Relocation 101 Kai Hansen, 2005 Relocation 101 Janet Auty-Carlisle, 2001 Canadian Books in Print, 2001 The Geography of Modernization in Kenya Edward W. Soja, Mrs Kelly Grantlee Kieza, 2017-03-01 The astonishing life of Ned Kelly's mother While we know much about the iconic outlaw Ned Kelly his mother Ellen Kelly has been largely overlooked by Australian writers and historians until now with this vivid and compelling portrait by Grantlee Kieza one of Australia's most popular biographers When Ned Kelly's mother Ellen arrived in Melbourne in 1841 aged nine British convict ships were still dumping their unhappy cargo in what was then known as the colony of New South Wales By the time she died aged ninety one in 1923 having outlived seven of her twelve children motor cars plied the highway near her bush home north of Melbourne and Australia was a modern sovereign nation Like so many pioneering women Ellen the wife of a convict led a life of great hardship Born in Ireland during a time of entrenched poverty and sectarian violence she was a mother of seven when her husband died after months in a police lock up She lived through famine and drought watched her babies die listened through the prison wall while her eldest son was hanged and saw the charred remains of another of her children who died in a shoot out with police One son became Australia's most infamous and ultimately most celebrated outlaw another became a highly decorated policeman an honorary member of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police and a worldwide star on the rodeo circuit Through it all the notorious Mrs Kelly as she was dubbed by Victoria's Assistant Police Commissioner survived as best she could like so many pioneering women of the time By bestselling biographer Grantlee Kieza Mrs Kelly is the astonishing story of one of Australia's most notorious women and her wild family but it's also the story of the making of Australia from struggling colony and backwater to modern nation The Victorian Church Chris Brooks, Andrew Saint, 1995 This is a reassessment of the phenomenon of church architecture in the 19th century It presents a range of interpretations that approach Victorian churches as products of institutional needs socio cultural developments and economic forces Lakes A. Lerman, 2013-04-17 With contributions by numerous experts Knowledge at the Crossroads? Lyn Yates, Peter Woelert, Victoria Millar, Kate O'Connor, 2016-10-26 There is much discussion about what needs to change in education institutions in the 21st century but less attention given to how core disciplinary studies should be considered within that context This book is based on a major 4 year research study of history and physics in the changing environment of schools and universities in Australia Are these forms of knowledge still valuable for students Are they complementary to or at odds with the concerns about 21st century skills interdisciplinary and collaborative research teams employability and learner centred education How do those who work in these fields see changes in their disciplines and in their work environment And what are the similarities and differences between the experiences of teachers and academics in physics and those in history The book draws on interviews with 115 school teachers and university academics to provide new perspectives on two important issues Firstly how for the purposes of today's schools and universities can we adequately understand knowledge and knowledge building over time Secondly what has been productive and what has been counter productive in recent efforts to steer and manage the changes in Australia From Slave Girls to Salvation Shelly D. Ikebuchi,2015-11-10 From its origins as a project to rescue Chinese prostitutes and slave girls from a life of supposed depravity the Chinese Rescue Home became a feature of the moral and racial landscape of Victoria a place where the Methodist Women s Missionary Society attempted to reform Chinese and Japanese girls and women in part by teaching them domestic skills meant to ease their integration into Western society Between 1886 and 1923 over four hundred Chinese and Japanese women sheltered in the home Yet despite the significance of this iconic institution little has been written on its history From Slave Girls to Salvation draws on a rich collection of archival materials to uncover the organizational hierarchies as well as the religious and racial tropes which permeated the home In doing so it expands our understanding of the complex interplay of gender race and class in BC during this time period Energy Research Abstracts ,1979 Purity and Contamination in Late Victorian

Detective Fiction Dr Christopher Pittard,2013-05-28 Concentrating on works by authors such as Fergus Hume Arthur Conan Doyle Grant Allen L T Meade and Marie Belloc Lowndes Christopher Pittard explores the complex relation between the emergence of detective fictions in the 1880s and 1890s and the concept of purity The centrality of material and moral purity as a theme of the genre Pittard argues both reflected and satirised a contemporary discourse of degeneration in which criminality was equated with dirt and disease and where national boundaries were guarded against the threat of the criminal foreigner Situating his discussion within the ideologies underpinning George Newnes s Strand Magazine as well as a wide range of nonfiction texts Pittard demonstrates that the genre was a response to the seductive and impure delights associated with sensation and gothic novels Further Pittard suggests that criticism of detective fiction has in turn become obsessed with the idea of purity thus illustrating how a genre concerned with policing the impure itself became subject to the same fear of contamination Contributing to the richness of Pittard s project are his discussions of the convergence of medical discourse and detective fiction in the 1890s including the way social protest movements like the antivivisectionist campaigns and medical explorations of criminality raised questions related to moral purity Australian Policing Philip Birch,Michael Kennedy,Erin Kruger,2020-11-29 This edited collection brings together leading academics researchers and police personnel to provide a comprehensive body of literature that informs Australian police education training research policy and practice There is a strong history and growth in police education both in Australia and globally Recognising and reflecting on the Australian and New Zealand Policing Advisory Agency ANZPAA education and training framework the range of chapters within the book address a range of 21st century issues modern police forces face This book discusses four key themes Education training and professional practice topics include police education ethics wellbeing and leadership Organisational approaches and techniques topics include police discretion use of force investigative interviewing and forensic science Operational practices and procedures topics include police and the media emergency management cybercrime terrorism and community management Working with individuals and groups topics include mental health Indigenous communities young people hate crime domestic violence and working with victims Australian Policing Critical Issues in 21st Century Police Practice draws together theoretical and practice debates to ensure this book will be of interest to those who want to join the police those who are currently training to become a police officer and those who are currently serving This book is essential reading for all students scholars and researchers engaged with policing and the criminal justice sector Resources in Education ,2001-10

