Religious Thought and the Modern Psychologies Don S. Browning, Terry D. Cooper, Religious Thought and the Modern Psychologies has pioneered the broader and deeper critique of psychological theories and practice Informed by hermeneutical theory Browning's widely acclaimed work drew much needed attention to the ethical and metaphysical even religious assumptions that underlie present day psychology It has been deeply influential in many social sciences in addition to the fields of pastoral counseling and practical theology In this much needed second edition Browning and his new co author show how the field of social science has indeed grasped and appropriated the hermeneutical approach though with only slight appreciation of the religious dimensions of the social scientific endeavor Browning and Cooper provide a completely new first chapter newly situating the discussion and update the core chapters of the book They also add two new chapters carrying the dialogue on with three new psychotherapeutic theorists then with new evangelical writers on the relation of theology and psychology This new edition like its predecessor will set the stage for the religion psychology dialogue for years to come Religious Thought and the Modern Psychologies Don S. Browning, 1987 Congregationalist ,1924 The United States Catalog ,1925 Research in the Social Scientific Study of Religion, Volume 23,2012-05-23 The social scientific study of religion is a crucial arena of human endeavor as questions about the existence and nature of God interact with the study of religion as a human phenomenon The twenty third volume of Research in the Social Scientific Study of Religion continues the tradition of promoting extended debate of current issues in the field The special section on Theism and Non Theism in Psychological Science includes contributions from leading researchers in this area This landmark collection of papers draws on a range of perspectives that both summarize the theism debate in psychology and help to move it forward in new directions In addition the volume includes papers on other key areas in the study of religion such as spirituality and social capital Current Religious Thought ,1907 Facing the Dragon Robert L. Moore, 2003 Structured around a series of lectures presented at the Jung Institute of Chicago in a program entitled Jungian Psychology and Human Spirituality Liberation from Tribalism in Religious Life this book length essay attacks the related problems of human evil spiritual narcissism secularism and ritual and grandiosity Robert Moore dares to insist that we stop ignoring these issues and provides clear sighted guidance for where to start and what to expect Along the way he pulls together many important threads from recent findings in theology spirituality and psychology and brings us to a point where we can conceive of embarking on a corrective course Traditional doctrinal and historical interpretation both rely heavily on rational analysis But from the disciples at Emmaus to the beginnings of the present century it has been the impact of scripture upon the human heart that has changed human lives In recent decades this impact has been strengthened by advances in linguistic and literary theory by such disparate influences as feminism structuralism Jungianism deconstructionism the analysis of archaic imagery and myth the recovery of Gnostic texts and finally an openness to pluralism whether ethnic geographic religious or interpretive All of these factors are treated here with a brevity and comprehensiveness which convincingly show that the reader of scripture has a creative and not merely passive role If you would understand the deepest roots of terrorism greed and religious fanaticism read Facing the Dragon But be forewarned you may find some offshoots in your own garden June Singer Jungian analyst author of Boundaries of the Soul Robert Moore Phd was an internationally recognized psychotherapist and consultant in private practice in Chicago He was considered one of the leading therapists specializing in psychotherapy with men because of his discovery of the Archetypal Dynamics of the Masculine Self King Warrior Magician Lover He served as Distinguished Service Professor of Psychology Psychoanalysis and Spirituality at the Graduate Center of the Chicago Theological Seminary and has served as a Training Analyst at the C G Jung Institute of Chicago He is Co founder of the Chicago Center for Integrative Psychotherapy An Introduction to Sociology Wilson Dallam Wallis, 1927 Dualism William R.
