Reluctant Patron:

The Reluctant Patron Peter Alter, 1987      Art, Activism, and Oppositionality Grant H. Kester, 1998 A collection of essays from the influential American journal of film video and photography exploring ideologies and institutions of the artworld current media strategies for producing social change and topics around gender race and representation I

Subsidizing Culture James T. Bennett, 2017-07-05 In the American mind state subsidization of writers and artists was long associated with monarchies and in later years socialist states The support these regimes gave to intellectuals was understood to come with a cost yet beginning with the New Deal's Federal Writers Art and Theater Projects a new policy consensus asserted that by offering financial support to the arts the federal government was affirming their importance to the nation Subsidizing Culture examines the development of and controversies surrounding federal programs that directly benefit writers artists and intellectuals James T Bennett examines four cases of such support the New Deal's Federal Writers Art and Theater Projects the vigorous promotion in the post World War II and early Cold War eras of abstract expressionism and other forms of modern art by the US government the National Endowment for the Arts NEA which has fortified its position as the preeminent arts bureaucracy and the National Endowment for the Humanities the NEA's less embattled twin which funnels monies to scholars Bennett concentrates on the creation of and the debate over these government programs and he gives special attention to the critics who are usually ignored He reminds us that the chorus of anti subsidy voices over the years has included such disparate figures as writers William Faulkner and John Updike artists John Sloan and Wheeler Williams and social critics Jacques Barzun and H L Mencken      The Gift of Immortality Stephen Murphy, 1997 This book considers the boast of literary power to glorify or immortalize a topos of enormous popularity Focusing on representative figures of Renaissance humanism and the roots of the topos in antiquity author Stephen Murphy elaborates a complex myth of poetic power This myth constructed with the help of such theorists as Ernst Cassirer Giambattista Vico Marcel Mauss and Theodor Adorno includes the elements of nostalgia for a primordial epoch of magical effectiveness and social centrality the ideal of patronage as gift exchange and the absorption of these extra literary circumstances into literary convention

Forbes Watson Lenore Clark, 2001 This is a biography of Forbes Watson art commentator for the New York Evening Post and New York World but probably best known as the editor of The Arts an influential art magazine of the 1920s