God in the Landscape Kerrie Handasyde,2021-07-15 This book shows how creative writing gives voice to the drama and nuance of religious experience in a way that is rarely captured by sermons reports and the minutes of church meetings The author explores the history of religious Dissent and Evangelicalism in Australia through a variety of literary responses to landscape from both men and women lay and ordained The book explores transnational themes along with themes of migration and travel across the Australian continent The author gives insight into the literature of Protestant Dissent concerned as it is with travel belonging and the intersection of national and religious identity Much of the writing is situated on the road a soldier returning from the Great War a child on a lone adventure a night time journey through urban slums all of these are in some way dependent on the theme of walking with Jesus as the Holy Land travelogues make explicit God in the Landscape draws the links between landscape literature and spirituality with imagination and insight and is an important contribution to the historical study of religion and the environment The Liberal Arts Paradox in Higher Education Kathryn Telling,2023-04-28 The liberal arts approach to higher education is a growing trend globally We are told that the mental dexterity and independent questioning spirit cultivated by such interdisciplinary degrees are the best preparation for the as yet unknown executive jobs of tomorrow This book explores the significant recent growth of these degrees in England in order to address an enduring problem for higher education the relationship between meritocracy and elitism Against the view that the former is a myth providing rhetorical cover for the latter it argues that these are two entangled but discrete value systems Sociology must now pay attention to how students and academics attempt to disentangle them

The Paths to Privy Vernon V. Palmer,2006 Palmer s fascinating study analyzes the ingrained tendency to prevent third party beneficiary actions through a historical account of privity of contract Chapter I discusses the origins and historical questions surrounding the issue of privity Chapter II covers the triumph of consideration in the formative period 1500 1680 Chapter III outlines the expansion in the chancery phase 1680 1800 and Chapter IV deals with the rise of the parties only principle at law and equity during the 1800s The Common Law of Obligations Andrew Robertson,Michael Tilbury,2016-01-28 The development of the law of obligations across the common law world has been and continues to be a story of unity and divergence Its common origins continue to exert a powerful stabilising influence carried forward by a methodology that places heavy weight on the historical foundations of legal principles Divergence is however produced by numerous factors including national and international human rights instruments local statutory regimes civil law influences regional harmonisation local circumstances and values and different political and legal cultures The essays in this collection explore the forces that produce divergence the countervailing forces that generate cohesion and consistency in the common law of obligations and the influence that the major common law jurisdictions continue to exert over one another in this area of law The chapters in this book were originally presented at the Seventh Biennial Conference on the Law of Obligations held in Hong Kong in July 2014 A second collection entitled Divergences in Private Law ISBN 9781782256601 will focus on particular departures from the common law mainstream and the causes and effects of those deviations

The World Is a Ball John Doyle, 2010-10-12 Globe and Mail columnist John Doyle explores the international phenomenon of soccer In A Great Feast of Light John Doyle viewed his childhood in Ireland through the television screen Now he turns his eye to the most popular sport on the planet soccer It's a journey that begins with the first game John saw in 1960s era Ireland through soccer in the 21st century the World Cups in 02 and 06 the European Championships in 04 and 08 And Doyle has traveled the globe during the build up to the 2010 World Cup In between the drunken fans crazed taxi drivers leprechauns and lederhosen Doyle muses on the evolution of soccer as a global phenomenon He shows a sport where for 90 minutes on the pitch anything seems possible A game where colonized nations can tackle the power of their colonizers where oppressed immigrant groups can thoroughly trounce their host countries This book examines soccer from a new angle John Doyle offers a compelling social history of the ultimate sport each country and team competing in the historic 2010 World Cup and how the game has kept pace as the global village has sprung up around the playing field

The Idea of the Avant Garde Marc James Léger, 2019-10-15 The concept of the avant garde is highly contested whether one consigns it to history or claims it for present day or future uses The first volume of The Idea of the Avant Garde And What It Means Today provided a lively forum on the kinds of radical art theory and partisan practices that are possible in today's world of global art markets and creative industry entrepreneurialism This second volume presents the work of another 50 artists and writers exploring the diverse ways that avant gardism develops reflexive and experimental combinations of aesthetic and political praxis The manifest strategies temporalities and genealogies of avant garde art and politics are expressed through an international intergenerational and interdisciplinary convocation of ideas that covers the fields of film video architecture visual art art activism literature poetry theatre performance intermedia and music
