reinforced current prejudices and misconceptions about Islam This collection of essays by specialists in a variety of disciplines gives an impressionistic overview of contemporary Islam Different areas of Islamic life are singled out for special attention these include the problem of relations between Islam and the West the role of the Sufi orders and the revival of religious fundamentalism Islam and the feminine Islamic economics and Islamic architecture Geographically the essays cover a wide area ranging over Sudan Turkey Iran Egypt and Saudi Arabia Each discussion should appeal to the layman and specialist alike and collectively they bring together a comprehensive range of material not often covered in one volume Above all they cut across the stereotypes of Islam found in the popular media to reveal facets of a complex living tradition often unsuspected in the West First published in 1983 The Religious Orders of Islám Sell Edward,2022-10-27 Buddhist and Islamic Orders in Southern Asia R. Michael Feener,Anne M. Blackburn,2018-11-30 Over the last few decades historians and other scholars have succeeded in identifying diverse patterns of connection linking religious communities across Asia and beyond Yet despite the fruits of this specialist research scholars in the subfields of Islamic and Buddhist studies have rarely engaged with each other to share investigative approaches and methods of interpretation This volume was conceived to open up new spaces of creative interaction between scholars in both fields that will increase our understanding of the circulation and localization of religious texts institutional models ritual practices and literary specialists The book s approach is to scrutinize one major dimension of the history of religion in Southern Asia religious orders Orders here referring to Sufi ar qas and Buddhist monastic and other ritual lineages established means by which far flung local communities could come to be recognized and engaged as part of a broader world of co religionists while presenting their particular religious traditions and their human representatives as attractive and authoritative to potential new communities of devotees Contributors to the volume direct their attention toward analogous developments mutually illuminating for both fields of study Some explain how certain orders took shape in Southern Asia over the course of the nineteenth century contextualizing these institutional developments in relation to local and transregional political formations shifting literary and ritual preferences and trade connections Others show how the circulation of people ideas texts objects and practices across Southern Asia a region in which both Buddhism and Islam have a long and substantial presence brought diverse currents of internal reform and notions of ritual and lineage purity to the region All chapters draw readers attention to the fact that networked persons were not always strongly institutionalized and often moved through Southern Asia and developed local bases without the oversight of complex corporate organizations Buddhist and Islamic Orders in Southern Asia brings cutting edge research to bear on conversations about how orders have functioned within these two traditions to expand and sustain transregional religious networks It will help to develop a better understanding of the complex roles played by religious networks in the history of Southern Asia