Patrons and Painters Francis Haskell, 1980-01-01 Fusing the social and economic history with the cultural and artistic achievements of seventeenth and eighteenth century Italy this book presents a unique and invaluable perspective on the period      Revolts and the Military in the Arab Spring Sean Burns, 2018-01-30 Through detailed exploration of events in Tunisia Egypt Bahrain Libya Syria and Yemen Sean Burns here breaks down the concept of professionalism within the armed forces into its component parts and demonstrates how variation in military structures determines their behaviour In so doing and by emphasising historical context and drawing on a wide range of political science theory Burns sheds fresh light onto the ways in which military structure affects the potential for democratic transition or the course of civil war With this book he presented a wide ranging study of the Middle East which provides key tools to understanding the opportunities for democratisation both during the Arab Spring and beyond and which is therefore essential reading for anyone working on the Middle East popular uprisings and the politics of repression Art and the Challenge of Markets Volume 1 Victoria D. Alexander, Samuli Hägg, Simo Häyrynen, Erkki Sevänen, 2018-01-16 Art and the Challenge of Markets Volumes 1 2 examine the politics of art and culture in light of the profound changes that have taken place in the world order since the 1980s and 1990s The contributors explore how in these two decades the neoliberal or market based model of capitalism started to spread from the economic realm to other areas of society As a result many aspects of contemporary Western societies increasingly function in the same way as the private enterprise sector under traditional market capitalism The first volume of this two volume collection considers a broad range of national cultural policies from European and North American countries and examines the strengthening of international and transnational art worlds in music visual arts film and television The chapters cover cultural policy and political culture in the United States United Kingdom Germany France Switzerland the Nordic countries the Balkans and Slovenia and address the extent to which Western nations have shifted from welfare state to market based ideologies Tensions between centres and peripheries in global art worlds are considered as well as complex interactions between nations and international and transnational art worlds and regional variations in the audiovisual market Both volumes provide students and scholars across a range of disciplines with an incisive comparative overview of the politics of art and culture and national international and transnational art worlds in contemporary capitalism Trends in Nuclear Proliferation, 1975-1995 Lewis A. Dunn, Herman Kahn, Hudson Institute, 1976 Paying the Piper Judith H. Balfe, 1993 Electronic Resources Linda S Katz, 2013-10-31 In Philosophies of Reference Service reference librarians share with you their reflective thinking about what they do as service providers An important addition to the personal and occupational library of anyone in reference services this book discusses the origins of reference service its founding principles the pleasures and pitfalls of the reference encounter delivering high quality service and much much more In a clever juxtaposition of the fundamentals of reference service provision with top notch thinking about the role of the reference librarian and what makes a reference unit effective Philosophies of Reference Service advocates for continuing familiarity with books in the reference section recognizing the diversity of service users and using collegiality in the work environment to boost productivity It discusses why reference service should move toward instructing people in mediums not systems as well as achieving consistency in reference service through shared values the concept of tiered reference services based on survey research the little discussed art of reference desk scheduling the importance of knowing your user and making appropriate accommodations partnerships in reference services techniques for conducting reference roving the advantages of print fostering widely grounded research through reference service why reference librarians share with the corporate world many of the same desired outcomes with regard to service provision Designed to assist readers in defining and developing their own approaches to reference service delivery Philosophies of Reference Service offers reference librarians insight practical knowledge and guidelines for keeping on top of new reference techniques establishing a partnership between the library and the user population and maximizing the helpful nature of reference service The Patron's Payoff Jonathan K. Nelson, Richard Zeckhauser, 2008 An analysis of Italian Renaissance art from the perspective of the patrons who made conspicuous commissions this text builds on three concepts from the economics of information signaling signposting and stretching to develop a systematic methodology for assessing the meaning of patronage Patrons of Women Esther Hertzog, 2011-05-01 Assuming that women's empowerment would accelerate the pace of social change in rural Nepal the World Bank urged the Nepali government to undertake a Gender Activities Project within an ongoing long term water engineering scheme The author an anthropologist specializing in bureaucratic organizations and gender studies was hired to monitor the project Analyzing her own experience as a practicing development expert she demonstrates that the professed goal of women's empowerment is a pretext for promoting economic organizational goals and the interests of local elites She shows how a project intended to benefit women through teaching them literary and agricultural skills fails to provide them with any of the promised resources Going beyond the conventional analysis that positions aid givers vis vis powerless victimized recipients she draws attention to the complexity of the process and the active role played by the Nepalese rural women who pursue their own interests and aspirations within this unequal world The book makes an important contribution to the growing critique of development projects and of women's development projects in particular Patrons and Adversaries Caroline Castiglione, 2005 Four generations of the aristocratic Barberini family and its vassals clashed over how the early modern Roman countryside should be governed Villagers sometimes cultivated noble interference but they frequently resisted it through the strategies of adversarial literacy political ways of reading and writing that challenged noble hegemony in the village 18,533 Days and 18 Inches to Eternity Louis Bukowiec, 2020-02-28 I'm eighty eight and I am awestruck that I have written a book my first ever My wife Joyce died in 2015 For a time grief and loneliness were my companions I soon settled down doing old folks things like crossword puzzles watching TV etc Some of my grandkids asked me what it was like being a kid during the Great Depression and World War II Then one day my friend Charlie gave me a packet of four one hundred page notebook pads He said Maybe you can use these Coincidence So with pencil in hand I started writing my story about my favorite subject me Many memories were rekindled and suddenly I had a new hobby A word became a sentence a sentence a paragraph or a chapter How far could I go with this Night after night the stories flowed through my mind Quiet tearful nights became commonplace One night I awoke with tears in my eyes and a word in my heart redemption That morning I calculated how many days from my birth January 2 1930 to my rebirth October 4 1980 It was 18 533 days Now my story had a working title 18 533 Days to Eternity As I read my story I realized that I was a normal hardworking person with a vision like you However unlike most of you I was an impulsive addicted egotistical train wreck But God had a plan for my life He wanted to lead me from my egocentric mind to the desire of his love my heart It was only eighteen inches Hope Never give up     The History of the Squares of London Edwin Beresford Chancellor,1907

