Digital Humanities and the Lost Drama of Early Modern England Matthew Steggle, 2016-04-22 This book establishes new information about the likely content of ten lost plays from the period 1580 1642 These plays authors include Nashe Heywood and Dekker and the plays themselves connect in direct ways to some of the most canonical dramas of English literature including Hamlet King Lear The Changeling and The Duchess of Malfi The lost plays in question are Terminus Richard the Confessor 1593 Cutlack 1594 Bellendon 1594 Truth s Supplication to Candlelight 1600 Albere Galles 1602 Henry the Una c 1619 The Angel King 1624 The Duchess of Fernandina c 1630 42 and The Cardinal s Conspiracy bef 1639 From this list of bare titles it is argued can be reconstructed comedies tragedies and histories whose leading characters included a saint a robber a Medici duchess an impotent king at least one pope and an angel In each case newly available digital research resources make it possible to interrogate the title and to identify the play's subject matter analogues and likely genre But these concrete examples raise wider theoretical problems What is a lost play What can and cannot be said about objects in this problematic category Known lost plays from the early modern commercial theatre outnumber extant plays from that theatre but how in practice can one investigate them This book offers an innovative theoretical and practical frame for such work putting digital humanities into action in the emerging field of lost play studies

Good Nights Out
Aleks Sierz, 2019-12-12 London's West End is a global success story staging phenomenal hit shows that have delighted millions of spectators and generated billions of pounds in revenue In Good Nights Out Aleks Sierz provides a thematic survey of such popular theatre shows that were enormous commercial successes over the past 75 years He argues that these outstanding hits have a lot to say about the collective cultural social and political attitudes and aspirations of the country and about how our national identity and theatre's role in creating it has evolved over the decades The book spans a range of work from almost forgotten plays such as R F Delderfield's Worm's Eye View and Hugh Hastings's Seagulls Over Sorrento to well known mega hits such as The Mousetrap and The Phantom of the Opera Such popular work has tended to be undervalued by some critics and commentators mainly because it has not been thought to be a suitable subject for inclusion in the canon of English Literature By contrast Sierz demonstrates that genres such as the British musical light comedy sex farce or murder mystery are worth appreciating not only for their intrinsic theatrical qualities but also as examples of the dream life of the British people The book challenges the idea that mega hits are merely escapist entertainments and instead shows how they contribute to the creation of powerful myths about our national life The analysis of such shows also points towards the possibility of creating an alternative history of postwar British theatre

Fosse: Plays Six
Jon Fosse, 2024-05-16 Jon Fosse has been called the Beckett of the 21st century Le Monde and the Royal Court production of Nightsongs was dubbed Waiting for Godot without the gags Just as Beckett's plays and those of all great playwrights grew out of their time and influenced the current styles of drama and were part of what brought their times forward so do Fosse's plays now Fosse Plays Six marks the culmination of this Norwegian playwright's body of work for the stage to be published in the English language The volume includes the plays Rambuku Freedom Over There These Eyes Girl in Yellow Raincoat Christmas Tree Song and Sea Rambuku Two people One finds it difficult to speak The other attempts to understand But what is Rambuku Or who is Rambuku Freedom There is a sense of otherness in Fosse's work that challenges our notions of a concept such as freedom This play questions if freedom as we often understand it is perhaps a prison Over There A woman follows a man to his death But do they see the same images on the way to the top of the mountain These Eyes A snapshot of the dreamlike state of life The characters exist in an in between space which becomes their reality Girl in Yellow Raincoat An examination of our collective weakness and the fragility of children It asks questions about notions surrounding fear Christmas Tree Song A man celebrates Christmas alone and reflects in a somewhat ironic way on his life as he attempts to put up a Christmas tree Sea A group of people gathered in a kind of limbo on a ship disappearing into something unknown