Soviet-third World Relations Carol R Saivetz,Sylvia Babus Woodby,2019-07-11 Soviet Third World Relations presents an overview of Soviet policy toward the less developed countries and considers the determinants of that policy and its reflection in action The authors first examine the theoretical underpinnings of Soviet Third World policy including Leninism and Soviet developmental models and explore the tensions between prescribed progressive development strategies and the realities of Third World political processes Next the authors present a detailed look at the record of Soviet activities in the Third World This is a chronological and regional account which describes Soviet policy in the Middle East Africa Latin America and Asia This part also provides a discussion of the openings such as local conflicts liberationist movements and socialist causes and the obstacles nationalism anti imperialism the volatility of Third World politics to Soviet policy in the Third World It closes with an analysis of Soviet foreign policy tools and asks whether chosen policy instruments achieve their desired objectives In the final section of the book the authors look at the decision making context for Soviet Third World relations including an analysis of Soviet objectives decision making variables and the participants in the decision making process They conclude by assessing trends in Soviet Third World relations the successes and failures of Soviet activities in the nonindustrial world and analyzing the current situation Here they address as well the lessons learned from the past and the prospects for the post Brezhnev post Andropov era     William Blake G.E. Bentley Jnr.,2002-09-10

The Critical Heritage gathers together a large body of critical sources on major figures in literature Each volume presents contemporary responses to a writer s work enabling students and researchers to read for themselves for example comments on early performances of Shakespeare s plays or reactions to the first publication of Jane Austen s novels The carefully selected sources range from landmark essays in the history of criticism to journalism and contemporary opinion and little published documentary material such as letters and diaries Significant pieces of criticism from later periods are also included in order to demonstrate the fluctuations in an author s reputation Each volume contains an introduction to the writer s published works a selected bibliography and an index of works authors and subjects The Collected Critical Heritage set will be available as a set of 68 volumes and the series will also be available in mini sets selected by period in slipcase boxes and as individual volumes     Restaurant Republic Kelly Erby,2016-09-01 Before the 1820s the vast majority of Americans ate only at home As the nation began to urbanize and industrialize home and work became increasingly divided resulting in new forms of commercial dining In this fascinating book Kelly Erby explores the evolution of such eating alternatives in Boston during the nineteenth century Why Boston Its more modest assortment of restaurants its less impressive but still significant expansion in commerce and population and its growing diversity made it more typical of the nation s other urban centers than New York Restaurants clearly segmented along class gender race ethnic and other lines helped Bostonians become more comfortable with deepening social stratification in their city and young republic even as the experience of eating out contributed to an emerging public consumer culture Restaurant Republic sheds light on how commercial dining both reflected and helped shape growing fragmentation along lines of race class and gender from the elite Tremont House which served fashionable French cuisine to such plebeian and ethnic venues as oyster saloons and Chinese chop suey houses The epilogue takes us to the opening in 1929 near Boston of the nation's first Howard Johnson's and that restaurant's establishment as a franchise in the next decade The result is a compelling story that continues to shape America

A Companion to Pietro Aretino Marco Faini, Paola Ugolini, 2021-08-16 A Companion to Pietro Aretino offers exhaustive yet accessible essays aimed at understanding this complex and fascinating author Its scope extends beyond the field of Italian studies and includes references to other European literatures visual arts music performance studies gender studies and social and religious history It explores multiple areas of Aretino's literary and biographical identity in particular his religious writings and their fortune his relationships to visual arts and music and his fashioning of a public persona The essays here included support the current scholarly trend that no longer considers Aretino merely as a pornographer but interpret his work in the light of the contemporary religious debate and cultural crisis Contributors include lise Boillet Maria Cristina Cabani Eleonora Carinci Philip Cottrell Giuseppe Crimi Cathy Ann Elias Marco Faini Augusto Gentili Harald Hendrix Paul Larivaille Chiara Lastraioli Paolo Marini Ian F Moulton Paolo Procaccioli Brian Richardson Angelo Romano Deanna Shemek Jane Tylus Paola Ugolini and Raymond B Waddington
